Constitution of the Socialist Party of America: Adopted by the Socialist Unity Convention, Indianapolis, IN — July 29 to Aug. 1, 1901.

Published in the Social Democratic Herald [Milwaukee], v. 4, no. 7, whole no. "159" (Aug. 17, 1901), corrected to the version published in The Workers' Call [Chicago] v. 3, whole no. 128 (Aug. 17, 1901), pg. 1.

[Name.]

The name of this organization shall be the Socialist Party of America, except in states where a different name has or may become a legal requirement.

National Committee.

[¶1.] There shall be a National Committee, composed of 1 member from each organized state or territory, and a Quorum of 5 to be elected from the membership of the locality of the seat of the committee.

[¶2.] The members of this committee shall be elected by and from the membership of the states or territories which they respectively represent by referendum vote. Their term of office shall not be more than 2 years, and they shall take their seats in the month of January.

[¶3.] This Committee shall meet in regular session not oftener than once a year. Special meetings shall be called at the request of a majority of members of such Committee.

Duties and Powers.

[¶1.] The duties of this Committee shall be to supervise and direct the work of the National Secretary; to represent the party in all national and international affairs; to organize unorganized states and territories; to call national nominating conventions, and special conventions called by referendum of the party, and to submit questions to referendum; to receive semi-annual reports from the state committees and to make reports to national conventions.

[¶2.] Any member of the National Committee, not a member of the Local Quorum, may require the Secretary to submit to a vote of the whole National Committee questions as to the removal of the Local Committee or the Secretary; also for its consideration any part of the work of the Secretary or of the Local Committee, or any business belonging to the National Committee.

[¶3.] The National Committee shall elect a Committee of 5 from the party membership of the locality selected for party headquarters to supervise and assist the Secretary as the National Committee shall require and direct. Said Committee of 5 shall form part of and be a quorum of the National Committee, but shall be subject to removal at any time by the National Committee. On the question of removal the said Local Quorum shall have no vote.

[¶4.] This Committee shall neither publish nor designate any official organ.

[¶5.] The National Secretary shall be elected by the National Committee, and shall be subject to removal at its discretion.

[¶6.] In states and territories in which there is one central organization affiliated with the party and representing at least 10 local organizations in different parts of the state or territory respectively, the state or territorial organization shall have the sole jurisdiction of the members residing within their respective territories, and the sole control of all matters pertaining to the propaganda, organization, and financial affairs within such state or territory, and the National Executive Committee and sub-committees or officers thereof shall have no right to interfere in such matters without the consent of the respective state or territorial organizations.

[¶7.] Expenses of the National Committee-men in attending meetings shall be paid from the National Treasury.

National Secretary.

The National Secretary shall be in communication with the matters of the National Committee, the officers of the organized states and territories, and with members in unorganized states and territories. The Secretary shall receive as compensation the sum of $1,000 annually.

Headquarters.

Headquarters shall be located at St. Louis, Missouri. But said headquarters may be changed by the National Committee, subject to a referendum of the party.

Organization of States and Territories.

Each state or territory may organize in such way or manner, and under such rules and regulations, as it may determine, but not in conflict with the provisions of this constitution.

Affiliation of States and Territories.

[¶1.] A state or territory shall be deemed organized and shall have a right to affiliate upon the organization of not less than 4 branches, each branch to consist of not less than 5 members.

[¶2.] Each state or territory so organized shall receive a charter.

[¶3.] The platform of the Socialist Party, adopted in convention or by referendum vote, shall be the supreme declaration of the party, and all state and municipal organizations shall, in the adoption of their platforms, conform thereto.

Revenue.

Each state or territory shall pay in to the National Committee every month a sum equal to 5 cents for every member in good standing within the respective state or territory.

Reports.

[¶1.] The Secretary shall prepare a monthly statement of the financial and other business of his office, and when approved by the Local Quorum of 5 shall issue the same to all party organizations, in such way as the National Committee shall direct.

[¶2.] The National Committee shall prepare a semi-annual report of all the financial and other business of the party and issue the same to all state and territorial organizations.

[¶3.] State Committees shall make semi-annual reports to the National Committee concerning their membership and financial condition and general standing of the party.

[¶4.] The National Committee shall also arrange a system of Financial Secretaries' and Treasurers' books for locals, the same to be furnished at cost to locals upon application.

Amendments.

Recommend.

This constitution may be amended by a National Convention, subject to a majority referendum vote of the party or by a referendum without the action of such a convention, and it shall be the duty of the National Committee to submit such amendment to a referendum vote within 30 days after being requested to do so by 5 locals in 3 different states.

Initiative and Referendum in Other Matters.

[¶1.] All acts of the National Committee shall be subject to referendum vote after the same manner as provided in the preceding section.

[¶2.] All propositions or other matters submitted for the referendum of the party shall be presented without comment.

Basis of Representation.

The basis of representation in any national convention shall be by states, each state being entitled to 1 delegate at large and 1 additional delegate for every 100 members in good standing.

Your [Constitution] Committee recommend that the present convention elect a Secretary and locate headquarters, and that when 10 states have elected their National Committeemen the National Committee shall be considered formed, but no state shall elect its Committeeman before the 1st of September, 1901.

(Amendment offered by Comrade Slobodin, adopted.)

Resolved, that the Social Democratic Party with headquarters at Springfield, Mass., the Social Democratic Party with headquarters at Chicago, Ill., the Socialist Party of Texas, and the Social Democratic Party of the states of Kentucky, Kansas, and Nebraska, hereby surrender their separate and independent existence and merge and amalgamate into one organization, this organization to be known as the Socialist Party; this action to take effect together with the whole constitution.
