COMMUNISTS IN REICHSTAG VOTE MISCONFIDENCE

Hit Socialist Program of Armboden

BERLIN, Germany, March 31—

The Communist Party, which had boycotted the Reichstag for three years, voted today to take its seats in the legislature for the first time. The vote was taken by the Communist Party list in a closed-door meeting of the Reichstag.

The vote, in effect, indicates that the Communists are willing to work with the other parties in the government and its administration.

The last vote of non-participation, which was taken in connection with the election of Franz Joseph Strauss as President, was one of the most controversial and important in the history of the Reichstag.
