A FEW HOURS WITH THE RED ARMY

By LENA CRESENDO

MOSCOW (by wire) — July 8 in the evening. A group of American visitors, including some of the officers of the 12th Infantry Division, have been invited to see a night performance of the political prisoners, in celebration of the July 7 anniversary of the Russian Revolution. The fact that the prisoners were out of their cells is highly significant, for it means that the Red Army is able to correct its mistakes and make amends for past errors.
