PRE-PLENUM DISCUSSION

Young Communist League, U.S.A.

Development of New Youth Leadership

By LEON THOMPSON

The struggle to develop a true and increasing consciousness of the world. The old world struggle. The new world struggle. In this struggle of the world’s men, women, and youth, every one of us has a tremendous responsibility to help the world’s masses of workers to understand and to win the battle for the world’s future. This struggle is not only a struggle for the world’s future, but also a struggle for the future of our own people. The struggle of the world’s workers is a struggle for the future of all the workers of the world, and it must be understood and fought by all of us.

I believe that the pre-plenum discussion should be based on the following principles:

1. The discussion must be based on the principle of the League’s Constitution, which states that the League’s main aim is to educate and organize the young people of the United States for the struggle for the world’s future. The discussion must be based on this principle, and must be aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the world’s struggle and at increasing the League’s membership.

2. The discussion must be based on the principle of the unity of the world’s workers, which means that we must work together with all the workers of the world, and not only with the workers of our own country.

3. The discussion must be based on the principle of the League’s program, which states that the League’s main aim is to educate and organize the young people of the United States for the struggle for the world’s future. The discussion must be based on this program, and must be aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the League’s aims and goals.

4. The discussion must be based on the principle of the necessity of unity, which means that we must work together with all the workers of the world, and not only with the workers of our own country.

The discussion should be based on these principles, and should be aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the world’s struggle and at increasing the League’s membership.

The discussion should be based on the principles of the League’s Constitution, which states that the League’s main aim is to educate and organize the young people of the United States for the struggle for the world’s future. The discussion should be based on this principle, and should be aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the world’s struggle and at increasing the League’s membership.

The discussion should be based on the principles of the unity of the world’s workers, which means that we must work together with all the workers of the world, and not only with the workers of our own country.

The discussion should be based on the principles of the League’s program, which states that the League’s main aim is to educate and organize the young people of the United States for the struggle for the world’s future. The discussion should be based on this program, and should be aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the League’s aims and goals.

The discussion should be based on the principles of the necessity of unity, which means that we must work together with all the workers of the world, and not only with the workers of our own country.

The discussion should be based on these principles, and should be aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of the world’s struggle and at increasing the League’s membership.