SECOND CONVENTION, WORKERS' PARTY OF CANADA

BY E. W. L. ACTIVITIES

Y. W. L. Activities

at 1st preliminary conference of E isd activities of this district held on

In the national capital it was Harry Green, national secretary of the organization, was present and gave a talk about the young workers of Canada under the influence of Roy H. Stickless for the purpose of explaining to the participants the general and specific elements in the movement.

The work had been sent out to all parts of the country by the organization, and was accompanied by an organization report by the delegates.

The work of the Unemployment of Workers' movement was summarized at the conference, and a new organization was decided upon.

The work of the Workers' movement in various parts of the country was discussed at the conference,

and a new organization was

decided upon.

The work of the Workers' movement

in various parts of the country was

discussed at the conference,

and a new organization was

decided upon.