***** THE ABSOLUTE IS MAN. Can D.M. do without an ontology? p. 315

MAN WILL NEVER BE THE TOTAL obj. of his, for he is the SUBJ. of his.

P. 322, JP S: Thus His. makes us universal in the exact measure U P which we make it particular. This is the important gift which Merleau offers us thru his desperate struggle to keep digging in the same place. Setting out from the well-known universality of the singular, he arrives at the singularity of the universal. It is he who unearthed the capital contradiction: Every his. is all His. when a no-mes-clair is kindled ... the universal is only est'd by the living singularity which deforms it by singularizing it. Do not read this simply as a new chopped-up form of 'tragic conscience.' It is just the opposite. (??)

HAVE Jap. students pursued their differences with Stalinism to its phil. foundations? On the one hand, YES, but once they accepted Alienated Labor & still wanted to build vanguardist party, they slipped back to "pure politics." J*P S popular among students who impressed them also by being for their demonstrations.

***SHIMIZU: "Ideological armisties corresponded perfectly to *****
