OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

By W. R. Feuer, Special Correspondent.

After a long and immense trial of 800 hours and 3,000 witnesses, the final verdict is now ready for the opening gala. The delegates of the American Federation of Labor, a large majority of them with a big red flag in each hand, are shouting and cheering to begin their international meeting. The prospect seems bright in the International.

From the information furnished to us by the President of the Federation, we find that the meeting is to begin on Tuesday, May 27, at 10 o'clock A.M. The President of the Federation is Mr. John L. Lewis, and the Vice-President is Mr. Richard C. Bowers. The meeting is to be held in the Grand Opera House, Chicago, Illinois.

The Federation has invited to send accredited delegations to the meeting from various countries, including the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

The Federation has also announced that the meeting will be held for the purpose of electing the new officers of the Federation and discussing various labor questions.

The Federation has invited the American Federation of Labor in the United States to send a delegation to the meeting, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, on Tuesday, May 27, at 10 o'clock A.M. The Federation has also invited the Canadian Federation of Labor to send a delegation to the meeting.

The Federation has announced that the meeting will be held for the purpose of discussing various labor questions, including the problem of industrial unionism and the organization of labor.

The Federation has also announced that the meeting will be held for the purpose of electing the new officers of the Federation.

The Federation has invited the American Federation of Labor in the United States to send a delegation to the meeting, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, on Tuesday, May 27, at 10 o'clock A.M.

The Federation has also invited the Canadian Federation of Labor to send a delegation to the meeting.

The Federation has announced that the meeting will be held for the purpose of discussing various labor questions, including the problem of industrial unionism and the organization of labor.

The Federation has also announced that the meeting will be held for the purpose of electing the new officers of the Federation.