Wm. Z. Foster's Speech in Favor of the Formation of a Federated Labor Party

The most dynamic moment during the convention will be when Wm. Z. Foster makes his speech in favor of the formation of a Federated Labor Party. He will address the delegates with force and conviction, and the impact of his words will be felt throughout the convention.