Stir the Shops!

The very best plan to carry on a working class struggle is in the shopping centers. In the shopping centers the masses of the working people come into contact with the capitalist class. In the shopping centers they find the capitalist class in the role of paymasters and, in addition, they are able to purchase the commodities of the capitalist class. The working people have the opportunity toibly additional proof that

Foster Urges Real Workers’ Co-ops.

By MARTIN ABERN

Foster's last visit to Chicago was taken by the Workers Party, Local Chicago. The idea of capturing the store by the workers is a very old idea, but the movement that drives to that end is a new one. The store meeting was the best attended and most successful ever held here. Foster himself was present and gave great encouragement.
