Discussion of Our Party's Immediate Tasks

What Our Labor Party Policy Has Accomplished

by W. Z. Foster

The Workers' Party as a unity-front organization has been a great help to the working class. The party has been able to utilize the most progressive elements of the labor movement and to develop them into a powerful force for social change. The party's slogan is "Workers' United Front." It is a slogan that reflects the party's commitment to the unity of the working class.

A United Front upon the Policy to Insure the Daily Worker's Rights

A United Front upon the Policy to Improve the Daily Worker's Rights

The Daily Worker is the official organ of the Workers' Party. It is published every day, and it serves as a means of communication between the party and its members. The Daily Worker is a tool for the party's propaganda work.

An Unanimous Decision

The Workers' Party has decided to support the Daily Worker's Rights movement. The party's decision is based on the belief that the Daily Worker's Rights movement is a necessary part of the struggle for workers' rights.

Commissar Action Needed on the Political Field as Well as Commissar Action

by Karl Marx

Commissars are members of the party's leadership who are responsible for carrying out the party's policies. Commissars are elected by the party's Congress, and they are responsible for implementing the party's program.

Workers' Party Congress

The Workers' Party Congress is the highest decision-making body of the party. The Congress is responsible for setting the party's policies and for electing the party's leadership. The Congress meets once a year, and it is attended by representatives from all parts of the country.

With Your Daily Worker, You Are Doing Your Part in the Commune's Struggle for Socialism

Your Daily Worker is the voice of the Workers' Party. It is a tool for the party's propaganda work, and it serves as a means of communication between the party and its members. The Daily Worker is a necessary part of the struggle for workers' rights.

On the Road to Socialism

The Workers' Party is committed to the goal of socialism. The party's ultimate goal is to create a classless society in which the means of production are owned by the working class.

Workers' United Front

The Workers' Party has been a strong supporter of the united front movement. The party believes that the united front is a necessary part of the struggle for workers' rights.

Discussion of Our Party's Immediate Tasks

What Our Labor Party Policy Has Accomplished

by W. Z. Foster

The Workers' Party as a unity-front organization has been a great help to the working class. The party has been able to utilize the most progressive elements of the labor movement and to develop them into a powerful force for social change. The party's slogan is "Workers' United Front." It is a slogan that reflects the party's commitment to the unity of the working class.

A United Front upon the Policy to Improve the Daily Worker's Rights

The Daily Worker is the official organ of the Workers' Party. It is published every day, and it serves as a means of communication between the party and its members. The Daily Worker is a tool for the party's propaganda work.

An Unanimous Decision

The Workers' Party has decided to support the Daily Worker's Rights movement. The party's decision is based on the belief that the Daily Worker's Rights movement is a necessary part of the struggle for workers' rights.

Commissar Action Needed on the Political Field as Well as Commissar Action

by Karl Marx

Commissars are members of the party's leadership who are responsible for carrying out the party's policies. Commissars are elected by the party's Congress, and they are responsible for implementing the party's program.

Workers' Party Congress

The Workers' Party Congress is the highest decision-making body of the party. The Congress is responsible for setting the party's policies and for electing the party's leadership. The Congress meets once a year, and it is attended by representatives from all parts of the country.

With Your Daily Worker, You Are Doing Your Part in the Commune's Struggle for Socialism

Your Daily Worker is the voice of the Workers' Party. It is a tool for the party's propaganda work, and it serves as a means of communication between the party and its members. The Daily Worker is a necessary part of the struggle for workers' rights.

On the Road to Socialism

The Workers' Party is committed to the goal of socialism. The party's ultimate goal is to create a classless society in which the means of production are owned by the working class.

Workers' United Front

The Workers' Party has been a strong supporter of the united front movement. The party believes that the united front is a necessary part of the struggle for workers' rights.