Our Party and the Communist International

THE DAILY WORKER

Page Three

Our Party and the Communist International

[The text is too large and the resolution is too low to discern the content accurately.]

Speech by Wm. Z. Foster at Y. W. L Convention

[The text is too large and the resolution is too low to discern the content accurately.]
Cleveland, O., Feb. 3—A most successful sponsorship meeting was held here today in the American Labor Temple. The meeting was attended by over 300 members of the local Structure. Comrade Dabagh, the local chairman, introduced the meeting and called upon Mr. W. B. Pepper, president of the Pittsburgh chapter, to address the audience. Mr. Pepper spoke at length on the importance of unity and cooperation among the various labor organizations in the area. The meeting was adjourned.

SPEECH BY WM. Z. FOSTER

Y. W. L. ELECTS WORKERS AS CANDIDATES TO N. E. C.; BEADACH SPEAKS TO YOUTH

(Continued from Yesterday)

In addition to the above-mentioned resolutions, a resolution was presented for the consideration of the N. E. C. The resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, That the N. E. C. endorse the following candidates for the N. E. C.:

Eve L. Brown, 102 West 30th St., New York City

Nancy J. Smith, 48 West 45th St., New York City

Lucille R. Jones, 55 East 56th St., New York City

Barbara M. Jones, 200 West 100th St., New York City"

Mr. Foster then addressed the audience and made a few closing remarks. He emphasized the importance of the candidates' work and called upon all members of the Y. W. L. to support them in every possible way.

DANGEROUS AGAIN! A DANGER AGAIN FOR DAILY WORKER AS RETURNS FROM OUR DRIVE DWINDLES

In the race which will determine the fate of the Daily Worker, the workers are not making sufficient progress. The outlook is very bright, but there is still a long way to go. In order to win, we must make a determined effort. The N. E. C. has been working hard to secure the necessary resources, but we need your help. The workers must work together and give their utmost to ensure the success of the drive.

NEEDLE TRADES WORKERS BALL TO HELP LAUNCH ORGANIZATION DRIVE

The Needle Trades Council will hold a ball on Saturday, February 5th, at the Grand Opera House, New York City. The proceeds of the ball will be used to support the organization drive. All members of the Needle Trades Council are requested to attend.

Cleveland Monthly Worker

The monthly meeting of the Cleveland Monthly Worker was held last night at the American Labor Temple. The meeting was called to order by Comrade Dabagh, the local chairman. The discussion of the day centered around the importance of unity and cooperation among the various labor organizations in the area. The meeting was adjourned.

THE TRUTH STANDS STRONGER NOW THAN EVER..."