Trade Union Work

To the Executive Committee of the Communist Party of the United States of America:

The fact of the matter is that the Workers Party as a whole must understand the importance of trade union work. The workers movement is our first and foremost task. With this in mind, the Workers Party must take a definite position on the question of trade union work.

The Workers Party must actively engage in the work of the labor unions. In the first place, the Workers Party must make a clear distinction between the old and the new trade unionism. The old trade unionism was not directed by the American Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor. The new trade unionism is our first and foremost task.

It is also necessary for the Workers Party to support the demands of the trade unionists. The Workers Party must actively engage in the work of the labor unions.
