The Labor Movement and the Sacco-Vanzetti Case

By W. M. Foster

No matter what your personal feelings on the death of Sacco and Vanzetti, their martyrdom has done much to further the cause of the workers. The Socialist party and its organizations are doing much to carry on the fight for the liberation of the working class.

We are all aware of the importance of this struggle. We know that it is a matter of life and death for the working class. We know that it is a matter of survival for the capitalist class.

The Sacco-Vanzetti case is a clear example of this. The trial of these two men was a clear example of the capitalist system at work. It was a clear example of how the capitalist class uses the courts to suppress the working class.

We must all do our part to fight against this. We must all support the socialist party and its organizations in their work to fight for the liberation of the working class.

The Church, The Courts, The Colleges—All Hangmen.

—By M. Pass

THE CHURCH.
The Church is the greatest enemy of the working class. It is a powerful tool of the capitalist class. It is a tool that is used to keep the working class in a state of confusion and despair.

The Church teaches the working class that the capitalist class is the only real authority. It teaches that the Church is the only true source of authority.

This is a lie. The Church is not the only source of authority. The working class has the power to make its own decisions. The working class has the power to make its own laws.

We must all stand up against the Church and its influence. We must all work to break the power of the Church.

THE COURTS.
The courts are the second greatest enemy of the working class. They are a tool of the capitalist class. They are a tool that is used to suppress the working class.

The courts are used to suppress the working class in many ways. They are used to suppress the working class by giving them false information. They are used to suppress the working class by giving them false laws.

We must all stand up against the courts and their influence. We must all work to break the power of the courts.

THE COLLEGES.
The colleges are the third greatest enemy of the working class. They are a tool of the capitalist class. They are a tool that is used to suppress the working class.

The colleges are used to suppress the working class in many ways. They are used to suppress the working class by giving them false information. They are used to suppress the working class by giving them false laws.

We must all stand up against the colleges and their influence. We must all work to break the power of the colleges.
