SECOND SECTION OF THE MAY DAY NUMBER OF THE Daily Worker
For the Organization of the Unorganized
For a Labor Party

Vol. V. No. 103.
Extended in second-class matter at the Post office at New York, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1928

Price 3 Cents

IN TWO SECTIONS
SECTION TWO

MAKE IT A DAY OF WORKING CLASS MILITANCY

These Mine Women Are Examples of Militancy

By JAY GOVERNESS

In 1928, coal miners are not the only workers facing deplorable conditions and low wages. In the United States, women miners also endured harsh working conditions and low pay. Their struggles were part of a broader class struggle against exploitation and for workers' rights.

State troopers under arrest of Sheriff Robert R. Brown, break up a meeting of the United States Steel Corporation at Clarksburg, W. Va. After the miners had disrupted the meeting, the women in attendance demanded the right to vote and for better wages.

May Day, 1928, Sees Rise of New Spirit of Militancy in American Labor Movement

By W. E. B. PIERCE

May Day, 1928, saw a significant increase in the militancy of American workers. This was due to the growing frustration with the limited gains from previous strikes and the need for a stronger united front against capital.

Railroads in Flight on Government Barrages

WASHINGTON, April 29—Railroads in the Northeast have been involved in disputes with workers. President Coolidge has ordered the use of military force to break the strikes, leading to widespread protests and calls for workers' rights.

Fascists Send Police Against Poor Peasants

VIENNA, April 30—Trouble has erupted in the working-class neighborhoods of Vienna, with police using violence against the poor. This reflects the growing anti-worker sentiment in Europe during this period.

Locating Position of the Communist Party on May 1, 1928

By JOHN PEPPER

The Communist Party of America is a revolutionary organization committed to the overthrow of capitalism and the establishment of a classless society. It is one of the largest and most influential organizations in the United States, and its members are active in various campaigns and struggles.

Cotton Bosses Holding Contraf MayCutWages

Cotton mill owners are imposing severe cuts on workers, leading to widespread protests and strikes. This is part of the broader struggle for workers' rights and safer working conditions.

Deny Citizenship to Worker: Opposed War

By PETER V. POMERANZ

The Communist Party opposes war and advocates for international solidarity. Its members are active in promoting peace and opposing imperialism.

Jail Sick Communist

Jail authorities are treating N. W. Upjohn, a sick Communist, with inhumane conditions. The Communist Party demands his release and calls for better treatment of political prisoners.

...