Only One Line In The C. E. C. Majority

Statement by Comrades Lovestone and Pepper

The Minority on the Results of the Plenum

The Lovestone-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".

The Finlayson-Binmore Opposition is in its new statement, "The Minority on the Results of the Plenum" (PC, April 19, 1928), attempting to again confuse the Party with the arguments of the C. E. C. Majority, headed by Comrades Pepper and Lovestone, and which is known as the "Trotsky Opposition".