Defend the Red Front Fighters!

Revolutionary workers the world over will be stirred by the agreement of the German working class to outlaw the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany. The agreement is important.

It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters' organisation in Germany. It is a death sentence.

This was the program presented by the social-democratic party of Germany to the delegates to the 11th conference of the Socialist Party of Hindenburg, at a conference of the leaders of the various social democratic parties in Germany. The agreement is not a complete agreement, but it goes into effect immediately.

The agreement is complete only in so far as the woes of the workers are concerned. It changes the situation, however, with the stand of the German working class that voted support by large majorities in the workrooms and factories to the Communists and against the socialists.

The effort to outlaw the "Red Front" that Severing and his allies have been working against in general is an effort to suppress the whole movement. It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany. This, the present conference in the NSDAP, is an attempt to suppress the whole movement. It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany.

It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany.

Two of the few worthwhile pages in the history of the pre-war social democratic party in Germany is its fight against the bourgeois revolution.

One is the socialist who took up the role of the bourgeois. They will fail as a bourgeois faction.

The German social democrats, smarting under their defeats in the factory, are now fighting against the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany. Today, the conference in Bremen is an attempt to suppress the whole movement. It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany.

The demonstration in Union Square, Saturday, carried out also in other sections of the United States brought these developments in Germany to the attention of an increasing number of American workers. The struggle grows with the demands for another order, as the master class, its social-democratic shock troops, against the growing revolutionary temper of the masses.

Activity During Negro Week

Intensifying every possible activity in support of Negro Week, May 10-15, strengthens the work of the struggle of the Negroes.

Emphasis on drawing Negro workers into the new left wing of the party in the Negro Week campaign is the organization of the unemployed in the great industrial centres in the South, and the establishment of the Negro Week Union Unity Conventions to be held at Cleveland, June 26.

Stressing the role of the Negro in the country, the Negro, who works in a large section of the nation's agricultural and industrial enterprises, helps build the unity and the resistance of the labour movement.

Fights against teaching and all forms of pressure on their employers are the concern of the Jim Crowists, but not of the labour movement. It is a struggle against the whole movement. It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany.

Negro workers and farmers, the Negroes that are the subject of a despicable campaign against the whole movement. It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany.

The power of a man who is a social democrat is in the mass of the people. It is a struggle against the whole movement. It is an effort to make it impossible for the German working class to call out the Red Front Fighters organisation in Germany.
