

We Want Unemployment Insurance Now!

By JOE SCHMIDT

The Socialist campaign of the TULUW and its affiliated union, the Central Labor Council, have made a tremendous advance in penetrating the working men that the campaign is a political one.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair. It is the fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair. It is the fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.

The campaign is a political one and requires a wider front and a higher level of organization. It is not a fight for votes but a fight for the working man's right to be heard and to be fair.