Into the Shops! Into the Struggle!

The action of the New York State Labor Convention of the Communist Party in publishing our program in such a way as to enable the working class to carry forward the banner of struggle left in our hands, is profoundly important not only to the working class, but to all those who cherish the principles of humanity. The Communist Party stands for the conscious, conscious, collective action of the working class for the victorious revolution of the world.

The election campaign will not be a Communist campaign unless it helps to prepare for the final struggle and gives a lead to the fighting spirit of the workers. The campaign will be a Communist propaganda campaign, the one that only a Communist can carry on.

The greatest weapon with which the workers can arm the movement is the slogan. It is the big slogan that gives the movement a definite policy, a definite goal. It is the slogan that gives the movement a definite strategy and tactics.
