Workers! Don't Starve! Fight! Hunger Lines Keep on Growing

Workers' Children Send Pennies Saved for $30,000 Fund; Take Up the Challenge!

By A. J. FOSTER

Again the Daily Worker appears, but the telephone bills, power bills, and rent remain unpaid. The day in New York City has helped pull through from day to day, and the workers are facing a serious economic crisis. The workers are being forced to pay for the cost of living, and are being forced to pay for the cost of production. The workers are being forced to pay for the cost of the war.

The General Executive Board of the Needle Trades Workers' Union has called a meeting to support the Daily Worker in the emergency drive. The union has decided to make a special collection for the Daily Worker, and the collection will be held on Wednesday, December 27th, at the union hall.

The response from other cities than New York is beginning to show that the workers are determined to fight the deficit, however, the length of time it takes to send in deficients the actual realization of the Daily Worker.
