MORE JOBLESS AS CRISIS TAKES A TURN FOR THE WORSE

The Public Works Fallacy

Communists are not at variance with public works, but the workers themselves. When the funds for public works are raised not by confiscation of the idle capital of the idle classes, but by taxes on the salaries of the workers, the workers themselves are the benefactors. The whole scheme is designed to displace the workers from what small employment they have and to throw them on the public funds, but with no guarantee from their employers that they will be returned after the work is finished.

The "socialists" have always been the "business" men's most trusted friends, and they are the "business" men's most trusted friends today.

The delegation which represents the "socialists" in the New Bedford Strike Case was received by the Daily Worker on Sept. 20. The delegation presented the Trade Union Congress with a demand for more work and a shorter workday.
