NOT 'MOB LAW COMMISSION'
BUT WORKERS' SOLIDARITY

By CHARLES ALEXANDER

PRESERVED is the mighty wave of the working class in the United States, and the growing power of the working class around the world, the movement to preserve social order in the face of capitalist crisis. This is the work of the American Communist Party, its members and its allies, who are fighting to defend and expand the rights and liberties of all workers. The party is the vanguard of the working class movement, the leader of the struggle against capitalism.

Section two directs the commission to "study the situation of the workers in the United States and to make recommendations on the best means of protecting the workers' rights." This is the party's commitment to the workers, and to the struggle for their rights.

The capitalist press is calling editorially for a "national defense" campaign, and demanding that the government intervene to stop the workers' movement. The party is fighting back, and calling on the working class to continue its struggle.

The Indian Daily Mail, displaying a correct attitude to the political struggle, has been first to recognize the workers' movement in India as a major force in the country. The paper has been a Leader of workers' organizations, and has been instrumental in the development of the workers' movement in India.

The spread of the No-Tax Campaign is a sign of the growing strength of the workers' movement in India. The workers have been able to organize, and to make demands on the government, and to fight for their rights.

The party is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

The American Communist Party has been a leader of the workers' movement in the United States. It has been fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

On the Anthracite Front

BY BILL LAWRENCE

The section of the Central Executive Com- mittee that deals with the coal miners' strike in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania has been meeting to consider the situation. The miners have been on strike for three weeks, and the company has been using violent means to try to break the strike.

The miners are fighting back, and are gaining strength. The company is losing ground, and is beginning to be afraid. The miners have the support of the working class, and of the people of the country. The government is on the side of the company, and is trying to break the strike by force.

The miners are determined to fight on, and to win. They are fighting for the rights of all workers, and for the working class movement.

The party is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

Peasants Becoming Class-conscious

By W. N. LOVEJOY

The situation of the peasants in India is a matter of great concern to the party. The peasants are fighting for the right to own and work the land, and for the right to keep the fruits of their labor.

The party is fighting for the peasants, and for the peasants' rights. It is fighting against the landlords, and against the government. It is fighting for the peasants, and for the peasants' rights.

Socialist Oneal Approves

By EARL BROWN

M' DONALD'S INDIA MURDERS

The International Labor Defense, the official organ of the Communist Party, has published a statement in which it expresses its approval of the actions of the Indian working class in the struggle against the landlords.

The party is fighting for the working class, and for the working class movement. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the working class, and for the working class movement.

On the Anthracite Front

BY BILL LAWRENCE

The section of the Central Executive Com- mittee that deals with the coal miners' strike in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania has been meeting to consider the situation. The miners have been on strike for three weeks, and the company has been using violent means to try to break the strike.

The miners are fighting back, and are gaining strength. The company is losing ground, and is beginning to be afraid. The miners have the support of the working class, and of the people of the country. The government is on the side of the company, and is trying to break the strike by force.

The miners are determined to fight on, and to win. They are fighting for the rights of all workers, and for the working class movement.

The party is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

Peasants Becoming Class-conscious

By W. N. LOVEJOY

The situation of the peasants in India is a matter of great concern to the party. The peasants are fighting for the right to own and work the land, and for the right to keep the fruits of their labor.

The party is fighting for the peasants, and for the peasants' rights. It is fighting against the landlords, and against the government. It is fighting for the peasants, and for the peasants' rights.

Socialist Oneal Approves

By EARL BROWN

M' DONALD'S INDIA MURDERS

The International Labor Defense, the official organ of the Communist Party, has published a statement in which it expresses its approval of the actions of the Indian working class in the struggle against the landlords.

The party is fighting for the working class, and for the working class movement. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the working class, and for the working class movement.

Socialist Oneal Approves

By EARL BROWN

M' DONALD'S INDIA MURDERS

The International Labor Defense, the official organ of the Communist Party, has published a statement in which it expresses its approval of the actions of the Indian working class in the struggle against the landlords.

The party is fighting for the working class, and for the working class movement. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the working class, and for the working class movement.

On the Anthracite Front

BY BILL LAWRENCE

The section of the Central Executive Com- mittee that deals with the coal miners' strike in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania has been meeting to consider the situation. The miners have been on strike for three weeks, and the company has been using violent means to try to break the strike.

The miners are fighting back, and are gaining strength. The company is losing ground, and is beginning to be afraid. The miners have the support of the working class, and of the people of the country. The government is on the side of the company, and is trying to break the strike by force.

The miners are determined to fight on, and to win. They are fighting for the rights of all workers, and for the working class movement.

The party is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

On the Anthracite Front

BY BILL LAWRENCE

The section of the Central Executive Com- mittee that deals with the coal miners' strike in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania has been meeting to consider the situation. The miners have been on strike for three weeks, and the company has been using violent means to try to break the strike.

The miners are fighting back, and are gaining strength. The company is losing ground, and is beginning to be afraid. The miners have the support of the working class, and of the people of the country. The government is on the side of the company, and is trying to break the strike by force.

The miners are determined to fight on, and to win. They are fighting for the rights of all workers, and for the working class movement.

The party is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

On the Anthracite Front

BY BILL LAWRENCE

The section of the Central Executive Com- mittee that deals with the coal miners' strike in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania has been meeting to consider the situation. The miners have been on strike for three weeks, and the company has been using violent means to try to break the strike.

The miners are fighting back, and are gaining strength. The company is losing ground, and is beginning to be afraid. The miners have the support of the working class, and of the people of the country. The government is on the side of the company, and is trying to break the strike by force.

The miners are determined to fight on, and to win. They are fighting for the rights of all workers, and for the working class movement.

The party is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.

On the Anthracite Front

BY BILL LAWRENCE

The section of the Central Executive Com- mittee that deals with the coal miners' strike in the Anthracite region of Pennsylvania has been meeting to consider the situation. The miners have been on strike for three weeks, and the company has been using violent means to try to break the strike.

The miners are fighting back, and are gaining strength. The company is losing ground, and is beginning to be afraid. The miners have the support of the working class, and of the people of the country. The government is on the side of the company, and is trying to break the strike by force.

The miners are determined to fight on, and to win. They are fighting for the rights of all workers, and for the working class movement.

The party is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights. It is fighting against the capitalists, and against the government. It is fighting for the workers, and for the workers' rights.