World Labor Unity Must Blockade Fascism... Foster

By William E. Foster

The fascist powers, with their great aggression upon weaker nations, again have thrown the world to the brink of war. Nazi Germany's occupation of Danzig, not to speak of Japan's conquest of Manchuria, is a part of the same action, for the maintenance of the European position. With that, even before these lines come to print, it may well be that a man or a new man of the Chamberlain school will come forward. This man will try to create a new world conflict by bringing the world to the brink of war. Chamberlain And King in Broadcast

20,000 Britons March in TV Parade

LONDON, July 17—(AP)—Britain's Chamberlain and King broadcast to some 20,000 British subjects who assembled in the Royal Park here today. The King, in a message to the people of the United Kingdom and its dependencies, said:

"The people of the United Kingdom and its dependencies have been asked to observe the Sunday of the British Empire at 11 a.m. on July 17. The purpose of this observance is to show our appreciation of the sacrifices made by the people of the Empire and of their family in the war."

"I am sure that everyone will do his duty in this observance, and that the occasion will be a fitting one in which to express our gratitude for the services of those who are fighting for our free institutions and our way of life.

"I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of the sacrifices made by the people of the Empire and of their family in the war."
