Mass Tank Battle Still Rages in Lucca Sector

BULLETIN

LONDON, Monday, June 30 (UP).—The Soviet night communique, heard here early today, claimed that Germany has lost more than 2,500 tanks, about 1,500 of which were destroyed by Soviet artillery fire and the remainder taken prisoner.

"The crash of Velkech, a fighting vehicle, has totally eliminated the enemy's tank forces," the communiqué stated. A German and French regiment is reported to have been forced to give up without a struggle and to have withdrawn, the communiqué said.

The communiqué said that the Soviet forces, totaling 500,000 tanks and about 1,000,000 other military personnel, had been driven from Lucca Sector.

"There is no enemy left to fight," the communiqué said.
