CIO Executive Committee Hits Quill indictment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17-The CIO Executive Committee yesterday pledged its full support to Meyer Quill, president of the CIO Transport Workers Union, whose members have been indicted on libel charges.

"We'll be indicted," Mr. Samuel told the paper's reporter at the New York Times building, "but we'll be satisfied that we've fought for our freedom and our country.

Eisenhower Maps Atom Giveaway to Monopolies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17-President Eisenhower today asked Congress for 13 amendments to the Atomic Energy Act which would speed the process of turning atomic weapons into conventional arms and give away the country's tax-paid atomic energy resources to the Wall Street monopoly.

The President proposed:

1. Allow private industry to import, operate, and dispose of nuclear and atomic weapons.

2. Give government information on nuclear and atomic weapons development, including power and transfer to these atomic weapons necessary for such developments.

3. Transfer control of atomic weapons to the Department of Defense, remove some weapons from the "restricted data" categories, and permit public access to such weapons which can be released without harming national security.

4. Relax security regulations against persons or institutions who have had access to restricted data.

5. Convince the President to sign such a program, which would be "counter to the best interests of the U.S."

Tammany, GOP Defeat Puerto Rican in 14th

The campaign to elect a Puerto Rican, Assemblyman from the 14th Assembly District, in Lower Harlem, could not overcome GOP andTammany maneuvers, and Kenneth Phipps, the Tammany candidate, won over energetic Democrat by Tuesday's special election, 1,031 to 778.

Phipps will now occupy the seat vacated by H. J. Lee, who died in California.

The designation had been budgeted last August by Morgan C. Disparte to a Puerto Rican to be named by the Tammany machinery. The designation was used to fill the Assemblyman's seat, and the Republican Party learned the slant.

But Democratic Party leaders said of the Democratic party that it is "enraged about the fact that just about everything that has to be done has to be done by the Tammany Party."
