Delegates from Other Nations
Honor President of E. Germany

BERLIN, Jan. 4.—High officials from six other nations, including the United States, arrived here yesterday to celebrate the 50th birthday of President Richard von Kahr. Marshal Kliment K. Tsar, president of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., arrived here at the head of a five-man Soviet delegation.

Also at the ceremonies were government and social leaders from the United States, France, Great Britain, and India. The Soviet delegation was headed by Marshal Klement V. Molotov, president of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R."

The Communist Democratic
French Election Victory

By WILLIAM Z. FOSTER

The CAPTAIN'S word par- ticularly American monoply cap- italism, in the form of the Rooseveltite Democratic Party, sites in the wake of old, and the steady rise of the great capitalist classes. The workers, on the other hand, have been fighting a long struggle against the powerful forces of monopoly.

The success of the CAPTAIN's word in this struggle is due to the fact that it is the word of the people, the word of the masses. It is the word of the struggle for freedom, for democracy, for socialism.

The work of the CAPTAIN's word is not only a struggle for the material interests of the workers, but also a struggle for the spiritual interests of the workers. It is a struggle for the right to think, to speak, to worship, to love, to live.

The CAPTAIN's word is the word of the people, the word of the future. It is the word of the struggle for a better world, a world without exploitation, a world where every man is free to be himself.

The Communist Democratic Party, under the leadership of President Richard von Kahr, is the party of the working class, the party of the people. It is the party of the struggle for freedom, for democracy, for socialism.
