Communists Urge Cleveland Carmen to Fight Sell-Out by Treacherous Misladers

STRIKE BOUND TO COME, MEN SLAVE UNDER OPEN SHOP

(From Page One)

Baltimore, Md. (By Mail).—The CIO-CWU to bring in a strike, has now been announced. The strikers are to go out on May 31, 1929, and the men will be on strike until the end of the month. The strikers are demanding an increase in wages of 25 cents per hour, which has been refused by the company. The company has vowed to break the strike with force, and the strikers are prepared to fight. The strike is expected to be a hard one, and the company is said to be determined to put down the strike with force.

AWAIT RESULT OF CHINA INTRIGUE

Leeds Offer to Retire for Imperialists

(Continued from Page One)

The British government has refused to recognize the new Chinese government, and the British consul in Shanghai has been ordered to leave the city. The British government has also issued a strong protest against the Chinese government's action, and has threatened to take steps to protect its interests.

BROOKLYN STUDENTS DEMONSTRATE AT FIVE MEETINGS

(Continued from Page One)

The students at Brooklyn College have continued their demonstrations, and have held five meetings so far. The demonstrations have been peaceful, and the students have been well-behaved. The police have been on duty, and there have been no disturbances.

FOOD STRIKERS TO PICKET TODAY

Demonstrate Against Jailings and Injunctions

(Continued from Page One)

The food strikers have announced that they will continue their demonstration against jailings and injunctions. They have threatened to disrupt the courts, and have called for a general strike. The police have been put on guard, and the courts are expected to be busy.

THOUSANDS HAIL MASS PROTEST OF HARLEM TENANTS

Resolution Passed at Big Demonstration

(Continued from Page One)

The tenants of Harlem have passed a resolution protesting against the high rents and poor conditions in their neighborhood. The resolution was signed by thousands of tenants, and was presented to the city government. The government has promised to investigate the matter.

ANTIMAILER MOVEMENT GROWS

Meet Held to Mobilize Thousands

(Continued from Page One)

A meeting was held to mobilize thousands of antimalerists. The meeting was attended by representatives of the antimaler movement from all parts of the country. The speakers warned of the danger of mailers, and called for action to prevent them from spreading.

MINE CLOSURES

Thousands May Lose Jobs

(Continued from Page One)

The coal companies have announced that they will close dozens of mines, and thousands of workers will lose their jobs. The companies have cited the low price of coal as the reason for closing the mines. The workers are angry and are calling for a boycott of coal.

MADAM SERIOY

Crippled Woman in Business

(Continued from Page One)

Madam Serioy, a crippled woman, has opened a successful business. She is a good cook, and her food is popular with the customers. She has a good reputation, and her business is expected to grow.