Berry, a Broker in "Labor"

By George P. Foster

Berry, a former prize-fighter and president of the Socialist Labor party of the United States, is now the candidate for the office of United States Senator from Illinois. Berry is a man who has been in the public eye for many years, and who has always been a champion of the working class. He is a man who has dedicated his life to the cause of the working class, and who has always been willing to fight for the rights of the working class.

The campaign of Berry is a campaign of the CPA, and it is a campaign of the workers. Berry is a man who has always been a friend of the workers, and who has always been willing to stand up for the rights of the working class. He is a man who has always been willing to fight for the rights of the working class, and who has always been willing to stand up for the rights of the working class.
