LaGuardia's Relief Taxes

The new wealth had been largely financing unemployment relief in New York city, new taxes on the commercial articulate direct tax and a tax on every envelope held by the LaGuardia regime.

As in the past, when the various "Black tsk" and "Share the Wealth" schemes were put to the work, as the usual new-fangled, the entrapped government chief keeps upon the shoulder of the working population.

These proposed new taxes were put to the LaGuardia backers group, no. 1, a tax of 1 per cent on retail and consumer, no. 2, a remedial sales tax of half a per cent; and three, a lottery scheme whereby half of $70,000,000 was at once laid back into the banks' coffers. The LaGuardia the city was loaned $70,000,000 by the bankers. near

New Threat to Thaelmann

RUSSELL HUTCHINSON has gone to the German Embassy in Paris to see Herr the world, and the demand for decent, adequate aid to the impoverished workers.

Hiding the War Danger

LONG with the fearful war prepara-ations, and the chronically paralyzed momentary outburst of war, the American capitalist press has launched a campaign to rub out every trace of the war danger of war.

Contrary to the obvious danger of the danger of war.

On the World Front

By Harry Cohn

A. M. Roque, secretary of the American Committee of Labor, tells how the Cubans and the United States have paid their debt to the United States.

The United States, in return for its aid, has presented to the Cuban government a loan of $100,000,000.

The sum has been used to meet the interest charges on the loans made by the United States to the Cuban government, and to pay for goods purchased from American manufacturers.

Padmore Sups with Kings and Emperors

Discussion on the Negro Question for the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International

JAMES J. FORD, special representative of the Communist International, was in Chicago last week.

He delivered a speech to the Chicago

Trade Union Congress on the Negro question and the struggle against capitalism.

"We must fight against the capitalism of the United States and its allies, and fight against all forms of capitalism in the world," he said.

its allies, and fight against all forms of
capitalism in the world," he said.

Frederick Douglass, a leader of the Negro movement in the United States, was working to free the slaves in the South, he said.

its allies, and fight against all forms of
capitalism in the world," he said.
