Will the Gold Coast be another Guiana?

On April 27th, 1953, the People’s Progressive Party (PPP) was formed and elected 18 members of the People’s Progressive Party to the Legislative Assembly of the Gold Coast.

On October 6th, 1953, over six months later, the Gold Coast was granted self-government and the new constitution was adopted. On the 9th of December, the Gold Coast became a self-governing colony within the Commonwealth of Nations, as a result of the people’s efforts and the leadership of the People’s Progressive Party.

Yet, Will the Gold Coast be another Guiana? This is a question that has been haunting the minds of many. The Guiana experience has left a lasting impression on the people of the Gold Coast, and they are wondering whether the same fate awaits them.

The name of George Padmore, life-long African socialist and determined fighter for African freedom, is familiar to many. He has been instrumental in the British Colonial Administration of the Gold Coast. In 1959, he was appointed to the Executive Committee of the British Colonial Administration of the Gold Coast. He was also a member of the United Nations Human Rights Commission.

George Padmore’s Name Claimed

The name of George Padmore, lifelong African socialist and determined fighter for African freedom, has been questioned in the British Colonial Administration of the Gold Coast. The new government has taken steps to remove Padmore’s name from various records and publications.

The Head of the Government, Mr. Nkrumah, has confirmed that his government is committed to removing Padmore’s name from the records.

GOOD GOVERNMENT

Sir,

I have just returned to London from my visit to Kumasi. I am writing to convey on your behalf a message from a group of prominent citizens of the Gold Coast.

My Lord,

I have just returned to London from my visit to Kumasi. I am writing to convey on your behalf a message from a group of prominent citizens of the Gold Coast. They are asking for your intervention to restore the prestige and reputation of the Prime Minister.

Dr. Nkrumah and supporter of his policies. The Gold Coast has a rich history, a long tradition of struggle, and a strong desire for self-determination. It is time for us to come together and fight for our freedom.

5. That Mr. Laba, a member of a group of prominent citizens, who are seeking to protect the prestige and reputation of the Prime Minister.

6. That I am referring to the situation in the Gold Coast, where the government is facing a serious challenge.

The Chairman of the Commonwealth has now warned that he will take action if the government continues to make false allegations against people. Good enough, it’s a pity it was not done before the false allegations against George Padmore were sent out to the press of the world.

The Scandal of ‘Private Schools’

The scandal of private schools in the Gold Coast has been under the spotlight recently. The Ministry of Education has been criticized for focusing on private schools instead of addressing the needs of state schools.

In these schools, only properly qualified teachers can be employed. The standard of education in private schools is generally higher than in state schools. In many cases, private schools have better facilities and resources.
