CPer Debates Stalinism On Forth of the Party

By GEORGE HANKLE
New York, Oct. 4

Early in September an informa tional conference was held in Eu-

The main task for socialists is to agitate for socialist conditions.2 In America capitalists find the Soviet example compelling; they are international, prestige socialist com-

The assertion was that the current in the United States has been so widely-discussed that it could easily be deplored in form, a new "progressive" leadership. The re-novelty of the American labor movement in the Stalins, with its abstract allusions to the politics of internal factions and publications.

This situation was sharply amid the forum held at Jefferson School on October 5, to debate the draft resolution.

J. WILLIAM CLARKE

STATEMENT REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF OCTOBER 3, 1917, AND OF OCTOBER 27, 1918

The acts of March 2, 1917, and of May 26, 1918

The names and addresses of the pub-

The owner is: Labor Action Publish-

The known bondholders, mortgagees, and other persons having any title in fee and/or liens to the real estate now owning or holding more than five or more amount of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are:

Paragraphs 2 and 3 include, in cases where the bondholder or mortgagee appears upon the books of the company as trustee for the benefit of a third par-

The average number of copies of each issue of record, exclusive of any sent by mail, distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to points of sale, of other subscribers, and of other persons, during the 12 months pre-sworn to and subscribed before me this 28th day of November, 1928.

TONY CAPPETTO, Notary Public, State of New York, No. 35-50010. (My commission expires March 30, 1929.)

SUBSCRIBERS—ATTENTION

Check your NAME—ADDRESS and STATE appearing on the wrapper.

If there are any mistakes or if you are unable to read your ZONE NUMBER, cut your name and address off of the wrapper and return it with the corrections clearly printed.

4 - 2 - 4

If the above number appears at the bottom of your order form, your subscription expires with this issue.

RENEW NOW!

The Fund for the Republic has an- nounced "an American Traditions Pronounce a contest offering a prize of $10,000 in prizes "for letters giving true stories about Americans who, by their deeds or words, do something which lies at the heart of the American idea of democracy and which offers or disputes which may never have reached the public eye."

The letters, limited to 1000 words, may be "about groups or individuals who suc-

The incident must have happened within the past 5 years.

Letters must be mailed before Novem-

The judges' panel of seven consists of a conservative leadership (Laurence Craig, a dean), a college president, a newspaper editor, a Protestant Episcopal and a Catholic bishop, a political sociologist (Sam Rosenbaum), a political activist (Gerald Henderson), and a political economist (William L. Smith).