A GREAT VICTORY!

Chairman Mao Tsetung, the greatest living Marxist-Leninist has made many great contributions to Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought. Chairman Mao's thought has been held in high esteem both at home and abroad. The bourgeoisie is the principal contradiction in socialist society, that revisionism is the main danger in socialist society" is the key to the defeat of enemies in the People's Republic of China today.

On the proposal of our great leader Chairman Mao, the political bureau of the central committee of the Communist Party of China decided to appoint Comrade Hua Kuo-Feng as First Vice-Chairman of the central committee of the Communist Party of China and Premier of the State Council of the People's Republic of China, and has unanimously agreed to dismiss Teng Hsiao-Ping from all posts both inside and outside the party. This is an important measure Chairman Mao and the party central committee have taken to combat and prevent revisionism and ensure that our party and state will continue the revolution under the dictatorship of the proletariat - it is a great victory in the battle against revisionist deviationist attempt to reverse correct verdicts.

The people are overjoyed at these happy tidings. The capital is astir with rejoicing throughout the country. Millions upon millions of army, navy and civilians are turning out to parade amid joyous revolution, to help the happy news. Grand rallies have been held in various parts of the country and messages sent to Chairman Mao and the party central committee, acclaiming and resolutely supporting the two wise decisions. In the revolutionary scene of unity in struggle, the whole nation is determined to carry through the mass movement to help the masses beat the right deviationist attempt.

Teng Hsiao-Ping has been the arch revisionist capitalist-roaders in the party. Over a long period of time, he has opposed Chairman Mao, opposed Mao Tse-Tung's thought, opposed the proletarian revolutionary line. Before the great proletarian cultural revolution, he worked in collaboration with Liu Shao-Chi in pushing a counter-revolutionary revisionist line - during the early stage of the proletarian cultural revolution, he, together with Liu Shao-Chi, suppressed the masses and pressed on with a bourgeois reactionary line. Through criticism by the masses, he expressed his willingness to mend his ways and declared that he would "never reverse the verdict." Chairman Mao saved him and gave him the chance to resume work. But he did not live up to Chairman Mao's education and help. Once back in a position to wield power in his possession, he relapsed and reversed the correct verdicts of the great cultural revolution and sought to settle scores with it. He dished up the revisionist programme of "taking the two decisions as the key directives," and continued to pursue the counter-revolutionary revisionist line in the "maintain the line and attack the line" style, in stirring up the right deviationist wind.

With farsightedness, Chairman Mao saw through Teng Hsiao-Ping's treacherous activity to reverse correct verdicts, and has since last October issued a series of important instructions and led the whole party, whole army and the people of the whole country in waging a great struggle to counterattack the right deviationist attempt at reversing correct verdicts. Chairman Mao points out: "This person does not grasp class struggle. He has never referred to this key link. He knows nothing of Marxism-Leninism. He represents the bourgeoisie. He said he would never reverse the verdict. 'It can't be counted on.'" Chairman Mao's instructions hit Teng Hsiao-Ping squarely in the vulnerable spot and expose his revisionist class nature.

At a time when the broad masses of cadres and people throughout the country were criticizing Teng Hsiao-Ping's counter-revolutionary revisionist line in accordance with Chairman Mao's instructions, a counter-revolutionary political incident was perpetrated at Tienanmen Square by a handful of class enemies who openly hoisted the ensign of support for Teng Hsiao-Ping and carried out counter-revolutionary activities. This was by no means accidental. These counter-revolutionaries, frenziedly directed the spearhead of our attack at our great leader Chairman Mao, tried to split the party-central committee headed by Chairman Mao, sang paens of praise for Teng Hsiao-Ping and attempted to cast him in the role of Nagg, the chieftain of the counter-revolutionary Hungarian incident. This clearly shows whose revisionist Teng-Hsiao-Ping really is. This is how the capitalist-roaders in the party are connected with the domestic and international reactionaries, warlords, rich peasants, counter-revolutionaries, bad elements and reactionaries in society. The heroic workers, the capital of the party, in coordination with the People's Police and the guards have reinforced the dictatorship of the proletariat over the handful of class enemies, winning support and praise from the broad masses of the people.

In view of the counter-revolutionary political incident at Tienanmen Square and Teng Hsiao-Ping's latest behavior, the party central committee held that the case against Teng Hsiao-Ping is a counter-revolutionary final decision and he is guilty of counter-revolutionary incitement to betray the masses and has greatly heightened the morale of the revolutionary people and deflated the reactionary arrogance of the class enemies.

The counter-revolutionary political incident at Tienanmen Square provided us with an extremely profound lesson in class struggle by negative example. The way Teng Hsiao-Ping and the brothers and sisters in power reversed correct verdicts and the People's Police, the people's liberation army and revolutionary masses were united in the struggle, the counter-revolutionary arrogance was unthwarted! It also shows how complex class struggle is.

In a premeditated, planned and organized way, the counter-revolutionaries unscrupulously fabricated political rumors, made the Revolutionary Line and the masses of people's political forces, the government and the party, the masses of workers, peasants and soldiers join in the struggle, and agitated for the setting up of counter-revolutionary groups. They tried to hoodwink the masses and created disturbances. They were inconsistent and ruthless. It also demonstrates that the broad masses of the people want revolution and cherish peace. They will never betray their revolutionary vanities. No matter how frenziedly this handful of class enemies speaks, the truly revolutionary single blow and were immediately disintegrated when confronted by the revolutionary spirit of the proletarian revolutionists. In the final analysis, this is the power of the people, the strength of the party, the strength of the army and the strength of the masses.

The two resolutions of the party central committee have greatly inspired the revolutionary fighters throughout the whole party, the whole army and the people throughout the country. This will inevitably advance the struggle against the right deviationist attempt to new heights. We are determined to carry this struggle through to the end.

We must firmly keep to the general orientation of the struggle and concentrate on the struggle. We must unite in the masses. We must decide to fight against the right deviationist attempt, to reverse correct verdicts of the cultural revolution and settle accounts with it, and attempting to subvert the dictatorship of the proletariat and restore the bourgeois dictatorship. We must maintain our revolutionary vigilance and pay constant attention to new developments and new circumstances. We must be alert that the class enemies who are unreconciled to defeat will wage a death-bed struggle. We must resist the softening of the Party, the conspiracy and sabotage by the class enemies. It is necessary to pay attention to distinguishing between the merits and demerits of contradictions, educate those people who were duped and do a good job of ideological work among them.

Let us unite and defend Chairman Mao, the Party Central Committee and Chairman Mao's Proletarian Line by winning still greater victories in repulsing the right deviationist attempt by reversing correct verdicts.

The US military still has over 200,000 service-people posted for attacks against the people of Asia. While many of them are scattered on the Far East, many are still deployed in other areas. For over five years Pacific Counselling Service has run counselling and organizing projects in the United States. The service has been in operation in the San Francisco Bay Area since 1970. The project works in communities of color and serves people who have moved to the Bay Area to seek a better life for themselves and their families. The project trains and supports community leaders and local organizers in communities of color. It offers support and advice to local organizers and community leaders in communities of color and supports their efforts to organize and mobilize communities of color.

Chairman Mao has pointed out: "The African Liberation Movement has received many great contributions from Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought. Chairman Mao's thought has been held in high esteem both at home and abroad. The bourgeoisie is the principal contradiction in socialist society, that revisionism is the main danger in socialist society."

The African Liberation Support Committee has decided to hold local demonstrations throughout the country, on African Liberation Day, which will take place on Saturday, May 29th.

This year's theme is: "Superpowers Out of Africa!, Freedom for the People of Azania, Namibia, Zmbibwe & Angola." These slogans focus on the need to drive the superpowers, U.S. Imperialism and Soviet Socialism, out of Africa and into the sea.

It is the superpower who represents the obstruction to the independence, liberation and struggle for revolution of the people of Africa. With the rise of U.S. Imperialism on the decline throughout the world and Soviet Socialism on the rise, the Soviet revisionists have been peddling their gull "socialism in words, and imperialism in deeds" among the people of every country and movement of the third world and the rest of the world's peoples. But these revisionists will only be crushed in the burning class and broad masses and contribute to smashing U.S. imperialism and Soviet Social Imperialism.

In this country we must continue to count with the support of the broad masses of people in this struggle. We must ensure that the broad masses of people support the movement for the rise of U.S. imperialism and Soviet Socialism and support and strengthen the world revolution.

The two resolutions of the party central committee have greatly inspired the revolutionary fighters throughout the whole party, the whole army and the people throughout the country. This will inevitably advance the struggle against the right deviationist attempt to new heights. We are determined to carry this struggle through to the end.

We must firmly keep to the general orientation of the struggle and concentrate on the struggle. We must unite in the masses. We must decide to fight against the right deviationist attempt, to reverse correct verdicts of the cultural revolution and settle accounts with it, and attempting to subvert the dictatorship of the proletariat and restore the bourgeois dictatorship. We must maintain our revolutionary vigilance and pay constant attention to new developments and new circumstances. We must be alert that the class enemies who are unreconciled to defeat will wage a death-bed struggle. We must resist the softening of the Party, the conspiracy and sabotage by the class enemies. It is necessary to pay attention to distinguishing between the merits and demerits of contradictions, educate those people who were duped and do a good job of ideological work among them.