Communique of the Founding Congress of the Marxist-Leninist Party of the USA

There is no such a party! Let the rich earth in their dripping drenchers. Let the workmen in the mines and mills, hovels and fields, toil and toil. There is a Leninist political party of the American proletariat. There is a party opposed to the parasitism of the rich, a party of the socialist revolution. After decades of toil, the working class of America has emerged victorious! The Working People of the USA have been born! The Founding Congress of the Marxist-Leninist Party of the USA has been born.

The Founding Congress of the Marxist-Leninist Party was convened on the 2nd of the new month. The Founding Congress was a congress of unity and defeated isolationism. It was a congress of the working class and its allies who have worked together for social progress and for the common good.

The Founding Congress of the Marxist-Leninist Party of the USA was a historic event in the history of the social revolution. It was a congress that brought together the workers of the USA and the Leninists of the world. It was a congress that laid the foundation for a new socialist society.

FROM THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE FOUNDING CONGRESS

The formation of the Marxist-Leninist Party of the USA was proclaimed on January 1, 1980 at its Founding Congress. The Congress discussed and approved the Political Resolutions and General Rules of the Party, and elected the First Central Committee. The Congress also gave the Party the task of organizing other resolutions and messages of greetings to Marxist-Leninist parties throughout the world. A number of these resolutions and messages of greetings appear below.

The Founding Congress declares that the banner of J.V. Stalin is the banner of our Party

The Founding Congress of the Marxist-Leninist Party of the USA, whose solemn commemoration on this occasion of the 100th anniversary of the birth of J.V. Stalin.

J.V. Stalin was an outstanding champion of the cause of international Marxism-Leninism, of socialism and communism. His life and work are an example.

Stalin was a great Marxist-Leninist, an outstanding representative of the scientific doctrine of Marxism-Leninism, a great builder of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, a pioneer of socialism. After the death of Lenin he continued and successfully developed the great construction of socialism. His very life and work are inseparable from the victorious course of the world domination of Marxism-Leninism and the successful completion of the tasks of the international and socialist movements.

J.V. Stalin was a former statesman, in the heroic period of the world revolution.

Stalin was the architect of the victory of the revolutionary spirit of Marxism-Leninism and to the revolutionary class struggle.

Thus it is the memory of Stalin is cherished by the proletariat and the genuine Marxist-Leninist revolutionaries, and this is why it is that Stalin, with his life and work, is an example to us, and an inspiration.
