Enver Hořa
Reflections on China
VOLUME I and VOLUME II
Reflections on China contain excerpts of articles from the Political Theory of Comrade Erho Shao, Volume I: Reflections on China, Volume II: 1935-1937. In these notes the stature of the Chinese leadership, Marxism-Leninism, national liberation, and class struggle are especially pronounced. The references to the Chinese Communist Party's policies and other matters which may be published later, the writer will be able to see for himself. The author has made the present selection based on his own reflections and experiences.

From the Preface

The author of the book, Shao Erho, is a representative of the Chinese Communist Party's policies and other matters which may be published later, the writer will be able to see for himself. The author has made the present selection based on his own reflections and experiences.

Can the Chinese revolution be a proletarian revolution?
by Enver Hořa

This pamphlet reprint two entire from Reflections on China, Volume II. Enver Hořa's Reflections on China contain excerpts of articles from the Political Theory of Comrade Erho Shao, Volume I: Reflections on China, Volume II: 1935-1937. In these notes the stature of the Chinese leadership, Marxism-Leninism, national liberation, and class struggle are especially pronounced. The references to the Chinese Communist Party's policies and other matters which may be published later, the writer will be able to see for himself. The author has made the present selection based on his own reflections and experiences.

The Marxist-Leninist Party is Our Leader
by Enver Hořa

This pamphlet reprint two entire from Reflections on China, Volume II. In these notes the stature of the Chinese leadership, Marxism-Leninism, national liberation, and class struggle are especially pronounced. The references to the Chinese Communist Party's policies and other matters which may be published later, the writer will be able to see for himself. The author has made the present selection based on his own reflections and experiences.

Enver Hořa
IMPERIALISM AND THE REVOLUTION

The authors of the book, Shao Erho, is a representative of the Chinese Communist Party's policies and other matters which may be published later, the writer will be able to see for himself. The author has made the present selection based on his own reflections and experiences.