"A communist should have largeness of mind and he should be staunch and active, looking upon the international revolution as his very life and subordinating his personal interests to those of the revolution; always and everywhere he should adhere to principle and wage a tireless struggle against all incorrect ideas and actions so as to consolidate the collective life of the Party and strengthen the ties between the Party and the masses; he should be more concerned about the Party and the masses than about any individual and more concerned about others than about himself. Only thus can he be considered a Communist."

APRIL 15, 1972

ANTI-BAKKE MARCH

After regional meetings and discussions of the conference-published and protest to the racist Bakke decision, Toronto-Montreal-to participate in the national demonstration in Washington, D.C., on April 15. Militants from both the Anti-Bakke Decision Coalition (ABDC) and the National Coalition To Overturn The Bakke Decision will be participating in the march. The demonstration therefore provides a good opportunity to strengthen the movement of the overall anti-Bakke movement.

What is the basis for unity of action among all anti-Bakke activists? It is the fundamental basis for such unity, which is the support for the struggle for the rights of women and oppressed minorities. Specifically, if you oppose the Bakke decision, this means a defense of all affirmative action programs and support for their expansion.

Thus while we carry out propaganda throughout Europe in the international communist movement and the proletariat as a vanguard of the working class, we call for a particular character of national questions. We can draw this difference between the revolutionary and reformist approach to the question of legal rights, we should seek common action with all those who mobilize mass support for the equal rights of women and oppressed minorities and for the affirmative action programs attacked by the Bakke decision.

This is the basis for solidarity and militant mobilization for April 15.

The anti-Bakke movement is definitely growing in size. As the significance of the movement becomes more and more clear in every workplace and community across the nation, because of Bakke dozens of affirmative action programs have been filed challenging affirmative action programs, with the result in many cases that the program itself gets frozen in the meantime. A February federal court for the first time ever adopted the position of the California state court in Bakke and decided that the police department affirmative action program in Detroit was divided promotions equally among black and whites. This new situation thus strengthens our position.

Even more significantly, in every new affirmative action program, we must be prepared to mobilize for the defense of affirmative action and to fight for the rapid adoption of all affirmative action programs and policies and support for their expansion.

The Fifth National People's Congress re-affirmed the direction expressed in resolutions of the Fourth (1975) National People's Congress and emphasized the leadership of Mao Tsetung and Chou En-lee. A plan was presented at the congresses which called for the development of productive forces, for building the socialist culture, industry, national defense and for the broad integration of the People's Republic.

The Fourth Modernization. The plan also states that the question of law in the new constitution should be included in the Fifth National People's Congress.
