Superpower naval exercises around Europe.

Demonstration Against NATO Fleet

On May 28 the Oslo branch of the WCP(M-L) arranged a demonstration against the visit to Norway of NATO's 'standing navy', the so-called STANA VFORLANT. The force comprises seven aircraft carriers and five submarines and men from the Netherlands, Britain, Canada, the US, Denmark and Portugal. The demonstration took place at the entrance to the harbour of Oslo, 'outside NATO of Norway', 'No to the theft of the imperialist war' and 'The USSN arm for war, not against war' were among the slogans.

The main point put forward was that the forces that threaten the forces on the north flank, and that Norway to an increasing degree is being drawn into the superpower arms race, is unacceptable. While the modern revisionist SV and "NKP" parties plead to avoid confrontations with the USA, the WCP(M-L) demands that NATO, this demonstration insists that to fight the WCP(M-L) offers the only consistent programme of resistance and all imperialism in Norway. Not only do the two parties fail to demonstrate against the NATO war machine, they even maintain in their press...

In April 1979, when the so-called “integration of the Third World” was beginning to be discussed, Palme’s government in Sweden was busy with the most essential preparations for the war on Vietnam. Demonstration Against Murderer of Polish Workers

Towards the end of May Norway received the Polish prime minister Jaroslaw Jurek on an official visit. The aim of this visit was to support the social-imperialist myths of peace and "detente" before the June meeting in Belgrade, and to strengthen economic relations between Norway and the new Kremlin regime.

The August 21st Committee of Oslo University called a demonstration under the slogan: "Full support to the struggle of the Polish students against fascist terror." The modern revisionist "NKP" party had its paper "Fyehor" publish an article about events in Poland presenting the tragedy in ideflic terms and blaming Polish demonstrators for "terrorism." When the demonstration against Jaroszewicz's visit was announced "Fyehor" appealed to the authorities to start court action against the August 21st Committee of Oslo University, for having insulted "foreign statesman" by calling him murderer.

The Committee responded by calling a new demonstration outside "Fyehor" editiorial under the slogan: "Full support to the Workers' Defense Committee in Poland." WCP(m-l) Chairman Elected to LO (Trade Union Center) Congress

The five reject class collaboration of former social-democrats

They denounced the LO leadership for developing relations with fascists such as "unions in France and Austria. They attacked the social-democrat "opposition policy" and the "NKP" revisionist candidates from the former Social-Democrat Party (SDP).

At the LO (trade union center) congress, on May 23, the WCP(m-l) chairman and four other revolution-aries were elected to the LO congress, fully consistent opposition to the reactionary role played by the social-democrat leadership. The five were elected delegates from the Oslo Iron and Metal Work-ers' Union. The well-attended meet-ing rejected all the social-democrat and revisionist candidates. The labor aristocrats tried to amend the elections. But workers supported the five due to their commitment to workers' demands. The labor aristocrats had to admit their defeat.

LABOR ARISTOCRATS MANIPULATE GRASS ROOTS DEMANDS

Before the congress thousands of workers carried out "unofficial" demands and proposals. In several cases the labor aristocrats refused to publish demands presented legiti-mately, while publishing reaction-aristocratic proposals that had actually been rejected. The five progressive delegates pointed out such cases to the LO congress before and during the congress. The aristocrats could only reply by sil-ence.

LO LEADERSHIP OPPOSED ALL SUGGESTIONS FROM LABOR ARISTOCRATS

At the opening of the congress the labor aristocrats held a speech systems-atically refuting all grass roots demands. They pointed out that while the social-democrats and labor aristocrats could only reply by silence, the LO leadership had the congress adopt a resolution on Svalbard that argued for "joint sovereignty" between Nor-way and the USSR.

ARROGANCE AND CONTEMPT OF THE CONGRESS LEADERSHIP

WCP(m-l): SOCIAL-IMPERIALISM IN AFRICA

Social-imperialism makes a bid for hegemony in Africa, as shown by aggression against Zaire and Angola. Below is an editorial from Klasse- kampen on Zaire, which is one of the modern revisionists.

Support Zaire's Struggle Against Soviet Aggression

Zaire is an important country for the socialist forces in Africa. The struggle against Soviet imperialism is crucial for the development of socialism in Africa.

The situation in Zaire calls attention to the fact that the African people are confronted by a long and difficult struggle against superpower oppression and aggression. In this struggle it becomes obvious that Soviet imperialism presents a serious threat to the socialist forces in Zaire.

In the current situation we must support Zaire's struggle against Soviet aggression. It is the duty of all socialist workers to take part in this struggle.

Klassekampen is a supporter of the struggle against Soviet imperialism in Zaire. We support the material aid movement from Zaire to demand aid from abroad.

The struggle in Zaire is directed against Soviet imperialism. It is part of the history of the fight for liberation of the workers and peoples. It fuses with the history of the socialist movement.
