OCTOBER ORGANISING COMMITTEE

for the

WORKING PEOPLES PARTY OF ENGLAND

The "Workers Broadsheet" conference of October 1st 1967 appeals to all the working people of England to form independent workers Committees at their places of work, and in their localities

1) To discuss the proposed Programme for a W.P.P.E. put forward by the Workers Broadsheet Editorial Board in October 1967, to criticise it fully and amend, re-write and improve as they see fit.

2) To send their elected delegates to take their place in the October Organising Committee and to provide the leadership in forming a truly democratic W.P.P.E

3) To take a full role in convening and participating in the thoroughly democratic foundation Congress of the Working Peoples Party of England on May 1st 1968, to decide on the Programme of this Party and elect representatives they choose to be the leaders of this Party.
