DEATH TO INDIAN EXPANSIONISM!

LONG LIVE THE INDIAN REVOLUTION!

Joint Statement of the Afro-Asian People’s Solidarity Movement, the Indian Progressive Study Group (England), and the East and South-East Asian Progressive Study Group issued in London on January 10, 1972.

It is today known to all that the reactionary expansionist Indian government, aided and abetted by Soviet revisionist social-imperialism and with the tacit connivance of imperialism, has occupied the territory of East Pakistan by launching a barbarous war of aggression against Pakistan. They have set up a puppet government of “Bangla Desh” comprising of the anti-communist and anti-people Awami League of Mujibur Rahman. By their brazen expansionist war, the Indian reactionaries and their social-imperialist and imperialist masters have further exposed the fascist features to the people of India, Pakistan and the whole world.

The great peoples of India and East Pakistan, led by the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) and the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist) respectively, are today waging a most heroic and decisive struggle, and with the tacit connivance of the Indian expansionists and their masters in Pakistan, they have set up a puppet government of “Bangla Desh” comprising of the anti-communist and anti-people Awami League of Mujibur Rahman. By their brazen expansionist war, the Indian reactionaries and their social-imperialist and imperialist masters have further exposed the fascist features to the people of India, Pakistan and the whole world.

The great peoples of India and East Pakistan, led by the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) and the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist) respectively, are today waging a most heroic and decisive struggle, and with the tacit connivance of the Indian expansionists and their masters in Pakistan, they have set up a puppet government of “Bangla Desh” comprising of the anti-communist and anti-people Awami League of Mujibur Rahman. By their brazen expansionist war, the Indian reactionaries and their social-imperialist and imperialist masters have further exposed the fascist features to the people of India, Pakistan and the whole world.

Chairman Mao, the great leader of the world’s people has taught us: “ALL REACTIONARY FORCES ON THE VERGE OF EXTINCTION INEVITABLY CONDUCT DESPERATE STRUGGLES, THEY ARE BOUND TO RESORT TO MILITARY ADVENTURE AND POLITICAL DECEPTION IN ALL THEIR FORMS IN ORDER TO SAVE THEMSELVES FROM EXTINCTION.” It is the victorious development of the great Indian revolution ever since the first spark of armed struggle at Naxalbari in April 1967 under the correct leadership of the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) and respected and beloved Comrade Charu Mazumdar, that has brought the Indian reactionaries and their masters onto the verge of extinction.

Armed agrarian revolution in India, a land of 500 million brave and talented people, occupies a most strategic place in the world proletarian revolution. Chairman Mao pointed out in 1949: “LIKE FREE CHINA, A FREE INDIA WILL ONE DAY EMERGE IN THE SOCIALIST AND PEOPLE’S DEMOCRATIC FAMILY; THAT DAY WILL END THE IMPERIALIST REACTIONARY ERA IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND.”

Under the brilliant illumination of invincible Mao Tsetung Thought and guided by the great slogan put forward by Comrade Charu Mazumdar, “Chairman’s Chairman is our Chairman; Chairman’s Path is our Path”, the heroic revolutionary peasants, workers, youth and students have opened up a bright prospect for the liberation of the Indian people. The historic Eighth Congress of the CPI(M-L), the first after Naxalbari, when the Party was re-built on the basis of Mao Tsetung Thought, held in May 1970 has brought about the most unprecedented consolidation of the revolutionary forces in India on the basis of Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought, in the long history of the Indian Communist movement. This is why the Party Congress has marked the beginning of the victory of the Indian revolution and the beginning of the complete rout of feudalism, comprador-bureaucrat capitalism, U.S. imperialism and Soviet social-imperialism. U.S. imperialism and Soviet social-imperialism.

The successful Party Congress gave a further impetus to the peasants’ revolutionary armed struggle, and many areas came under the control of the revolutionary people. The armed struggle that started in the Gopalganj district of West Bengal in September 1969 spread to all the districts of West Bengal before the end of 1970. West Bengal’s countryside was reverberating with the footsteps of the brave peasant guerrilla fighters. Comrade Charu Mazumdar pointed out at that time: “When I say ‘Make the 70’s the decade of liberation’, I cannot think beyond 1975. The idea of today’s armed struggle was first born in the mind of one man. That idea has now filled the minds of ten million people. If the new revolutionary consciousness, born only in 1971, can permeate the minds of ten million people in 1970, why is it impossible then for those ten millions to rouse and mobilise the 500 million people of India in a surging people’s war by 1975?” (See: ‘March Onward, Day of Victory is near’, Liberation, Sept.-Dec., 1970, Vol. 3 nos. 11-12; Vol. 4, nos. 1-2)

Furthermore, the frenzy of imperialism, social-imperialism and their Indian lackeys increased when the successful conclusion of the historic Party Congress in May 1970 was followed by the outbreak of the armed agrarian revolution in East Pakistan (East Bengal) in October 1970 and the establishment of the great Indian People’s Liberation Army in West Bengal in December 1970. The armed agrarian revolution in East Pakistan also spread rapidly like a prairie fire in the vast countryside.

Realizing their imminent collapse, the Indian expansionists and their masters intensified their attacks on the CPI(M-L) members and sympathisers, brought up draconian laws and legislations such as the West Bengal Prevention of Violent Activities Act and the West Bengal Maintenance of Public Order Act to give “legal” sanction to their policy of ruthless suppression of the people. They put tens of thousands of revolutionaries into the fascist jails and made preparations for launching an expansionist war of aggression against the narrow bourgeois chauvinism and thus to intensify subversion, revolution of the counter-revolutionary Awami League of Bengal will spread very quickly to East Pakistan. Comrade Charu Mazumdar launched a so-called "question of refugees", the Indian expansionists carried out large-scale chauvinist propaganda so as to justify open intervention in the internal affairs of East Pakistan. The British Press and right-wing politicians in Pakistan also joined them in such activities. Comrade Charu Mazumdar pointed out in his speech in the Central Committee of the Communist Party of East Pakistan on 4 Oct, 1971 that 'this struggle in West Bengal will spread very quickly to East Pakistan.' The bunch of traitorous Awami League leaders had to confess later that they had been duped by the imperialist powers.

The accidental era shelled Bangladesh into existence. The accidental era should be clear evidence and is eloquent proof that the peoples, led by Comrade Motiur Rahman Nizami and the同志们, have recognized People's Republic of China. It is also because a Party has been formed on the basis of Mao Tsetung Thought in East Pakistan. The accidental era shelled Bangladesh into existence. The accidental era should be clear evidence and is eloquent proof that the peoples, led by Comrade Motiur Rahman Nizami and the同志们, have recognized People's Republic of China. This was done to carry out further imperialist expansionist plans and to justify their real objective of suppressing the revolution and creating one anti-China war-base in the strategic area of East Pakistan was sought to be covered up under words of 'humanism' and so on. They failed, however, to hide the long-term goal of the expansionists and their plan to create another Vietnam, The imperialist powers and 1971 that 'The break-up of Pakistan is not only in the interests of India, but also in our national security interests. India should emerge as a super-power internationally and we have to nationally integrate our citizens for preparation of the dismemberment of Pakistan is an essential pre-condition.' Further, the fascist director of the 'Indian Institute for Strategic Studies', Romila Thapar, revealed in her book 'What India must realize is that the break-up of Pakistan is in our interest and we have an opportunity like never before to get rid of the supporters of Pakistan's puppet regime.

expansionists attacked China and Pakistan respectively.) The paper also writes, inclining towards the other side, "...the role of the US in the formation of the moment of opportunity. (See also.)" In an article in the paper of the reactionary Indian High Commission, the author states, "...on January 8, 1972, it was revealed that in India, there is a large scale "commando" training being given to the Indian troops. The paper of the Indian High Commission also writes that the Indian army is conducted under conditions as near as possible to those pertaining to the border (between the territories of India and China). But the arrogance of the Indian expansionists and their masters is bound to be demonstrated again and again which will be burst asunder under the blows of the revolution in India, Pakistan, Chinese and other Asian peoples.

One has only to look at the fate of the "mangnuko" puppet regime and its "Japanese metamorphoses" that were not only repudiated by the "Bangladesh" but also by the Indian expansionists and the Indian expansionists. The for­mation of a large convoy of Soviet warships and submarines in the area which was the "Arabian Sea" and the presence of which is being seen clearly the war-plots of the Indian expansionists and their masters is bound to be demonstrated again and again which will be burst asunder under the blows of the revolution in India, Pakistan, Chinese and other Asian peoples.

The People's War in Pakistan and India

The people of India and Pakistan are both brothers and comrades and their historical unity is bound to be demonstrated again and again which will be burst asunder under the blows of the revolution in India, Pakistan, Chinese and other Asian peoples.

The south-east sub-continent has become the focus of attention of all mankind, for some of the major contradictions in the world are represented by the contradictions between the oppressed nations and people on the one hand and US imperialism and Soviet social-imperialism on the other and the contradictions between imperialism and social-imperialism and among the imperialist countries in the south-east sub-continent and are giving rise to revolution. All the scum of the world have put their stake on this sub-continent. On the one hand, all the people of the world have their eyes turned towards the Indian people's earth-shaking revolution. Armed Revolution and armed struggle are the only possible way to lead the most decisive confrontation on the Indo-Pakistani sub-continent. The revolutionary struggle is experiencing a new upsurge led by Chairman Mao has arrived at a point of great confluence. The profound significance of the 1971 war on all the people of the world has become evident. Today, the masses of every country of the world have their eyes turned toward our vast country; the masses of every country of the world have their eyes turned toward the liberation of the people of world—the two have become indistinguishable from each other." ("March Onward, Day of Victory and the Victory of the Revolution in Near").
The peasant and worker guerrillas of Naxalbari captured six rifles and many bullets by attacking a police post at Magurjan. This has been one of the most important signs of the upsurge of the peasants' armed struggle. The incident has given the peasants' armed struggle the character of a liberation war. So we declare that it is already time to build up the People's Liberation Army of West Bengal.

If we do not take up the task of building the people's army the peasants' armed struggle will enter a blind alley. The ruling classes also have realised that the day is not far when Naxalbari will become another Nakhoda. The imperialist powers and social-patriotism have landed troops in East Pakistan in the name of providing aid to the so-called "refugees". The incident is of much serious importance, for the successful attack was carried out even after all the intellectual and old bureaucracy took part in making the most secret plans. The incident has given the peasants' armed struggle the character of a liberation war. So we declare that it is already time to build up the People's Liberation Army of West Bengal.

In West Bengal, the situation has so developed that no civil administration can cope with it. That is why the enemy has deployed to enter a stage in which nationalism is being changed into separatism. The enemy is trying to spread this idea of separatism among the poor and landless peasants. The poor and landless peasants are today undergoing a very hard time. The struggle is of an unprecedented scale. This is why the village militia should be formed.

The People's Liberation Army has been formed in West Bengal: Establish the revolutionary political power. Only thus it will be possible to reduce the laws of this reaction­ary government into waste paper, to establish the people's political power, to label the government as a reaction­ary government. That is why this task is the most sacred task--the most important task--before the Party cadre today.

It is the incident at Magurjan that has led today to the formation of the People's Army in West Bengal. All our squads of poor and landless peasants are today contingents of this People's Army. There must be commanders when there is an army. So we have to elect commanders from among the poor and landless peasants on the area and regional basis. It is thus that the leadership of the poor and landless peasants will be established over the peasants' armed struggle. What will be the tasks of this People's Army of ours? Today, all comrades should study and imple­ment the following quotation from Chairman Mao Tsetung: "The Chinese Red Army is an armed body for carrying out the political tasks of the revolution. Especially at present, the Red Army should certainly not confine itself to fighting; besides fighting to destroy the enemy's military strength, it should shoulder such important tasks as doing propaganda among the masses, organizing the masses, arming them, helping them to establish revolutionary political power and setting up Party organizations. The Red Army fights not merely for the sake of fighting but in order to conduct propaganda among the masses, organize them, arm them, and help them to establish revolutionary political power. Without these objectives, fighting loses its meaning and the Red Army loses the reason for its existence."
ONE YEAR SINCE THE PARTY CONGRESS — Charu Mazumdar

May 20, 1971

Reprinted from Liberation, April-June 1971, Vol. 4, No. 4

One year has passed since our Party Congress. One year has passed also by since the Chairman Mao made his historic Statement of May 1970, Chairman Mao's Statement has enthused the revolutionary masses the world over, inspired them to undergo more arduous labour and sacrifices and has strengthened confidence in the minds of the fighters. During the last one year the great peoples of the three countries of Indo-China have won great successes and defeated U.S. imperialism. U.S. imperialism is in the throes of a difficult crisis. U.S. Imperialism will not accept defeat; true to its nature, it is repeatedly trying to start up and these Revolutionary Committees are making a review and we shall all learn from them. But the revisionists are attributing the reverses in Andhra to the entire Party programme. There are many ups and downs along the path of armed struggle; we shall not deviate from our objective if we have faith in the masses and have faith in the Party.

In the initial stage of the trouble in East Pakistan many did not observe the chauvinist activities of the Awami League nor did they realize that the Indian Government in the internal affairs of Pakistan. As a result, they took a wrong decision. Subsequently, those who noted the indirect interference failed to see the reactionary character of Yahya and went on propagating to the Party's only task was to extend full support to Yahya. They could not realize the importance of the determined efforts of the EPCP-M(L) to build up class struggle in this difficult situation. Consequently, the line they adopted was entirely liquidationist. Our Party has very correctly raised the slogan "Stop interference in Pakistan!"

The importance of our political work is increasing as our struggle is becoming more widespread and intense. The political level of the Party workers will have to be raised and the political consciousness of the masses has to be developed; only then shall we be able to combat successfully the different manifestations of revisionism and to raise the morale of the fighting masses.

REVOLUTIONARY MEETING

LONG LIVE THE NATIONAL LIBERATION STRUGGLE OF THE ZIMBABWE PEOPLE

LONG LIVE THE NATIONAL LIBERATION STRUGGLES OF THE AZANIAN, ANGOLAN, MOZAMBIQUE AND CAMBIAN PEOPLES!

JONTLY ORGANIZED BY: AFRO-ASIAN PEOPLE'S SOLIDARITY MOVEMENT AND THE AD-HOC COMMITTEE FOR THE FORMATION OF THE BLACK REVOLUTIONARY WORKERS' MOVEMENT

DATE: 11th February 1972
TIME: 7.30 p.m.
In Asia, Africa and Latin America, especially in Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam the People's Liberation Armies are winning everyday resounding, thrilling victories. U.S. imperialism's blatant aggression against Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam on the People's Republic of Vietnam and its frenzied invasion of Laos, which is a direct threat to Socialist China and constitutes one more step in its drive towards another world war, are meeting with staggering defeats at the hands of the People's Liberation Armies of the three countries. Indeed, U.S. imperialism, Soviet social-imperialism and their stooges are today in the throes of their deathbed struggle.

In this excellent revolutionary situation the People's Liberation Armies have been able to launch an unprecedented scale of landless and poor peasants who have been waging revolutionary armed struggle in various districts of West Bengal under the leadership of Comrade Charu Mazumdar and the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist). The People's Liberation Army has emerged as the shield and sword of the people's masses, when the imperialists, social-imperialists and their agents are today a cover for their secret activities and finance terrorism.
people by setting up a "popularly elected" government. But they are not foolish enough to place much reliance on it, for they have deployed the army all over West Bengal. And the army has set up fifty-two command posts, one in each subdivision of each district of West Bengal. The usual police and the para-military forces like the C. R. P., the E. F. R. and the B. S. F. have failed to accomplish the purpose -- the purpose of stemming the tide of the revolutionary armed struggle. The ruling classes have realized that no civil administration can cope with the situation created by the people's revolutionary armed struggle. So, the army has actually taken over in West Bengal. Despite all the solemn declarations of the government, the army has not only withdrawn after the elections but to stay: only more and more reinforcements are expected in future. But military rule, the last resort of the dying oppressors, even in one part of India, is a dangerous gamble. That is why the ruling classes feel the need for camouflage in setting up a so-called popular government, a kind of puppet government, under actual military rule.

The burden of the election speeches of Indira Gandhi and different political parties is that the people have to vote for Congress "for the regeneration of the country". This is like crying for the moon, for the days of stability have gone. The days when the ruling classes are long gone. Now, governments in different states fall like nine pins and the government at the centre is also faced with an instability that can only be held together in its hold even in collusion with its revisionist agents. Only two years ago, the revisionist Chetan Bhagat accused the eastern "front" governments of West Bengal and Kerala as the "vanguard of the emerging alternative. And the army which, the army in which the imperialists, the social-imperialists and the domestic reactionaries planned so great a role, has done nothing but weaken the movement. Our army is not a "front" army, but a revolutionary army. Its presence in the country is leading the different ruling class parties into an orgy of mutual slaughter, instead of uniting and leading the people into a decisive offensive. The experience of the people on the eve of the mid-term poll will further disenchanted them about the imagined virtues of the "front" system.

The military regime has virtually been imposed on West Bengal will complete the political isolation of the reactionary ruling classes and of all their political parties.

And the military rule which has virtually been imposed on West Bengal will complete the political isolation of the reactionary ruling classes and of all their political parties. The people will not be able to see through the actual character of the elections, they will not be able to decide whether it is run by the bureaucracy under President's rule or by popularly elected ministers. The intervention by the imperialists and Soviet social-imperialists will be more and more blatant as the people's revolutionary armed struggle advances. None of the imperialist powers will voluntarily withdraw from this country of 500 million people, this Eldorado for imperialists. The presence in India at this time of U.S. army chief of staff, General Westmoreland, notorious for his war crimes in Vietnam, Chester Bowles and Sherman Cooper, former U.S. ambassadors to India, is not without significance. Already the different imperialist powers have landed troops in East Pakistan under cover of providing relief to the cyclone-devastated areas.

THE INDIAN PEOPLE IS ONE OF THE GREAT ASIAN PEOPLES WITH A LONG HISTORY AND A VAST POPULATION; HER FATE IN THE PAST AND HER PATH TO THE FUTURE ARE SIMILAR TO THOSE OF CHINA. LIKE CHINA, A GREAT INDIA WILL ONE DAY EMERGE IN THE SOCIALIST AND PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC FAMILY. THAT DAY WILL END THE IMPERIALIST REACTIONARY ERA IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND.

THE INDIAN NATION IS A GREAT NATION. THE INDIAN PEOPLE ARE A GREAT PEOPLE. U.S. IMPERIALISTS AND SOVIET REVISIONISTS, ARE ALL PAPER TIGERS. THE INDIAN PEOPLE CAN ACHIEVE COMPLETE LIBERATION THROUGH THEIR OWN STRUGGLE.

- CHAIRMAN MAO
In May 1970, the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) held its third congress in underground conditions and conditions of utmost secrecy. At the 8th Congress of the Party, the first after May, 1970, the Party Congress established the proletarian revolutionary authority of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, as expected and believed Comrade Charu Mazumdar over the Indian revolution. From the platform of the CC, Comrade Charu Mazumdar gave a historic call: "Comrades, let a vigorous armed peasant struggle rage all over India to defend the fruits of the people's victory over our Congress. Then a spontaneous mass upsurge in the wake of the armed guerrilla struggle will have a steel-like base in West Bengal, It's sure the Red Army can be created not only in Sri Lanka, but also in Punjab, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, in the triangular area of the People's Warfront. The leadership of the Communist Party of Bangladesh in underground conditions and conditions of utmost secrecy, the Indian peasants will march forward and complete the revolution. As the Commissure of the Central Committee of the CPI (M-L) on May 24th 1970 declared: "The Congress was truly a Congress of unity and became the nucleus of a new front called the People's Warfront. To the successful conclusion of the Party Congress, the peasants' revolutionary armed struggle further intensified. Comrade Charu Mazumdar said: "...I believe that it is by the end of 1975 that the 500 million Indian people will completely uproot the great epic of their liberation."

On October 13, 1971, a popular agrarian revolution was started in East Pakistan under the leadership of the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist).

Elections were stage-managed in East Pakistan to give "victory" to the fascist Awami League of Mujib Rahman. The election "victory" was obtained on the theme of autonomy and not of secession.

In December 1970, as predicted by Comrade Charu Mazumdar, the great Indian People's Liberation Army was established under the leadership of the CPI (M-L). This created panic in the camp of the Indian reactionaries and their imperialist and social-imperialist masters. Following the historic call of Comrade Charu Mazumdar: "Give Priority to the Task of Establishing the Peasants' Political Power, the armed struggle of the People's Warfront forces set up Revolutionary Committees as organs of the People's State Power and set up miltia to defend the fruits of the revolution. Large base areas have appeared in many parts of India and particularly in West Bengal.

Faced with unprecedented consolidation and advance of the revolutionary forces in 1970, the Indian reactionaries organized mid-term elections in March 1971 to consolidate the position of Indira Gandhi and to divert the Indian people away from their violent revolution. She promised to bring "socialism" "peacefully."

Over 150,000 troops were rushed to West Bengal, with the aim of maintaining "peace" during the elections, army control was established in West Bengal to try and suppress the People's Warfront. The West Bengal Prevention of Violent Activities Act and the West Bengal Maintenance of Public Order Act were actively reinforced to persecute the revolutionary people of West Bengal.

In March 1971, the "Bangla Desh" counter-revolution was launched by the Indian expansionists, the Awami League. Very soon however, the "leaders" of the Awami League were in Calcutta and New Delhi.

The armed agrarian revolution in East Pakistan had already spread far and wide by April-May 1971, and the People's Liberation Army of the East Pakistani people was formed. Revolutionary Committees were established and the peasants' political power emerged in many villages. Revolutionary base areas were built up in the provinces of Sylhet, Sadar, Sankhira, Dacca, Barisal, Noakhali, Faridpur, Mymensing, Sylhet and other areas.

The Indian expansionists fraudulently created a so-called "Question of East Pakistani refugees" from April onwards with the help of the intervention of the imperialists and the support of Mujibur Rahman clique. Widespread propaganda was done to support the "Bangla Desh" movement with the aim of diverting attention from the earth-shaking revolution of 700 million people in the South-Asian subcontinent and to prepare counter-revolutionary public opinion to interfere in the internal affairs of Pakistan.

Comrade Charu Mazumdar pointed out in February 1971 that the armed struggle in West Bengal and in East Pakistan "will merge into one very soon as it happened in the case of the three countries of Indo-China." This is why the Indian expansionists and their lackeys intensified their counter-revolutionary efforts in creating the force of "Bangla Desh." On August 9, the Soviet-Indian Treaty - a military alliance - was signed to bolster up the Indian expansionists politically, militarily, diplomatically and in other ways so as to launch an aggressive attack on Pakistan and to disarm her by creating a puppet "Bangla Desh" regime. On August 13, Soviet Minister of Foreign Affairs Gromyko said that the Treaty will "definitely strengthen India's position in the existing tense situation in the subcontinent." The aim of the Treaty was creating an illusion of a new situation by signing this treaty is to consolidate their stronghold over the Indian government and edge out the United Nations representatives.

On September 22, Soviet deputy-foreign minister Nikolai Firyubin had bilateral consultations with Indian officials on the tense Indo-Pakistan situation under article 9 of the Indian Constitution.

In Sept.-Oct. 1971, the arch-expansionists at Indira Gandhi went on a long tour of the Soviet Union, USA, China and many other countries. They cut off sea-links between the two wings of Pakistan. They cut off air-traffic between the two wings of Pakistan. They violated the "non-aggression pact" to prepare counter-revolutionary public opinion.

On October 30, the Soviet Air force chief Kostakov visited India for talks with the reactionary Indian defence minister and service chiefs on the "defence needs" so as to prepare militarily for launching an aggressive war against Pakistan.

Indian expansionists began military incursions into East Pakistan brazenly on Nov. 2. The imperialist paper "Times" noted that the "Indian troops disguised as Bengali guerrillas have moved into East Pakistan at brigade strength and have occupied a slice of territory North-west of the Pakistan garrison town of Jessore." The "Indian Liberation Army" was created by the Indian expansionists and their masters. As the "Evening Standard" of Nov. 13 revealed, the "officials of the army were those who had had hard training overseas during the past four years."

UPI revealed on Nov.29 that the Soviet Union is supplying arms and missiles to India, including surface-to-air missiles (SAM) and spares for the MIG-21 and SU-7 fighter jets and ATAK missiles.

On Nov. 28 and 29, massive and militant processes were held by the East Pakistani people in Chittagong and Dacca, denouncing the Indian aggressors and the Indian leaders among the people to crush India's shameless aggression on Pakistan.

On Nov. 30, using fascist and expansionist politics, the Indian leaders made an anti-China stance and said that India did not feel that in today's situation the very presence of Pakistan troops in Bangla Desh [i.e. Bangladesh] was destructive. She arrogantly asked for the withdrawal of the Pakistani army from East Pakistan as a "gesture of peace."

On Dec. 3, Indian aggressor troops launched a massive and unprovoked air attack on the northern, western and eastern borders and co-ordinated these with Indian navy and airforce strikes in the early hours of Dec. 4. They cut off sea-links between the two wings of Pakistan.

The contradiction between the two super-powers on the question of hegemony over the subcontinent and the Indian ocean was shown sharply when the US imperialists verbally attacked the Indian government as "aggressors." The British and French imperialists, under "neutral" stance, gave active support to the Indian expansionists, thus revealing their contradiction with US imperialism.

On Dec. 4, at the Security Council of the UN, the Soviet social-imperialists vetoed a resolution calling for ceasefire and withdrawal of Indian troops. These fascist antics of the USSR, USA, China played the most outstanding role as the guardians of "peace" and "stability," and secured the majority vote of 104 countries at the General Assembly of the UN on Dec. 7. The Soviet Union is the one among all the imperialist powers on the question of "aggression." The USSR is the boss behind the Indian aggressors. The Indian expansionists usually do not have much guts. Why have they become so flagrant now? The reason is that a superpower, Soviet social-imperialism, is backing them up."

Making use of the ambition of the Indian expansionists, the Soviet leading clique is supporting India's armed aggression against Pakistan with the purpose of further controlling India and, as the next step, controlling the whole of the Indo-Pakistan subcontinent and the Indian Ocean in order to support the superpower for world hegemony.

The reactionary Indian paper "Hindustan Times" reported that the Soviet ambassador to India has been having secret consultations with senior officers of the [Indian] foreign office". On Dec. 15, 1971, the Soviet absolvent forces were launching barbarous attacks on Dacca, Soviet 1st deputy-foreign minister Kuznetsov flew into Dacca to "negotiate" with Indira Gandhi. A foreign news agency report said that the main aim of Kuznetsov's visit to India is to "co-ordinate Moscow-Delhi strategy in the battle of India."

Albania

Albanian paper "Zeri i Popullit" in an editorial strongly condemns the Indian reactionaries for unleashing armed aggression against Pakistan. Following are excerpts from the editorial:

"Albania's People's Socialist Republic strongly calls on the people of the world to recognize the aggression launched by the Indian revisionists and their imperialist and social-imperialist masters.

The various revolutionary organizations of national minorities in Canada, in particular, the Indian Progressive Study Group (Canada) and the Pakistan Progressive Study Group have repeatedly and systematically opposed the Indian revisionists and have been mobilizing support for the CPI(M-L) and CPEP(M-L).

The Pakistan Progressive Study Group in Toronto issued a militant statement entitled: "For the Right of Nigeria Against in Pakistan.

After scientifically tracing the events leading to the armed aggression against Pakistan by the Indian reactionaries and exposing the farce of 'Bangla Desh', the statement says:

"The counter-revolutionary civil war has resulted in a large scale massacre and suffering of the people and has displaced several million people. In this most complicated and difficult situation, the heroic people of Pakistan, guided by the correct leadership of the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist), have waged a most courageous and noble socialist-revolutionary war to overthrow the counter-revolutionary state and feudal class, and seize political power into their own hands.

...The problem facing the people of Pakistan is not the problem 'East Pakistan versus West Pakistan' but as the CPEP(M-L) has correctly pointed out, the question of imperialism, revisionism, the comprador bourgeoisie and feudal class, and seize political power into their own hands.

...the solution to the problem of the people of Pakistan is to defeat imperialism, social-imperialism and to overthrow the comprador bourgeoisie and feudal class also.

"The national revolutionary war being waged in East Pakistan under the leadership of the CPEP(M-L) has ushered a new era in the history of Pakistan.

James G. Endicott, Chairman of the Canadian Peace Congress and Executive Member of the 'World Peace Council' wrote in the Toronto daily newspaper, GLOBE AND MAIL, on Dec. 23, 1971, in which he pointed out: "I wish publicly to associate myself with my Pakistani colleague on the World Peace Council, the poet Faiz Ahmad Faiz, with whom I share the honor of being Lenin Peace Laureates.

If the world remains silent, then the path of social progress in East Pakistan under the leadership of the CPEP(M-L) will be blocked and the present counter-revolutionary war will fail together with the plans of those who are behind the puppets of Pakistan.

The national revolutionary war against the aggression launched by the Indian revisionists and their imperialist and social-imperialist masters will not be fulfilled."

England

The Indian Workers' Association, an organization of Indian workers living in Britain, in its open letter sent to Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, demands the progressive world mobilize support for the defence of the people of Pakistan. The letter says:

"...The oppressed masses of India are facing a bigger and more brutal aggression against their people, against their system led by you. You and your government tried every means in the past our people have experienced, and will continue to experience the evolutionary spark of Naxalbari. But your attempt will not be fulfilled.

Therefore, the solution to the problem of the people of Pakistan is to defeat imperialism, social-imperialism and to overthrow the comprador bourgeoisie and feudal class also.

The disturbances in Pakistan do not justify the armed attack by India for the purpose of reordering Pakistan's civil society. According to the principles of the World Peace Council that prorogative belongs to the people of Pakistan and not outside imperialist and social-imperialist interests. The various revolutionary organizations of national minorities in Canada, in particular, the Indian Progressive Study Group (Canada) and the Pakistan Progressive Study Group have repeatedly and systematically opposed the Indian revisionists and have been mobilizing support for the CPI(M-L) and CPEP(M-L).

America

The Communist Party of Canada (ML) has consistently upheld the proletarian internationalism of Comrade Bethune and has done tireless revolutionary propaganda work in support of the Indian and Pakistan revolution (See: "Fraternal Support from Canadian Comrades" elsewhere in this issue) and continues to support the armed aggression launched by the Indian revisionists and their imperialist and social-imperialist masters.

In its editorial, "The Communist Party of Canada (ML) has correctly pointed out that "imperialism, revisionism, the comprador bourgeoisie and feudal class, and seize political power into their own hands.

and Delhi for 6 days in order for the Indian army to express the East Pakistani people's resistance.

Contending with Soviet social-imperialism for domination over the subcontinent, the US is also週rd froni the Bay of Bengal for an "indefinite" period to show their "presence". Both the super-powers are treating the Bay of Bengal as their "private" sea.

The New York Times wrote on Dec. 20: "India, increasingly dependent on the Soviet Union for military aid, has made it plain that imperialism and social-imperialism are back in the world with Moscow last summer,... The result of the treaty: US influence in India was virtually neutralized.

...Already, among the counter-revolutionary cliques of the Awami League, the dog-fights for crumbs from the masters' table became so sharp that their "foreign minister" Mustaq Ahmed resigned. This should have been the occasion to give the people a clear indication between the Soviet revisionists and the US imperialists who are backing the bureaucratic capitalists and the comprador capitalists, respectively. Mujib's wife pleaded with this "minister" saying: "We must not give people the impression that the Bangla Desh government is falling apart already."

To the consternation of the "socialist" supporter of Bangla Desh, Prime Minister of Bangladesh Mujibur Rahman came to London on Jan. 9, 1972 to consult his traditional "mentors" and "friends" on how to proceed with his chicanery. Mujib, who had welcomed him as a "government guest", met Prime Minister Heath on the same day. The British imperialist press expressed the desire to "balance" the two super-powers on the issue of "preventive action." Thus, quick to detail British investments in East Pakistan amounting to over £150 million in the tea plantations alone.

On 10th January, speaking at New Delhi airport, Mujibur Rahman said that his puppet regime will follow the "same ideals and principles as India", that is, the anti-China, and anti-communist policies of the Indian expansionists and their masters.

The resistance of the people led by the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist), in the Indian Progressive Study Group and the "Bangla Desh" puppet regime is intensifying rapidly. "Law and order" problem, say these reactionaries, has become the "main" problem in East Pakistan. However, the Indian foreign minister, said that the Indian army will have to remain in East Pakistan "for an indefinite period", to carry out counter-revolutionary "en-circlement and suppression" campaigns against the revolutionary base areas!

The British paper "Guardian" reported on 30th December: "But one thing is now clear in other parts of the country. Down in the south around the Khulna area, the maniac fringe of the Naxalites (i.e., the Communist revolutionaries)... the fanatical Maoists who have given the Indians so much trouble in West Bengal... have been busy collecting the weapons abandoned by the fleeing Pakistanis. We are storing them!”, one of their spokesmen said stakkly, "for later use.

With the Naxalites in full spate, the Bangladesh army refuses to talk about anyone who come across, it needs no imaginative genius to conjure up that progres-sive future:"The Naxalite and his comrades have shown the terror that has gripped the imperialists, social-imperialists and their lackeys in the South Asian subcontinent."

The Times "Telegraph" of 19th January revealed that Mujib's commandos have gelled to British imperialists for a long-term loan of "commandos" to put down the raging revolutionary upsurge throughout the general population against the puppet regime and its agents.

Mujibur Rahman is frenziedly trying to collect the rifles and other weapons, but has failed miserably, because these weapons have been scattered and are in the hands of the Liberation Army under the leadership of the Party of the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist)!

The US media has released its "Newsrelated" report on December 23.
HAILING THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE INDIAN PEOPLE'S LIBERATION ARMY

The people of the world will certainly follow the trail blazed by the Chinese people led by Chairman Mao. They are bound to unite and defeat U.S. imperialism and Indian imperialism. Celebrating the great victories of the Indian revolution, around 200 Indian, Afro-Asian, Irish and English revolutionaries stand during the rally of December 11th and resolutely shout: "Death to U.S. imperialism! Death to Soviet Social imperialism! Long live Chairman Mao! A long, long life to Chairman Mao!"

London, December 11: On Saturday, November 1st, the Afro-Asian People's Solidarity Movement and the Indian Progressive Study Group (England) jointly organized a historic revolutionary rally to hail the First Anniversary of the formation of the Indian PLA (founded on December 7th 1970). This rally was attended by nearly 200 Indian, Afro-Asian and English comrades and friends.

In the front of the hall and elsewhere revolutionary red banners were portrayed. The slogans written on the banners included: LONG LIVE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF INDIA (Marxist-Leninist), LONG LIVE THE INDIAN REVOLUTION, LONG LIVE THE INDIAN PLA, CHINA'S CHAIRMAN IS OUR CHAIRMAN; CHINA'S PATH IS OUR PATH, CHAIRMAN'S CHINA MAY BE ATTACKED, SO LET US HASTEN THE WORK OF REVOLUTION, LONG LIVE CHAIRMAN MAO, A LONG LONG LIFE TO HIM.

A resolute member of the Indian Progressive Study Group (England) delivered the speech at the rally. In this inspiring speech, the comrade stressed that the heroic struggle of the Indian people for centuries against their oppressors, both foreign and domestic. He pointed out that the Indian people had time and again revolted against the British imperialists and tried to build up their army to achieve their liberation. He sharply condemned the treachery of the revisionist leadership who for over 40 years have consistently betrayed the revolutionary struggles. He pointed out that what happened in 1947 was that neo-colonial rule was imposed on the Indian people and that the gowned hackeys, the Nehru-Gandhi led Congress Party were pressed into service by the British imperialists to suppress the raging flames of revolution that erupted after the Second World War.

The speaker pointed out that in April, 1967, the Communist revolutionaries of India led by Comrade Charu Mazumdar brought about the turning point in the Indian Revolution by starting the heroic Nasalbari peasants' revolutionary armed struggle against feudalism, comprador-bureaucrat capitalism, U.S. imperialism and Soviet social-imperialism which are the four big mountains weighing heavy on the backs of the Indian people. The C.P.I.-(M-L) based on Mao Tsetung Thought and under the leadership of Comrade Charu Mazumdar was established on April 22, 1969. The revolutionary situation after the 5th Congress of the C.P.I.-(M-L), first after Nasalbari in May 1970 has become excellent. The speaker pointed out that just as Comrade Charu Mazumdar had predicted, the landless and land-poor peasants started snatching rifles from the police and the military and after the daring raid on a police station at Masurjan by the heroic peasants of Nasalbari the Indian PLA was formed. This was another historic turning point in the Indian Revolution.

The speaker then talked about the recent development of the Indo-Pakistan Sub-continent. He pointed out that revolutionary peasants armed struggle against feudalism had already been started in East Pakistan in October 1970 under the leadership of the Communist Party of East Pakistan (Marxist-Leninist). In order to divert the people onto the path of national chauvinism, the Indian expansionists, Mujib Rahman counter-revolutionaries and their imperialist masters started the so-called "Bangla Desh" movement. The speaker traced the history of the Indian expansionists and sharply condemned the expansionist philosophy of Nehru and all his followers. He pointed out that the C.P.I.-(M-L) had given the call: No interference in Pakistan's internal affairs. The speaker quoted at length from Comrade Charu Mazumdar's article "PAKISTAN AND THE ROLE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY". The speaker also highly praised the People's Republic of China, the bright red bastion of world revolution led by beloved Chairman Mao for the most correct and just stand she has taken on this question.

The speaker concluded that the Indian and Pakistani people are brothers and that under the leadership of the C.P.I.-(M-L) and the C.P.E.P.-(M-L) they will together defeat the warmongers once and for all.

The people of the world will certainly follow the trail blazed by the Chinese people led by Chairman Mao. They are bound to unite and defeat U.S. imperialism and Indian imperialism.

After the main speech, representatives from the Afro-Asian People's Solidarity Movement, Far East and Southeast Asian Progressive Study Group, Comrade representatives of Indo and Malayan, Singaporean Student Movement, and the Ad-hoc Committee for the formation of the Black Revolutionary Worker's Movement gave messages of solidarity. All of them sharply condemned the reactionary expansionist imperialists of the Soviet social-imperialists for the most brazen aggression on the land and people of Pakistan. They also showed boundless faith in the correct leadership being provided by the C.P.I.-(M-L) and Comrade Charu Mazumdar and the C.P.E.P.-(M-L). Time and again all the revolutionary masses attending the rally stood up and shouted revolutionary slogans. The atmosphere in the hall was filled with revolutionary zeal.

After the messages of solidarity were delivered, the people continued having small group discussions and armed themselves with copies of the IPSG Newsletter on East Revolution and the newly published Afro-Asian Solidarity Newrelease and other revolutionary literature. Many Afro-Asian and English comrades and friends came forward to the Indian comrades and engaged in discussions on the current situation. All this shows the growing unity and comradeship prevailing among the revolutionaries. Late at night, the revolutionary masses reassembled and sang three songs: Singing o the Socialist Motherland, East is Red, and the Internationale.

The speaker highlighted the great significance of the Indian revolution by quoting Chairman Mao: "LIKE FREE CHINA, A FREE INDIA WILL ONCE AGAIN EMERGE IN THE SOCIALIST ANGULAR FAMILY; THAT DAY WILL END THE IMPERIALIST REACTIONARY ERA IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND!" He said that the revolutionary people of the world are tremendously inspired with the great prediction of Comrade Charu Mazumdar's that "INDIA WILL SOON BE LIBERATED BY 1975."

At the end of his speech the revolutionary masses stood up, and with clenched fists shouted the revolutionary slogans: DEATH TO U.S. IMPERIALISM!, DEATH TO SOVIET IMPERIALISM!, DEATH TO INDIAN EXPANSIONISTS!, LONG LIVE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF INDIA (Marxist-Leninist); LONG LIVE COMRADE CHARU MAZUMDAR!, LONG LIVE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF EAST PAKISTAN (Marxist-Leninist); LONG LIVE INDIAN REVOLUTION! LONG LIVE INDIAN SOCIALISM! LONG LIVE THE INQUILAB ZINDABAD!, LONG LIVE CHAIRMAN MAO! A LONG LONG LIFE TO CHAIRMAN MAO! This was followed by prolonged applause from the masses.
FRATERNAL SUPPORT FROM CANADIAN COMRADES

Reprinted from LIBERATION, journal of Communist Party of India (M-L); April-June, 1971, Vol. 4, No. 4

We reproduce below most of the statement published under the title East is Red in Mass Line, journal of the Communist Party of Canada (Marxist-Leninist). This revolutionary Canadian weekly dedicated its special issue of September 13, 1970 to Indian Revolution; it reprinted our Party Programme and all other Party Congress documents and editorial notes that appeared in Liberation, May-July, 1970 issue, in order to make them available to the revolutionary people of North America and Europe. Thus our fraternal Party took upon itself the task of foiling the attempt of the Indian reactionaries and their imperialist and social-imperialist masters to stifle the voice of the Indian revolution and to isolate the revolutionary Party and people of this country from the revolutionary people of the rest of the world. We are grateful to our fraternal Party for its valuable support to the cause of Indian revolution, which is but a part of the world revolution led by Chairman Mao Tsetung. The warm greetings of our Canadian comrades will be an unfailing source of inspiration and strength to us during our struggle against the common enemies of mankind.

Referring to the Congress of the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) held in May last year, Mass Line declared:

"Mass Line warmly hails this event. To make sure that the Party programme and other relevant documents of CPI (ML) are made available to all revolutionary people in North America and western Europe, we produce this special issue of Mass Line and dedicate the whole issue to Indian Revolution.

"For us, here in Canada, it is a great joy and happiness to know that bright red rays of Mao Tsetung Thought have reached India. For us it is in India and China that the fate of the whole mankind is going to be decided. As Comrade Lenin pointed out so brilliantly...

"That is why it is fundamental to our own work in Canada that we fully support and work for the Indian Revolution. Our Indian comrades who have met CPI (ML) responsible counterparts in the front floor of world revolution that we will always persist in disseminating Mao Tsetung Thought in Canada and elsewhere as our contribution to world revolution and also a necessary ingredient for the overthrow of U.S. imperialism from our own country.

"Mass Line fully believes that either west wind prevails over the east wind or the East Wind prevails over the west wind. We are fully conscious of the historical fact that only the East Wind holds a great progressive and revolutionary future for the whole mankind. To make sure that the East Wind prevails over the West Wind, we will certainly uphold Marxism-Leninism-Mao Tsetung Thought and participate in the glorious task of _anti-imperialist and socialist revolution is part of the East Wind and its raging storm is approaching our own land far out in the west. Comrades; We can also see the rays of the eastern sun and the freshness of the wind from the east and the great future which awaits the whole of mankind.

"We warmly salute the heroic Indian comrades, CPI (ML) and Comrade Charu Mazumdar !!!

Long live the Indian Revolution !!!
Long live CPI (ML) !!!
Long live Communist Party of Canada (ML) !!!
Long live Chairman Mao !!!
A long long life to Chairman Mao !!!"
