The great leader of the Chinese people chairmain mao has pointed out: "The people of all countries, the masses comprising more than 90 per cent of the entire population, sooner or later want revolution and sooner or later support marxism-leninism. They will not support revisionism. Though some people may support revisionism for a while, they will eventually cast it aside. They are bound to awaken gradually; they are bound to oppose the imperialists and reactionaries in all countries; they are bound to oppose revisionism." As mao tse-tung's thought is disseminated more and more widely and deeply in the British isles, an ever increasing number of British people will join the great struggle against imperialism and revisionism.
