Convention guests from out of town might like to use this time to see the Diego Riviera Murals at the Detroit Institute of Art, which is a short bus ride down Woodward Ave. Information on the murals is enclosed in the Convention packet. These magnificent murals chronicle working class life in Detroit.

The Steering Committee for the Convention is: Gay S., Mark L., Bill P., Joel J., Mike U. All sessions will be chaired by a member of the steering committee. The chair will announce presentation times and what documents are being presented at the beginning of each session.

Seating of delegates will take place promptly at the beginning of each session. If a delegate or alternate misses the roll, he or she must inform the recording secretary within 15 minutes of the session's start in order to be seated.
