The social-security program of the American capitalists is being put into practice, with hundreds of thousands of American workers registering for so-called benefits which are scheduled to begin in 1942. Social security is impossible only under Communism. Only a world Communistic

STRIKERS WIN VICTORY

After striking several days, under the leadership of the Detroit chapter of the American Federation of Labor, the workers of the Auto Fiber plant won their demands, which included an increase in wages, a reduction in working hours, and an end to the discrimination against black workers. The strike was a significant victory for the labor movement in Detroit.

TROYSKY EXILED TO MEXICO

Leon Trotsky, a leader of the Russian Revolution, was expelled from Mexico and later died in a concentration camp in Spain. His exile was a significant blow to the revolutionary movement in the United States and internationally.

SECOND PLENUM OF THE YWL

The Young Women's Labor League held its second plenum in New York City. The league, founded in 1918, aimed to organize and support the struggles of young women for better working and living conditions.

CIVIL WAR IN SPAIN

The Spanish Civil War began in 1936 and lasted until 1939. It was a conflict between the Republican and Nationalist factions, with international support on both sides. The war had significant implications for the future of European politics and the spread of communism.

BOSS SECURITY

In Chicago, the Wobblies are fighting for the rights of the workers, and they are winning.

TROUBLE IN INDIA

The Indian National Congress launched a series of protests and strikes to demand self-rule and an end to British rule. The movement, led by figures such as Mohandas Gandhi, was a precursor to India's eventual independence.

CIVIL RIGHTS

The Civil Rights Movement in the United States gained momentum in the 1950s and 1960s, with protests and legal challenges to end racial segregation and discrimination. Key figures included Martin Luther King Jr. and Malcolm X.

CHICAGO CLASSES

The struggle for social justice and equality was not limited to the working class. Intellectuals and activists also played a crucial role in the fight for a better society.

CAMP CAVES FOR GIRLS

The CCC was a government program that provided employment for young women of ages 16 to 18 years old. The program aimed to provide a way for young women to gain work experience, education, and a sense of self-worth. The program was撤销 in 1939, and the CCC camps were closed.

With the opening of several new camps, the National Youth Administration has initiated a new comprehensive program to provide meaningful work and skill training for young people. In one respect, they have gone beyond the CCCs. The girls sign up for a six-month period, whereas the CCC wage is $30 a month.

The good news is that women can fight! If it were not for the fact that the CCC was illegal, it was allowed by the government to go on. The women who joined the CCCs did so because they were desperate and they saw it as a way to escape poverty and discrimination.

The bad news is that they were not allowed to vote, and the government did not provide them with any kind of protection or support. They were simply thrown into the labor market and left to fend for themselves. This is a stark reminder of the limitations of the New Deal and the need for a more just and equitable system of social protection.
