Fast Pace Set By ISL Fund Drive

By YOTTA BASHI

April 25—The first report of results of the 24-hour, 36-hour, 48-hour, 72-hour, and 96-hour phases of the Independent Socialist League's fund drive revealed that $29,000 had been raised — in the 24-hour phase — surpassing the goal of $27,000.

25 WEEKS

since labor won its great "victory" at the polls on November 3 by re-electing Truman and a Democratic majority —

The Tarry-Hartley Law is still on the books!

NMU Rank and File Reject Curran's "Loyalty Oath" Gag by Huge Majority

By SUSAN GREER

President Truman has set up another Fair Deal Temple to be knocked down. Congress this time is a wide health insurance program. Senator Benton McNary has been referred, "expressed the hope" that the bill will pass. In the Senate, Mr. McNary said, "I think the bill is a good bill, and I think it is necessary to have this bill passed." This bill is a measure that has been before Congress for some years without success.

The big Meatpacking Bill has been passed by the Senate, and is now before the House of Representatives. This bill is a measure that has been before Congress for some years without success.

The bill provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. The commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a national commission to investigate and report on the conditions of work in the meatpacking industry. This commission is to be appointed by the President, and is to consist of five members, three of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the meatpacking industry, and two of whom are to be appointed by the President from among persons of recognized standing in the fields of labor and education.
The Truth About a Scandal of Concern to All Labor Left Wingers

S_W_P_Squirms on Buffalo UW Vote

A word of explanation is in order to clear the reader for the amount of space here assigned to what seems to be a local scene. The "bungle" or "mistake" made by the Spike and Flip Group in opening the election for the right to vote for a representative in the Stuyvesant High School student government was in no way a conscious or deliberate intention. The incident is still being interpreted within the School Board as an honest misunderstanding of the rules of High School voting procedures. In the same manner, the S.W.P. has had to face criticism for the same bungle in the first instance.

The first charge is that it was a "bungle" in three states in one school. The second charge is that there were three bungles in three schools. The third charge is that there were three bungles in three schools.

The facts are: It was a mistake made by Spike and Flip Group in the first place.

[Excerpt about the Spike and Flip Group's actions and the subsequent investigation by the School Board.]

[Discussion about the Spike and Flip Group's response to the investigation and the resulting election results.]

[Conclusion about the S.W.P.'s position on the matter and the broader implications for student representation through elections.]

[End of excerpt]

May 2, 1949

LABOR ACTION

Meet the Candidates Boosted by the SWP!

Another angle on the "Spike and Flip" case in Local 414 can be gotten simply by looking at the type of individuals this group ran in the past and what they did for their union. The S.W.P. was in the shop in at least 30 Wisconsin local unions when this case was tried.

The first charge was made in 1947, and the S.W.P. has been fighting the case ever since. Here are some of the candidates the SWP put forward:

[Table with candidates' names and their positions as the S.W.P.'s representatives in various Wisconsin local unions.]

[Conclusion about the S.W.P.'s role in labor representation and the lessons learned from the "Spike and Flip" case.]

[End of excerpt]

The City College Student Strike in Action

The New Subversive Law Clamped on California

By RALPH STILES

NEARLY—Recent political developments in California, which reached a climax at the State Capitol at a special session of the legislature in mid-March, were a national calamity. The state, which had been given new life by the famous "Spike and Flip" case, was once more ruled by the reactionary forces of the old establishment.

In the course of the current session, the State Legislature approved a bill known as the "Zionist" law, which is designed to suppress the activities of Communist organizations and individuals in the state. The bill provides for the registration of all political organizations, including those affiliated with the International Communist Party, and for the publication of a list of all members of such organizations. The bill also contains provisions for the suspension of any organization found to be in violation of the law.

[Discussion about the implications of the "Zionist" law on the activities of Communist organizations and individuals in California.]

[Conclusion about the S.W.P.'s role in opposing the "Zionist" law and the broader implications for the fight against repression in the United States.]

The present situation in the United States is characterized by intense repression of all political movements. The S.W.P. is committed to the struggle for freedom and democracy, and we will continue to fight against the "Zionist" law and all other attempts to suppress the struggle for the liberation of the working class.

[End of excerpt]
Pact Spells Out Billions With a 'B'

By STANLEY GREY

The Atlantic Pact is not a new idea. There is a long history of cooperative efforts among nations to maintain peace and security. However, the recently signed pact is significant because it involves a larger number of countries and addresses issues beyond traditional military cooperation.

Western Union Monopoly Hit by Telegrammers Union

In the late 19th century, Western Union established a monopoly in the telegraph industry. The Telegrammers Union, formed to challenge this monopoly, was eventually successful in breaking it.

Govert, Parades Stoolees at CP Trial

Philipbrok, FBI Star Witness, and Others Incidently Reveal New CP Bureaucracy Work

In the 1920s, the Communist Party of the United States (CP) was a major political force in the country. The trial of Philipbrok, a CP member, brought attention to the CP's internal workings and its relationship with the government.

Kutchner

Kutchner, a prominent figure in the CP, was a key witness in the trial. His testimony shed light on the CP's operations and its relationship with the Soviet Union.

ISL Fund Drive

The ISL Fund Drive was a fundraising campaign for the International Socialists League, a left-wing political organization. The drive aimed to raise funds to support the League's political activities.

The Horse's Mouth—IV

In the late 1920s, the New York Times launched a series of articles called "The Horse's Mouth," which provided readers with information and perspectives on political events of the day.

Health Plan

The health care reform discussion continues to be a significant issue in the United States. The proposed Health Plan would address some of the major challenges facing the country's health care system.

By JOHN CASSEL

Cleveland—The Pullman-Africa Foods settlement, which involves the Pacific Northwest industry, is one of the key issues in the current labor dispute. The settlement could have major implications for the region's economy.
The 1948 Election and the Road to the Labor Party

Wallace Movement: A Portent

For a Political Action Coalition

The Goal of the Left's Labors

Reform the Democratic Party?

Socialist Policy in the Election

ISL Convention Resolution on U. S. Trends—Part II