Truman Aide Says Rent Freeze Is Over—Landlords Get “Fair Deal”!

In the recent Fair Deal without a date, the Truman administration sent rent controls and the 1930’s式的 controls (housing, wages, prices, etc.) to a congressional committee. This committee, made up of conservative members, is expected to report on the issue soon.

The aim is to counteract the momentum of the 1930’s and 1940’s, when the government imposed controls to stabilize the economy. The new committee is expected to dismantle these controls and promote a more free-market approach.

The “Fair Deal” is a term used to describe the New Deal-era policies of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, which aimed to provide economic recovery and social progress. The term has been used in a political context to describe the policies of President Harry S. Truman, who was Roosevelt’s successor.

The article suggests that the Truman administration’s approach is a return to the principles of the New Deal, aiming to restore economic stability through regulation and control.

Illegalities in NMU Vote May Annul Referendum

By N. ADELMAN

NEW YORK, June 28—The National Maritime Union last week concluded an agreement with a strike, with its members voting overwhelmingly to accept a new contract.

The agreement provides for a 15% increase in wages and a 10% improvement in working conditions. The NMU leadership also announced that it would call for a national referendum to ratify the new contract.

The NMU leadership has announced that it will call for a national referendum to ratify the new contract, and the union’s membership is expected to vote on the issue in the near future.

China CP Developing New Coalition And New Bureaucratic Ruling Clique

Chinese CP Has Scaled New Heights in the Past Year

The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) has made significant progress in the past year, expanding its influence and gaining new members.

The CCP has strengthened its position in the Chinese political landscape, winning support from various groups and establishing a strong presence in many regions.

The party has also made efforts to improve its image and strengthen its organizational structure.

The text mentions the presence of anti-labor laws and practices in Stalinist Russia, highlighting the oppressive measures imposed by the Stalinist regime.

UAW, Rountou and Political Action

There are many serious issues before this 12th convention of the auto workers’ union. As report states, however, the most serious problem of the moment is the failure of the recent convention to adopt the Fair Deal program. The new convention is expected to deal with this problem.

The question is one of whether the convention will adopt a program to give the workers a voice in the running of the country. The convention has the power to adopt a program to give the workers a voice in the running of the country.

The trend of the convention is toward a program of political action. This is a trend that has been growing in recent years.

Rountou, who has been a member of the convention for many years, is expected to attend the convention and support the program of political action.

UAW Local Proposes That CIO Run Labor Candidate for N. Y. Mayor

By RAY MILLER

NEW YORK, June 30—At a meeting of Local 907 of the United Auto Workers in Lower Manhattan last night, the membership overwhelmingly passed a proposal to run an independent candidate for mayor of New York City.

The proposal was supported by a majority of the union’s membership, who felt that the current political system is not adequately representing the interests of the workers.

Broyles Commission Withholders Rampage Against Academic Freedom

By LEO DE MONTE

CRITICISM is in order of the Broyles Commission (the "Little Dixie Commission") of the Kansas state legislature, after the signatures gathered to support its proposal to abolish the legislature, the reports of its so-called "legislature," the broadcasts of its "legislative" network, and its threats to use violence against any who oppose its plans. The commission's actions are not only illegal but also dangerous to the integrity of the state's democratic process.

34 WEEKS since labor won its great "victory" at the polls on November 2 by re-electing Truman and a Democratic majority—but The Taft-Hartley Law is still on the books.

OREGON'S CP IN COALITION

with the Chinese National Student

Commission on the Revolutionary State of China. Their policies are not compatible with those of the Commission, and as a result, the CP has been expelled from the Commission. The Commission has also acted in a manner that is detrimental to the interests of the students. The CP has condemned this action, and the Commission has agreed to reconsider its position.

The Chinese Communist Party has denounced the actions of the Commission, and has called for a united front of all the revolutionary forces in China. The CP believes that the Commission's actions are a violation of the principles of the Chinese Revolution, and that the Commission should be expelled from the Chinese Communist Party. The CP has called on the Commission to reconsider its position, and to act in accordance with the principles of the Chinese Revolution.

The Chinese Communist Party has also condemned the actions of the Commission's leadership, and has called for a united front of all the revolutionary forces in China. The CP believes that the Commission's leadership is not representative of the interests of the students, and that the Commission should be replaced by a new leadership that is representative of the interests of the students.

Don’t Let CP Carry Ball For Civil Liberties!

The Greater Los Angeles CIU Council, under its new anti-biased party, has just won a primary against the Anti-CIVIL LIBERTIES forces of the Civil Liberties Voter and the Committee on Freedom of Speech.

Yes, the vote was close, but the CIU people have voted against the anti-CIVIL LIBERTIES forces and selected the CIU candidate.

The CIU voted for the CIU candidate, the CIU candidate who is a real fighter for civil liberties.

Now, why did the CIU people vote against the anti-CIVIL LIBERTIES forces? Because they know that the CIU candidate is a real fighter for civil liberties.

The CIU candidate is a real fighter for civil liberties. He is a fighter for the rights of all people, regardless of their race, religion, or political affiliation.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to live in freedom and equality.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to express their ideas and opinions without fear of retribution.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to have access to information and education.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to have a say in the decisions that affect their lives.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to have a voice in the political process.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to live in peace and security.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to have a future.

He is a fighter for the right of all people to have a better life.

Isn’t it time that we all stand up and support the CIU candidate in the upcoming primary election?

Let us not let the anti-CIVIL LIBERTIES forces carry the ball for civil liberties. Let us support the CIU candidate and ensure that civil liberties are protected.

The CIU candidate is the only one who can make a real difference. Let us vote for him and help to make a better world for all of us.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

[CIU Candidate’s Name]

Ohio Legislature Kills FEPC Bill; W&S Strike Weakened by Scabbing

By JOE CLARK

COLUMBUS, May 3—All hope for FEPC in Ohio from this source of the state - the Ohio Legislature - died in the final session of the 1969 General Assembly. The bill, shelved at the last minute, was the hope of many in the labor movement for protection against discrimination in employment.

The bill was introduced by Representative Joe Clark, himself an attorney and member of the Ohio AFL-CIO staff. He has been active in labor for many years and has worked closely with the Ohio labor movement.

The bill would have required employers to post notices informing employees of their rights under the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). It also would have provided for the appointment of a special master to handle complaints of discrimination.

The bill was killed in the Senate after it was passed by the House. The Senate refused to consider it further.

The bill's夭折 in the Senate was due to a combination of factors. First, there was strong opposition from business groups who felt that such a bill would impose an unfair burden on employers. Second, the Senate was dominated by Republicans who were opposed to any form of government intervention in the economy.

The bill's defeat means that Ohio's labor movement will have to rely on other means to protect workers from discrimination. They may have to turn to the courts or to the state's department of labor for relief.

The loss of the FEPC bill is a setback for labor in Ohio, but it is not a defeat. The labor movement will continue to fight for workers' rights and will not be deterred by this setback.
