Negro Loyalty Hearing Proves a Flop

Jackie Robinson Disappoints Probers, Stresses Crow Not a CPC Issue, Blasts U.S. Racism

By RAY LEONARD

The hearings on Negro "loyalty," held in July at the urging of the Committee on Un-American Activities, were designed as an integral part of the general program of the committee, which is engaged in an attempt to extract patriotism from the Negro and to maintain his identification with the right wing of the nation.

This is a debatable point for the Negro people was found in the Negro "loyalty" imputation, which has been used by the committee to justify its attacks on the Negro community in general. This point is shown by the fact that the committee, in its report, states that Negroes are "loyal" to the Communist Party of the United States.

Causalities of PAC
The Next Step—NOW: Organize Rank and File in PAC!

The April issue of the No. 1 problem today.

The labor movement's PAC (Political Action Committee) has been attacked by the AFL-CIO's Labor and Management Committee and the National Right to Work Committee. The AFL-CIO has recently stated that it is time to organize the labor movement and the political action committee.

The AFL-CIO wants to strengthen the PAC as an independent political force. They believe that the PAC is a necessary tool for the labor movement to succeed.

The AFL-CIO is proposing the strengthening of the PAC with the following recommendations:

1. The PAC should be reorganized into a political action committee (PAC) that is independent of the AFL-CIO.
2. The PAC should be reorganized into a political action committee (PAC) that is independent of the AFL-CIO.
3. The PAC should be reorganized into a political action committee (PAC) that is independent of the AFL-CIO.
4. The PAC should be reorganized into a political action committee (PAC) that is independent of the AFL-CIO.
5. The PAC should be reorganized into a political action committee (PAC) that is independent of the AFL-CIO.

The AFL-CIO believes that the PAC should be reorganized into a political action committee (PAC) that is independent of the AFL-CIO.

"Not With a Bang, But a Whimper"

Each of the factors making for a continuation and a deepening of the depression is at least as powerful today as it was a year ago. The situation affects us all. On this continent, too, the policy of government is to a large extent determined by conditions abroad. In a world plagued by depression, the economic situation in this country is not isolated. The whole world is in a state of economic strain. The situation is one of world-wide depression.

LITTLE MORAL FORVOLERO

The moral of the story is: both sides have equally to blame. Neither side can escape responsibility. Each side must bear its share of the guilt. If we are to escape from the mire of depression, we must have a policy that is based on the principles of justice and fairness. We must have a policy that is based on the principles of cooperation and solidarity. We must have a policy that is based on the principles of social justice and equality. Only then can we hope to escape from the mire of depression.

Jewish Pen Club Queries Russian Embassy on Purged Writers' Fate

BY DANIEL DAVIDSON

The latest appeal of the Jewish Pen Club to the Russian Embassy to intervene on behalf of writers exiled or purged by the Russian government has been made public this week. The Jewish Pen Club has written to the Russian Embassy in Washington, D.C., demanding that it investigate the fate of writers who have been arrested, exiled, or purged. The Jewish Pen Club has previously written to the Russian Embassy on this issue, and its current letter is a continuation of its efforts to intervene on behalf of Russian writers. The letter is signed by Rabbi Israel Abrahams, President of the Jewish Pen Club, and Rabbi Samuel Glazer, Secretary of the Jewish Pen Club.

This week in Seattle, Chicago, Detroit, and New York City, 12,000 workers in the steel industry went on strike. The strike was called by the United Steelworkers of America, the largest union in the country, and it is centered in the Midwest and Northeast. The strike is in response to the lack of a new contract, which has been in negotiations for several months. The strike is expected to last for several weeks, and it is expected to affect the production of steel in the affected areas.

CLEVELAND—July 24—More stories of Negro postal workers accused of this

One of the workers, who declined to be identified by name, said the management was trying to intimidate workers by giving them a deadline and then threatening to fire them if they didn’t obey. The worker said the managers were trying to force workers to write negative comments about the mills on their performance evaluations.

Dirt Flies in ALP Split

The ALP split is believed to be a result of a struggle for power between the New South Wales Party and the national party. The New South Wales Party is led by Kim Beazley, who has been a strong critic of the national party. The national party is led by Simon Creagan, who has been a supporter of the New South Wales Party. The split is expected to have an impact on the upcoming federal election, which is scheduled for October 2013.
