The Independent Socialist League Fights for a Socialist Democracy!

September 5, 1949

A PAPER IN THE INTEREST OF SOCIALISM

O'Dwyer's Scabbing in Bush Strike 'Repays' Quill Support

NEW YORK, Aug. 30—O'Dwyer's wife, Mrs. John O'Dwyer, who is a member of the New York State Senate, has been at odds with the city's Mayor, Robert F. Wagner, over the issue of the Bush Strike. On Sunday, Mr. Wagner announced his decision to withhold the city's funds from the strike, and Mrs. O'Dwyer responded by saying that she would use her influence to try to obtain financial support for the strikers.

WHO'S ON TOP?

The city's plan to cite TWU members for scabbing through an amendment to the union's constitution prohibits O'Dwyer and the other TWU officials from using any official or private capacity to interfere with the labor activities of the Bush workers.

LEADERSHIP ON SPOT

The TWU leadership, working through the New York Labor Committee, has been in constant consultation with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike. O'Dwyer, in his capacity as a state senator, has been in constant touch with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike.

This is the second strike in a month for TWU members in this city. The previous strike was over the issue of the New York City Transit Authority's (NYCTA) proposed plan to lengthen the hours of the bus and trolley drivers. O'Dwyer, in his capacity as a state senator, has been in constant touch with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike.

In the case of the NYCTA strike, the TWU leadership has been in constant consultation with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike. O'Dwyer, in his capacity as a state senator, has been in constant touch with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike.

The city's plan to cite TWU members for scabbing through an amendment to the union's constitution prohibits O'Dwyer and the other TWU officials from using any official or private capacity to interfere with the labor activities of the Bush workers.

The TWU leadership, working through the New York Labor Committee, has been in constant consultation with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike. O'Dwyer, in his capacity as a state senator, has been in constant touch with the city's unions and has made every effort to secure the withdrawal of the strike.

Robeson Meets Broken by KKK, Vets; Plays 'Possum going to the SYL Camp in Wisconsin. By the end of the week, the SYL had scored a victory, but at a cost. Many of the SYL members were injured, and the union leadership was forced to accept the decision of the state federation to stop using the SYL as an organizing force.

SYL Summer School Schedules

Six Lectures by Max Shachtman

The national summer camp of the Socialist Youth League, held in Wisconsin, was the scene of a major confrontation between the SYL and the workers of the American Labor Union. The SYL members were in the forefront of the battle, and their presence was a source of inspiration for the workers.

The SYL Summer School Schedules

Six Lectures by Max Shachtman

The national summer camp of the Socialist Youth League, held in Wisconsin, was the scene of a major confrontation between the SYL and the workers of the American Labor Union. The SYL members were in the forefront of the battle, and their presence was a source of inspiration for the workers.
Tito vs. Stalin—

(Continued from page 2)

proletarian, or the positions of the Russian revolutionaries-in-exile. His radicals, by contrast, are small in numbers but even more to be feared than the exiles abroad. His friends in Yugoslavia can be successfully subsumed into Tito's régime, and there is no question of the establishment of a genuine opposition in the Communist movement. If the report which reached us from Belgrade is correct, which is our opinion, they are not to be feared. They represent the people from the highland, the west, and the south. They are being supplied and equipped with Russian-made armament.

Such an operation would set a bad precedent for all the other countries of the region, and it would mean that the Russian Nazi policy of subversion by subversion is gaining ground. It would also be a clear violation of the principles of non-aggression and non-interference which are enshrined in the United Nations Charter. The report form Yugoslavia can be successfully subsumed into Tito's régime, and there is no question of the establishment of a genuine opposition in the Communist movement. If the report which reached us from Belgrade is correct, which is our opinion, they are not to be feared. They represent the people from the highland, the west, and the south. They are being supplied and equipped with Russian-made armament.

Such an operation would set a bad precedent for all the other countries of the region, and it would mean that the Russian Nazi policy of subversion by subversion is gaining ground. It would also be a clear violation of the principles of non-aggression and non-interference which are enshrined in the United Nations Charter. The report form Yugoslavia can be successfully subsumed into Tito's régime, and there is no question of the establishment of a genuine opposition in the Communist movement. If the report which reached us from Belgrade is correct, which is our opinion, they are not to be feared. They represent the people from the highland, the west, and the south. They are being supplied and equipped with Russian-made armament.

Such an operation would set a bad precedent for all the other countries of the region, and it would mean that the Russian Nazi policy of subversion by subversion is gaining ground. It would also be a clear violation of the principles of non-aggression and non-interference which are enshrined in the United Nations Charter. The report form Yugoslavia can be successfully subsumed into Tito's régime, and there is no question of the establishment of a genuine opposition in the Communist movement. If the report which reached us from Belgrade is correct, which is our opinion, they are not to be feared. They represent the people from the highland, the west, and the south. They are being supplied and equipped with Russian-made armament.
YOUTH and Student CORNER

CP Sets Up New Youth Front After YPA's Domination

The Communist Party has launched another youth organization, which is located in Buenos Aires as the Young People for the National Liberation (YPN), with headquarters at the National Organizing Conference for a Labor Youth League (LYL).

This recent initiative is also part of the international movement of the Young Communist Leagues, which are being established throughout the world, and is in line with the resolution of the XIX Congress of the Communist Party, which is to be held in the near future.

The YPN is composed of a group of young people who are committed to the ideals of the Communist Party and are fighting for a world without exploitation and oppression. The organization is characterized by its active role in the struggle for social justice and its dedication to the cause of the working class.

The YPN will focus on organizing young people, raising their consciousness about the need for a socialist transformation of society, and preparing them to take an active role in the revolutionary struggle.

CP Sets Up New Youth Front After YPA's Domination

The Young Communist Leagues (YCL) are international youth organizations that are affiliated with the Communist Party. They are committed to promoting socialist values and fighting against exploitation and oppression.

The YCL in Argentina has played an important role in the struggle against imperialism and for social justice. They have organized protests and rallies to denounce the policies of the ruling class and their support for imperialist wars.

The YCL in Argentina has also been active in the struggle for workers' rights, fighting against the exploitation of workers and for better conditions in the workplace. They have organized strikes and protests to demand better wages, shorter working hours, and safer working conditions.

The YCL is committed to fighting for a world without exploitation and oppression, and they continue to play an important role in the struggle for a socialist transformation of society.

Labor Action

Latin American CPI Aims at Coalition with Native Nazis

By JAY NEE

LIMA, Peru—Jorge de Lima, the secretary general of the Brazilian Communist Party, has announced that the Brazilian Communist Party will join with the native Nazis in the upcoming election. The Brazilian Communist Party has been a consistent supporter of the native Nazis and has worked closely with them in the past.

The move is part of the Brazilian Communist Party's strategy to expand its influence in the Latin American region. The party has been active in the region for many years and has a strong presence in several countries.

The Brazilian Communist Party has been a consistent advocate of cooperation with the native Nazis, who are known for their anti-imperialist stance and their support for the struggle against imperialism.

The move has been welcomed by many of the Brazilian Communist Party's supporters, who see it as a necessary step in the party's efforts to expand its influence in the region.

The Brazilian Communist Party has been active in the region for many years and has a strong presence in several countries.

The move has been welcomed by many of the party's supporters, who see it as a necessary step in the party's efforts to expand its influence in the region.

The move has been welcomed by many of the party's supporters, who see it as a necessary step in the party's efforts to expand its influence in the region.

The move has been welcomed by many of the party's supporters, who see it as a necessary step in the party's efforts to expand its influence in the region.
SPARKS in the NEWS

Fast Work
At 11:15 on July 11, the Associated Management Co. was the largest of the major companies to have announced a new contract. The company said it had negotiated a 14.2% increase in wages for all workers, bringing the new wages to $2.40 an hour. The union, which represents about 14,000 workers, said the deal was reached after 12 weeks of discussions.

Bad Taste
The Metropolitan Opera, in an attempt to avoid the prob- lems that have plagued the company, has canceled the rest of its season. The move comes after the death of its leading tenor, Richard Bernstein, last week.

News Fit to Print
"The Atlantic Pacific is a straight line, running from the eastern seaboard to the west coast," said the company. "It is the longest route in the world and it has been in operation for 100 years."

It Takes Genius
"To win a game of chess, it takes a genius," said the company. "There is nothing else that can be said for it."

Bureaucracy
"We have a new policy," said the company. "We are now going to reward our employees for their hard work."

Recruiting Slaves
"This program is designed to attract young people who are interested in a career in public service," said the company. "We believe that this will help us to build a strong workforce."