WANTED! UNFORCED INCREASES IN WAGES

Builders Give Lead

A.E.U. and the Left

W IAT game is the Executive Council of the A.E.U. playing? At Margate last year its delegation proposed Mr. H.D. Adams's plan for engineering. This was bitterly opposed by the Right Wing trade union leaders and their pet politicians in the Labour Party. The main support which the Union received came from trade unions and members of the Party who have been classified under Right Wing terminology as "Bevistas" and this is as it should be because the plan represented an important step forward for the movement.

Now aolge the nominations for the post of treasurer of the Labour Party were made by the members who defeated the A.E.U.-proposed plan for engineering rally round and present Mr. Gaskell. The Left adopt Mr. Bevan as their candidate.

You would imagine that the F.C. of the A.E.U. would support a candidate representing the people who support union policy—but they do nothing of the sort. On the contrary, they support Mr. Gaskell. Does this make sense?

Of course it doesn't, but it is understandable. A major problem facing the Left at the present time is the holding of important positions by individuals who do not represent the opinions of the rank and file. If the F.C. of the A.E.U. were to consult its membership right now, we are absolutely certain they would be forced to reconsider their position on Mr. Bevan.

However, we must face the facts. The decision has dealt a serious blow to all who fight for a socialist policy in the Labour movement and the unions. For Left's the lesson is painful.

We cannot institute decisive changes in the leadership of the Labour Party until we succeed in building up a solid foundation for such a change inside the trade unions. It is not enough to concentrate on the C.P. by itself. The battle has only just begun.

We must now concentrate on work in trade unions to bring about changes in personnel and policy commensurate with what is going on in the Labour movement. The task is absolutely no time to be lost in implementing this policy. That is the lesson from the A.E.U.

Civil Defence

C ONGRATULATIONS to Coventry City Council for reaffirming its decision to disband its Civil Defence committee and to send no more delegates to Civil Defence conferences. Other Labour Councils would assist the fight against war by taking similar action.

Rights of Asylum

T HE rights of political asylum are being discussed in Britain and in Mexico. In Britain the Tory government refuses to grant asylum to the former Chilean President, Dr. Cort, threatened with persecution if he returns to his own country. Contrast that with the stand of the Mexican government who have granted asylum to that Guatemalan workers who have fled from the Armas terror. The Mexican government has resisted all pressure to hand over those who have sought refuge in their embassy. These refugees, like Dr. Cort, are being accused of civil crimes.

The basic principle on which Mexico will stand is that the "New York Times" Mexican correspondent on July 7, "is the receiving country alone has the right to determine who should be given asylum. The Mexican government stands by the principles of political asylum; the Tory government tanscends these principles and acts as a tool of McCarthyism. In last Sunday's "Guardian" two letters attacked the decision of the British government. These letters were evidence of a widespread alarm far beyond Labor's ranks. All the more reason why the British Labour movement should bend every effort to prevent the expulsion of Dr. Cort.

When is the N.E.C. and the T.U.C. General Council going to speak out boldly on this case?

Editorial

Reminder to Denis Healey

T HE T.U.C. must call a conference of all trade unionists to consider the question of wages. That was the viewpoint of Mr. Harry Weaver when he opened the conference of the Amalgamated Union of Building Trade Workers. He warned that the TUC, as a trade union action, was a national campaign for higher wages.

There is an obvious urgent need for such a campaign. To serve as the examples of socialists, those who want socialists, are the working people's living standards.

The majority of working class unions of dwellings owned by private landlords are due to rise when the Rent and Remissions Bill comes into operation at the end of the quarter. The council of local authorities and the local government unions are fully aware of this, but they are powerless in the face of the Tories. The Tory government substitutes restrictions by the means of regulations and prices rise in the food monopolies take over.

There is a very serious situation for the workers and there is little chance of the government being able to meet it.

Prize Counsellor, Arthur Proctor, a member of the Amalgamated Union of Building Trade Workers, said that the TUC was a critical time for workers to come together to discuss wages.

Mr. Healey has been a long-time member of the TUC and the Labour Party Conference in general. This is what he said:

"I think it is most important that the TUC make a definite stand on this matter, which is directly related to the living standards of the working class who rely on the T.U.C. for support.

The Labour Party must be extremely careful in its handling of this issue, both in the TUC and in the Labour Party Conference. We must make it clear that the course of events will lead to further restrictions on wages.

The government is determined to take action to restrict wages, and we must be prepared to fight against this.

The workers and the people who depend on the TUC must be made aware of the dangers facing them, and the TUC must take a leading role in the fight against this policy."

The TUC must stand firm on this issue, and the government must be prepared to face the consequences if they refuse to back down. The workers are counting on the TUC to be their voice and to fight for their rights.

How Labour Can Help German Workers

O PPOSITION to German workers’ demands is growing among the trade unions in Britain. Three quarters of whom are affiliate members of the Labour Party, have given their answer to the N.E.C. and the Right Wing “majority” all two of the previous statements of the Parliamentary Party.

Already the A.E.U., A.E.S.D., and A.S.W. All the unions in Britain have rejected the Right Wing proposals. They have expressed their solidarity with the German workers. Last week the A.E.U. conference gave the workers a strong voice in the leadership of the party.

LONDON CONFERENCE

On Saturday, July 17, Labour Party and TUC conference will discuss this question. All the workers will be represented. The union permits a vote, delegates will be able to make their rights known. The British government is determined to restrict wages, and the workers must be prepared to fight against this.

The situation is critical and the workers must take action. The workers must be supported by the TUC and the Labour Party must stand firm. The workers have the right to demand a living wage, and the TUC must support them.

Workers are entitled to a living wage. They have nothing in common with the Right Wing in the British government. The workers are absolutely right in demanding the dismissal and removal from the government of Nazi officials. The workers must be supported in their struggle for their rights.

 Exactly because a unified, determined front of British workers is needed in the coming Socialists’ Council of Europe to give the workers of the world a chance to fight for their rights.

The reality of the situation is that the German and British workers must fight together. The workers of both countries must unite to fight for their rights.

TERROR UNLEASHED

TWO thousand people were arrested within a week of the outbreak of civil war in Guatemala. A major and two colonies from the military junta which now rules the country has come to the rescue of the people. There are reports of concentration camps. The government has said that 200 people have been arrested so far.

A July 4 report announced that a hundred people were killed in a prison yard. This was a clear indication of the situation. The prisoners revolted in the prison yard hung with prisoners. The uprising was led by the prisoners’ defense group.

The rebellion was met by the army, which killed at least 20 people. The soldiers fired on the prisoners, who were protesting against the repression. The rebellion was put down with great violence.

A July 7 report said that 1,000 people had been killed. The government said that 200 people had been killed. The Army claimed that it was acting in self-defense.

The army is said to have used tanks and planes to crush the rebellion. The government said that it was acting in self-defense.

United Nations Organisation
A Story of Deception

By C. Van Gelderen

Field Marshal Smuts, at that time Prime Minister of South Africa. South Africa, a fundamental human right in the United Nations Organisation, to the equal rights of all nations large and small...

WORDS... AND DEEDS!

The equal rights of men and women were enshrined in the head of a government which was called the Head of State. A nation which has been admired none of the rights of men and women except the right to sell their labour power to the white man's race... The equal rights of nation large and small! To this day the United Nations Organisation is recognized as being founded on this principle. Chiang Kai Shek, who has been personally responsible for the Chinese people and being sustained in the struggle for the strength of the U.S.A. and how the people of the peoples of the world... are determined to resist these alien forces.

KOREA AND GUATEMALA

When the “people’s power” became a reality, the American-dominated United Nations Organisation was put to the test. The North Koreans were branded as the “aggressors” and a brutal war was unleashed against them.

MOCKERY OF WORDS

The example of the United Nations Organisation is not only pitiful—clear proof of the lack of meaning of the so-called “expansion of the U.S. imperialism.” That would be in accordance with the facts.

The Charter is deviated to “Non-self-governing” territories, “Territories,” and “Provisional” in the old days these just used to be called colonies. This section is full of screen, screen and State power for administering the interests that are the ideas of the ides of the so-called “self-government”... to ensure their policies... to develop the social and economic well-being of the peoples.

MOROCKY OF WORDS

The right to development must be extended to the peoples of the Bumangaro and of Bugog, of the Greek Hellenic Rights Committee.

Their Freedom Was Forbidden

Thanks for the copies of the “Socialist Outlook” which you sent us. It has given us much space in your current issue. It is the only newspaper to which we have been able to subscribe. The book review on “One Day, Towards Freedom” was excellent. I hear that the book is in good health. There is a great lack in this field in the countries of the Commonwealth. The book is an excellent example of the policy of the government of the Greek governments.

Despite our protests and those of our friends abroad, the Greek governments have refused to allow us to continue our struggle. We are determined to continue as an international, anti-imperialist, and unharrassed group.

The daily food allowance is insufficient and for the sake of some changeable measures the prices reduces the value of the currency. We are feeding our people at a very high cost for food and the condition is most critical. Disease is spreading like wildfire. The state of our inhabitants is deplorable and from serious complaints is being recorded.

All our appeals to the government of the U.K. have been ignored. After all our efforts the government of the U.K. has refused to give us any help. The government of the U.S.A. has refused to give us any help. We are not receiving any help from any country.

This Article Finds Britain
A SUPER MERCHANT OF DEATH

By Bernard Dix

The past one section of the capitalist class has been particularly singled out for social attack by militant socialists—the section being targeted is the British merchant class, who have as their sole objective in life the manufacture of profit in order to make as much profit as possible for the shareholders. They are described as merchants of death.

The end of the last war has been the base of these men to increase their profits. They have been shoved abroad with a disdainful attitude by the normal international arms race which has been developing. This is obvious, it is obvious that they must be involved in the arms race.

HENDON AMENDMENT

In another section, the Hendon Borough Labour Party, at the May conference, to oppose "Challenge" to the National Executive Committee, would bring under public discussion the question of the arms industry. This amendment was carried over two million votes.

The stand here is that Great Britain as a member of NATO, under the gun-runner in chief for the West European alliance which is grouped on the N.E.C. point, is involved in the arms production. Considerable evidence is reported to a variety of countries, and the whole supplies of the Middle East to the Middle East to the Allied forces in the Middle East to the Allied forces in the Middle East.

Britain is rapidly becoming a super power in the arms race.

The total receipts for export and re-exports from the arms industry for the year 1964 is a total of 1,514 million.

WORKING CLASS SPEAKS OUT

By M. Shaw

Working class wives and mothers are nowadays subjected to a constant barrage of attack from the national press, the government, the right-wing think tanks, etc. This is the case of young men who are the social workers of this country, who are the social workers of this country, who are the social workers of this country.

The women of the back streets are the producers of all the greatest causes of injustice for the working class. In the midst of the war in which the children and mothers are being destroyed, the rightwing press and the right-wing think tanks are the channels by which the people are kept from knowing the needs of the working class.

MOTHERS

We are the women of the back streets, we are the women of the back streets, we are the women of the back streets.

Is there any justice for the working class? Is there any justice for the working class? Is there any justice for the working class?

Rents and Malnutrition

Before 1933, the conclusion, who was Medical Officer of Health for London, said that adequate food was at least as important as the maintenance of health. His conclusion was based on the fact that there was no marked improvement in the health of the people. The one thing that he said was that the people were malnourished and this was shown by the fact that the people were not getting enough food.

The reason for this was that the people were not getting enough food and this was shown by the fact that the people were not getting enough food.

Now rents are going up again. Nearly all Council tenants are paying higher rents as a result of the Government policy. When the new Rents Act is passed there will also be an increase in rents of private landlords.

Tackling together the increasing rent for the period-covered by the increased rents will inevitably mean that the working class family will have less money to live on.

Malnutrition will again work against the working class family to be malnourished to the full extent.

* Whose Party Is It?

The question raised by the labour party in their May 1965 resolution is this: who matters most to you, Mr. Kinnock, for an answer for many years?

This question is raised in the context of the question of the general election. Do we face the general election? The answer is yes.

Does Mr. Thompson really mean that, when he says his party is the party of the workers, what he means is the party of the people?

Cabinet Secrets

It is announced that there is a file of confidential Cabinet documents relating to the Labour party's policy on nationalisation in 1977 (Lloyd George's coalition government) which may be disclosed —in 1967.

This could make very interesting reading for those who are interested in the history of the Labour party and its relationship with other parties. It does not only include a vital period of the Labour party, but also includes a vital period of the Labour party, but also includes a vital period of the Labour party.
