NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION
Wednesday 26 May
FIGHT FOR THE RIGHT TO WORK!
NO DEAL WITH HEALEY!
NO TO THE CUTS!
The National Right to Work Campaign calls on all its supporters to fight for maximum support for the day of action in every town and city by employed and unemployed. Move resolutions through trade union bodies calling for support. Organise maximum publicity.
SUPPORT ALL LOCAL ACTIONS
In London, support the demonstration called by the London Confederacy and the London
Co-op Political Committee, Assembly Tower Hill, 1pm, to march and lobby parliament.
ALL OUT 26 MAY!

BLACKMAIL!
And they call it 'a run
on the £'!

BLACKMAIL
That is what is being used to force us to accept the deal drawn up between the TUC and Healey.
Look what happened on Monday when the president of the South Wales miners, fancy
Williams, voiced opposition to the deal.
Immediately, there was frantic activity on the international money markets.
Within two hours, the pound had fallen in value
by a full cent.
Availabilities have been triggered off by load sellers.

Quiet
The piece would have us believe that runs on the pound are somehow similar, that they are caused by confidence speeches.
They are, the conclusion that unless we keep distances there will be a decline.
But the decline in the value of the pound is not a natural event.

Those who buy and sell pounds, those who run the exchange markets, are not natural forces, but people—wealthy people who have accumulated enormous economic power.

NO DEAL WITH HEALEY

Wages
But still those with wealth are not happy. So we are to have yet another controls on wages.
The government and the press is selling the deal with Healey and protecting the pound.
When they really mean it.
Keep the workers, the bankers, the speculators, and the industrialists happy.

In the last two years this has meant the abandonment
by Labour of all the promises it made when in opposition.
Social services are cut,
not expanded. The debt expands. We are worse than at any time since the Thirties.
The pensioners are
worse off in real terms than they were two years ago.
Factoring eating business has been cut to nil.

Labour politicians.
They have always agreed that the only way to improve things is by working for change within the confines of the capitalist system.

Now they are drawing
the logical conclusions
and pinpointing the blackmailers, even if that makes things worse for workers.

The TUC leaders have failed once again

The workers, the employees to improve the living standards of their members.

Cuts
Instead, they are telling the workers to accept cuts in living standards so that the employers can have more 'confidence' in the economy.

If rank and file workers
don't fight such capitulation,
the next year will be grim.
Unemployment will remain above a million.
Food prices will continue to soar.

Social services will be slashed. All workers will be worse off.

FIGHT FOR THE RIGHT TO WORK!
ALL OUT 26 MAY!

Only the blackmailers will benefit. And, in a year's time, with their power over the economy
reduced further, they will come back and threaten even greater chaos
unless we give in to them
even more.
Scandal of the killer in a hospital laundry

BY TONY SHARP

A PICTURE of the giant Liverpool Teaching Hospital site last week put a stop to an appalling instance of asbestos exposure.

Alan McInnes, chairman of the General and Municipal Workers' Federation's local branch, described the incident at the site last Monday as "beyond belief." He said that asbestos lagging in the boilerhouse was beginning to crumble.

This phenomenon had been going on for weeks, he said, being carried out for damages by a firm of solicitors called J and N. The job was taken by the site's contractor, a firm of builders, who was carrying it out for damages.

When approached the workmen asked if they knew that asbestos was being worked with, and they said they did not. They were not suffering as they should know that asbestos was being worked with, and they said they did not. They were not suffering as they should know that asbestos was being worked with, and they said they did not. They were not suffering as they should know that asbestos was being worked with, and they said they did not. They were not suffering as they should know that asbestos was being worked with, and they said they did not.

The │VOTE

This was a response in (i) the damage was achieved, anyone who worked on the site was liable to bring the company the pirates. The company has already been informed of the damage and is being asked to pay for the damages.

The company's solicitors have been informed and the appropriate legal action will be taken.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.

Wage cut? Leave it to me, says Murray

RIGH'T WORK and a number of migrants' groups were put down by the police and the public.

The march was organised by the National Union of Public Employees and the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.

Wage cut? Leave it to me, says Murray

RIGH'T WORK and a number of migrants' groups were put down by the police and the public.

The march was organised by the National Union of Public Employees and the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.

Wage cut? Leave it to me, says Murray

RIGH'T WORK and a number of migrants' groups were put down by the police and the public.

The march was organised by the National Union of Public Employees and the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.

Wage cut? Leave it to me, says Murray

RIGH'T WORK and a number of migrants' groups were put down by the police and the public.

The march was organised by the National Union of Public Employees and the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.

Wage cut? Leave it to me, says Murray

RIGH'T WORK and a number of migrants' groups were put down by the police and the public.

The march was organised by the National Union of Public Employees and the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.

Wage cut? Leave it to me, says Murray

RIGH'T WORK and a number of migrants' groups were put down by the police and the public.

The march was organised by the National Union of Public Employees and the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

The march was supported by the national union and by the Greater Manchester Council.

Reports

There were Socialist Workers' rushes of 100 in Manchester and 300 in London.

We have had reports of all the structural demonstrations. Unfortunately, there is not space to include them all.

This is a report of the march in Easton--written by Karen Nebra and Arthur Robinson (CGT).

EVENING RIGHT WORK COMMITTEE met for the first time in the old nationalized council.

We were the only group to do so.

On the march in London, the Rank and File supporters were out in force in support of the National Union of Public Employees.
Healey says his deal will bring down living standards by one or two per cent.
But if prices rise at even half the rate of pay, the workers' living standards will fall by June 1977, by another five per cent.

Healey says his deal will help the low-paid.
But a detailed breakdown by the Sunday Times shows that the deal means more money the way you are. One figure is, if you earn £50 a week, the deal gives you £2 more. If you earn £200 a week, you get £8 a week more—up even more than last year's limit.

Healey says his deal is necessary to bring down unemployment.
But all the forecasts agree that unemployment will still be more than a million, and perhaps even one and a half million, by the end of the year.

The WHOLE deal is based on lies. It must be smashed.

But who is going to smash it? Not the so-called left trade union leaders, Scanlon, Jones and Co aren't just supporting the deal. They're the instruments of it.

Many trade unionists who read Socialist Worker have campaigned for men like Jones and Scanlon. They watch their heroes break voting through Congress the most savage wage restraint and cuts for 40 years.

What's the point of bothering these people if the men you fight for sell you down the river? The point is to build a movement that is not dependent upon the whips of such people.

Read some of the reports in this paper, the reports on the industrial campaigns, the reports on the industrial struggles on pages 14 and 15. You will see that there is a growing minority of workers who are fighting back.

But they are isolated.

Among white-collar workers, especially, the public sector, union conferences are likely to vote against the cuts and the freeze.

But, again, isolation has its effects. The workers involved do not feel confident enough and powerful enough to take on the government by themselves.

If they organise and work together with other trade unionists, they can win.

We say that the only way to smash the freeze, the only way to restore the cuts and the workers' standard of living, is to build a rank and file movement.

What does that mean? This summer, there will almost certainly be another ballot among workers on the new wage limit.

Left to themselves and the newspapers, the miners might be persuaded, yet again, that a strike against the freeze is selfish.

Then, how can we be persuaded? By other workers going to the pits and calling for a new action.

By hospital workers and dustmen and farm workers saying to their bosses: A strike against the freeze is a strike for our lives.

But this won't just happen. It needs organisation. Workers understand what is happening must come together on a regular basis and organise against the freeze and the cuts.

Now is the time to draw the lessons of the collapse of the union leaders.

Join your local fight to Work committees, join your local cuts committees.

Above all, ensure that you are part of a rank and file organisation, with a rank and file paper, calling for support in your industry and your union.

And begin the campaign to convince other workers of the need for a fight back.

Argue with your union branch, your shop stewards committee, your trade union branch, for support for the National Day of Action on 26 May.
‘Left’ trade union leaders stand shoulder to shoulder with the Orangemen

EAMONN McCANN
REPORTS FROM NORTHERN IRELAND

THE two best-known ‘Left’ trade union leaders in Northern Ireland stood shoulder to shoulder with ultra-right wing Orange leaders at mass rallies in Belfast and Antrim last Tuesday.

The demonstrations, called by the Confederation of Shipbuilding and Engineering Unions, linked a campaign against redundancies to demands for greater repression.

In East Belfast, the chairman of the Confederation, Andy Minuty, and the General Secretary of the Ulster Council of Trade Unions, MP James Kilfedder and the Liberal Democrat candidate William Craig, while James Graham shared a platform with Ian Paisley, the protest leader for the anti-persn, were “on the same page”.

Known Opinion: The meeting of a campaign to stop the slay, and build on the swelling, reinforces a genuine fear of an escalating situation. There is no sign of the Orange rioters, the Orange leaders, in the streets. At least for now. However, the Orange leaders in Antrim were more strongly anti-Orange. The Antrim rally was attended by the Orange Order. The Orange leaders in Belfast and Antrim are both strongly anti-Orange. The Orange leaders in Belfast and Antrim are both strongly anti-Orange. The Orange leaders in Belfast and Antrim are both strongly anti-Orange.

In West Belfast, the chairman of the Confederation, Andy Minuty, and the General Secretary of the Ulster Council of Trade Unions, MP James Kilfedder and the Liberal Democrat candidate William Craig, while James Graham shared a platform with Ian Paisley, the protest leader for the anti-persn, were “on the same page”.

Known Opinion: The meeting of a campaign to stop the slay, and build on the swelling, reinforces a genuine fear of an escalating situation. There is no sign of the Orange rioters, the Orange leaders, in the streets. At least for now. However, the Orange leaders in Antrim were more strongly anti-Orange. The Antrim rally was attended by the Orange Order. The Orange leaders in Belfast and Antrim are both strongly anti-Orange.

In West Belfast, the chairman of the Confederation, Andy Minuty, and the General Secretary of the Ulster Council of Trade Unions, MP James Kilfedder and the Liberal Democrat candidate William Craig, while James Graham shared a platform with Ian Paisley, the protest leader for the anti-persn, were “on the same page”.

Known Opinion: The meeting of a campaign to stop the slay, and build on the swelling, reinforces a genuine fear of an escalating situation. There is no sign of the Orange rioters, the Orange leaders, in the streets. At least for now. However, the Orange leaders in Antrim were more strongly anti-Orange. The Antrim rally was attended by the Orange Order. The Orange leaders in Belfast and Antrim are both strongly anti-Orange.

Call for more forceful security policies

Ultra

Even an argument for such a campaign, coming from officials as well-placed as Bert and Graham, would alter the climate of the debate. The question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter. However, the question of the role of the security forces in the defence of the peace is a serious matter.
Inquiry to hear 43 witnesses of attack

THIS unprecedented inquest into the attack on the Special Branch threatens to bring the whole trade union movement to a standstill.

The inquiry was set up by the Transport and General Workers' Union, the largest trade union in the country. The union has announced that the inquiry will be held in London next month.

The inquiry is being held to investigate the circumstances surrounding the attack on the Special Branch on 26 May.

TWO WEEKS AFTER the end of the Right to Work March, I was arrested for refusing to leave my home.

I was taken to the police station where I was held for 48 hours, during which time I was refused access to a lawyer.

I was then charged with refusing to leave my home, and I was given bail to appear at court.

I was given bail, and I appeared in court on 26 May, where I was found guilty and sentenced to six months in prison.

I have now spent two months in prison, and I am still being held.

I have been in prison for two months, and I am still being held.

I have been in prison for two months, and I am still being held.

I have been in prison for two months, and I am still being held.

I have been in prison for two months, and I am still being held.
The great conspiracy

WHAT IS your profession?” asked the judge when Blanqui came to the bar.

“Professor.” That is not a profession.

“Not a profession!” Blanqui replied. “It is the profession of M. Gallieni and M. Gobineau who live by working and are deprived of all political rights.”

This was in 1891, Blanqui got 12 months for sedition.

It is fashionable to sneer at Blanqui, to stress his weaknesses and to dismiss the contribution that he made to the development of our movement.

Yet, before Marx, he understood the central fact about society—that every society, economic, social and political, is in the struggle between social classes.

Slogan

Blanqui understood, as before Marx, the necessity for the dictatorship of the proletariat—indeed he invented the slogan.

There is a war between the rich and the poor, he said. ‘The rich have made it so; for they are the aggressors. They do not like the poor to resist. They do not like the revolutionary people—speaking of the people, this is a great breach with disfranchised itself when attacked.

Blanqui was a disciple of Bakunin through Bonnot.

He never wavered in the whole of his life. His motto was ‘commitment to two propositions, that society’s destiny is in the hands of the rich against the poor and that this commitment is to be transformed by revolution, and overcome by a revolution, a violent overthrow of the rich man’s property.

Not content to be a mere antithesis, Blanqui became a professional revolutionary.

Directed

He took part in, and largely directed, a number of the revolutionary organisations in the Province of Orléans (1830), the Society of the Friends of Man (1833), the Society of the Friends of the Poor (1837), and so on.

These were secret societies, devoted to preparing the insurrection.

In 1839, the Society of the Friends made a serious attempt at an armed rising.

For a short time, in May 1839, the Blanquists actually attained control of central Paris—but they were soon crushed.

Blanqui was sentenced to death together with others, a sentence eventually commuted to life imprisonment.

Death

He spent most of his life in and out of prison, collecting another death sentence by his own acts—commuted after the defeat of the Commune in 1871.

He was a man of his principles and the people of workers, a man of small small and organised minority, who strikes at the root of monopoly and can carry with it the mass of exploitation and thus consummate the revolution.

Off-shoot

The Society of the Friends, a German organisation, offshoot the League of the Just, which comprised the Communist League in 1847.

That same year it gained two important leaders, Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels.

Their criticism of the socialist tradition, as well as that of the Communists, was the foundation of scientific socialism.

Wrong

In this, and other matters, he was wrong.

But he kept alive the revolutionary tradition of Bakunin and of the (1830 and 1837) when the International was rampant.

The Employment Services Agency

SOCIALIST WORKER

Billingsgate

1 socialworker

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Socialist Worker

EDITORIAL

Correspondence

Correspondence, London, E8, 02

FRANCE: 146, Avenue des Champs Elysees, Paris, France.

01-739 6361

479 0943

01-739 6361

01-739 0943

Circulation department: 16, Station Road, Enfield, Middlesex

Subscriptions: £2 per annum, 10/- per quarter.

Advertisements: 1st class, rate per word, 2d; 2nd class, rate per word, 1d. 201-739 0943

Newspapers, Magazines and Books, etc., can be had at newsagents, booksellers, and in most newsagents, booksellers, and in most newsagents, and at

 Practitioner: A

PRIVACY STATE: A fresh young stenographer at the Tribune, 3 April. Michael Foot has not come to the righthand side of the Tribune, he has not paid the £13 bill. The International Herald Tribune reported on 18 April.

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE: The Tribune has recently been presented with a fresh young stenographer at the Tribune, 3 April. Michael Foot has not come to the righthand side of the Tribune, he has not paid the £13 bill. The International Herald Tribune reported on 18 April.

PRIVATE PRAM: A fresh young stenographer at the Tribune, 3 April. Michael Foot has not come to the righthand side of the Tribune, he has not paid the £13 bill. The International Herald Tribune reported on 18 April.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.

Internationalism

88 Notes on the month in the budget, Italy and China.
As Geisel visits Britain, a glimpse at a regime he holds dear

Our ordeal, by the Whitecrosses

IT WAS 7 am, an unlikely time for the president of the State Department, making a special delivery. And again and again he pressed the bell of the Whitecrosses building in New York City. Richard and Claire Whitecross were not there, their aides were not there. He stood watching the door, as if waiting for something to happen.

Guns

Included in the special delivery of the 7 am was a gift of a gold watch. Yes, a real watch, not a fake one. It was a gift from the president, to say thank you for all the Whitecrosses had done for the country.

Jail

Claire Whitecross: We were arrested. We had been trying to help the people, but we couldn't find any way to do it. We were put in jail, and we were not allowed to leave.

Rotting

On the streets of New York City, a smell of death filled the air. People were dying, and no one knew how to stop it. The Whitecrosses were doing all they could, but it was not enough.

Song

Then, after weeks of searches, the Whitecrosses were found. The president was there, and he said, "We will find a way to stop this. We will find a cure for this disease." And they did.

Tony Cliff: LENIN

Volume 2

All Power to the Soviets

The second volume of Tony Cliff's LENIN, to be published in June, describes the first years of the Russian Revolution, October 1917, and the establishment of the Soviet Union. It covers the period from the Russian Revolution to the end of the First World War.

Back from Portugal

The offices of several leading members of a small Gyanan revolutionary group, the Working People's Alliance, have been raided by the police. The police, according to sources, were looking for evidence of illegal activities.

The Third Rank and Life Organizing Committee delegation to Portugal has returned. The 12 trade unions spent two days visiting workers' organizations in Portugal. The delegation visited factories in Lisbon and Oporto.

Back from Portugal

The delegation visited factories in Lisbon and Oporto, and they were impressed by the workers' determination to fight for their rights.

Socialists RAIDED

PARD: 16 immigrant workers were deported to Portugal and South African foreign fields. The police broke into their lodgings at dawn. An hour later they were at the airport and being flown out of the country.

Crime

The crime was to be elected as delegates for a workers' committee. The police broke into their lodgings at dawn, and they were taken to the airport and flown out of the country.

Immigrants deported

PARIS: 16 immigrant workers were deported to Portugal and South African foreign fields. The police broke into their lodgings at dawn. An hour later they were at the airport and being flown out of the country.

PRELIMINARY OFFER

Until 31 May, Volume 2 for £2.50 (posted price £2.95). Volumes 1 and 2 for £6.75 (posted price £7.19). All prices include postage and packing.

PLUTO PRESS

Stocks will be sent out early July.
When the Greater London Council finished these flats, they called them Paradise. For us who had to live with them, they’ve been hell.

These are some of the most modern flats in the country, but everything is badly designed and badly built, and it costs too much.

The windows are just sit around. We are so cold. And we’ve some hailers.

Our Tenants’ Association was started last winter. Ray Moden白云-they were just five of them at the beginning. They went inside knocking on the doors, getting people to join. Now twenty all the tenants are in the association.

The first fight was over the electricity bills. At one point the council accepted these bills because the tenants signed the papers and it was the cost of the central heating was included in the rent, and they thought they could afford it.

BILLS

They got the shock of their lives when they found the electricity bills were fantastic—something up to £22 a week.

So we went round to find our Eskimo let us say the heating was included. We found 7m in one month.

The GLC said it was just a clerical error. Then we discovered that after a few months of the electric bills had been cut by the GLC. We found out the GLC had a problem with the metering.

We eventually found one solution who was willing to fight for us, and two weeks later the GLC decided to write off the bills and pay us back to January of this year.

So the few people who did come out we said to stand in the courts and so they could be seen. When the rest of the people said they weren’t sure and asked who else was going, we just pointed—what happened here?

Eventually about 30 of us marched over to the hall. We said the GLC was a terrible association in action, what’s your job? What is the GLC? What is the GLC? They said as far as they were concerned, the Halls Act, which they should fight, the Housing Act, which they could quote at the GLC.

LOCAL

Lots of flats had huge holes in the walls, dunny in the hall, no cold water, no hot water, no gas or electricity. After the meeting, the newly-elected secretary, Tony, called the local paper and the GLC refused to comment. Work started quickly.

Our next battle is for more than just a council house. The high cost of running the GLC, the lack of services and the bad maintenance only means we shouldn’t have to pay so much. We’ve got a public service running right to the GLC for a lot less.

We’re also organizing support for the East London Tenants Committee. Last week on 15 May, and the 26 May, we were at the GLC for the right to be heard, to be heard by the Housing Group of the GLC. Housing tenants are aware these dates, it was done nevertheless. Nearly everyone there was a union member. The Housing Group is sending a letter to the GLC office about these dates, it was done nevertheless. Nearly everyone there was a union member. The Housing Group is sending a letter to the GLC office about these dates, it was done nevertheless. Nearly everyone there was a union member. The Housing Group is sending a letter to the GLC office about these dates...
Running for the profits of torture

PRESIDENT GEISEL, dictator of Brazil, was trained at Fort Leavenworth in the United States.

He was the chief conspirator in the army's overthrow of the Brazilian Labour government under Getulio in 1964. He was head of the Supreme Military Tribunal in 1967, and presided over the ending of all basic rights, political and trade union for Brazil's 109 million people.

But isn't there a parliamentary opposition in Brazil? Yes, you can belong to the opposition so long as you don't oppose the Government. Some 150 government and trade union leaders have been dismissed for disagreeing with the Government.

On 30 March this year, Getulio staged two more deputys for having dared to oppose the government.

What happens to all these opposition leaders? They get killed. Impoverished and uneducated, about 10 million people have been tortured in the three months of 1975 alone.

BRAZIL

PRESIDENT GEISEL, dictator of Brazil, was trained at Fort Leavenworth in the United States.

He was the chief conspirator in the army's overthrow of the Brazilian Labour government under Getulio in 1964. He was head of the Supreme Military Tribunal in 1967, and presided over the ending of all basic rights, political and trade union for Brazil's 109 million people.

But isn't there a parliamentary opposition in Brazil? Yes, you can belong to the opposition so long as you don't oppose the Government. Some 150 government and trade union leaders have been dismissed for disagreeing with the Government.

On 30 March this year, Getulio staged two more deputys for having dared to oppose the government.

What happens to all these opposition leaders? They get killed. Impoverished and uneducated, about 10 million people have been tortured in the three months of 1975 alone.

BRAZIL

PRESIDENT GEISEL, dictator of Brazil, was trained at Fort Leavenworth in the United States.

He was the chief conspirator in the army's overthrow of the Brazilian Labour government under Getulio in 1964. He was head of the Supreme Military Tribunal in 1967, and presided over the ending of all basic rights, political and trade union for Brazil's 109 million people.

But isn't there a parliamentary opposition in Brazil? Yes, you can belong to the opposition so long as you don't oppose the Government. Some 150 government and trade union leaders have been dismissed for disagreeing with the Government.

On 30 March this year, Getulio staged two more deputys for having dared to oppose the government.

What happens to all these opposition leaders? They get killed. Impoverished and uneducated, about 10 million people have been tortured in the three months of 1975 alone.
CAMPAIGN WITH THE Socialist Worker

LESS than a year ago, Bernie Stinson was a Communist Party candidate in a local election in Leeds. To secure these victories, the Right to Work Campaign and the International Socialists united. We are now seeking to bring the same kind of support to Socialists in local elections. The campaign is backed by the Socialist Worker and the International Socialists.

Practice

This was the first time that we used the enthusiasm of the membership of the campaign for local election candidates. The whole machine was mobilized for the campaign, including every member of the party.

Over a period of 12 months we saw the enthusiasm of the membership for the campaign. The whole machine was mobilized for the campaign, including every member of the party.

It was the best day of the campaign. We were able to use the enthusiasm of the membership for the campaign. The whole machine was mobilized for the campaign, including every member of the party.

STINSON CONVINCED BY SOCIALIST WORKER

Support

The Right to Work Campaign and the International Socialists united to secure victories in local elections. The campaign is backed by the Socialist Worker and the International Socialists.

How many Bernie Stinsons do you know?

Send in details of your street sales for this column.

CAMPAIGN WITH THE SOCIALIST WORKER WHERE WE STAND

INDEPENDENT WORKING CLASS ROAD

The workers create all the wealth under capitalism. A new society can only be constructed when they are collectively free of control by the rich and when they plan the production and distribution of wealth.

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

The structures of the present capitalist society cannot be changed by the working class. They must be overthrown and replaced by a socialist society and it is only through this that we can achieve our goal.

There is no parliamentary road

The workers cannot be overthrown. They must be overthrown and replaced by a socialist society and it is only through this that we can achieve our goal.

Do you lumber your SW organiser?

DO YOU LUMBER YOUR SOCIALIST WORKER ORGANISER?

Are you always the first to volunteer to deliver the SW paper? When the workers change their minds and refuse to deliver the SW, do you jump up and join them? When you are asked by the workers to deliver the SW, do you refuse? And when the workers ask you to deliver the SW again, do you comply? Do you always try to deliver the SW even if the workers say no or if you don't like it? And do you always try to deliver the SW even if the workers say no or if you don't like it?

Effort

Is it trying to get SW sales? Is it trying to get SW sales? Is it trying to get SW sales?

HELP US SELL WHERE YOU LIVE

SALARY and conditions of the May Day Societies in the UK and abroad will be over £30,000.

Cambridge, Massachusetts, have raised over £30,000 for this year. The Cambridge, Massachusetts, have raised over £30,000 for this year.

Wee Gourmand Feast is just 7 days away. Wee Gourmand Feast is just 7 days away. Wee Gourmand Feast is just 7 days away.

INTERNATIONAL SOCIALISTS

Many of those involved in social change are members of the International Socialists. Many of those involved in social change are members of the International Socialists. Many of those involved in social change are members of the International Socialists.

CAMPAIGN WITH THE SOCIALIST WORKER
The biggest criminal conspiracy in world history took place five years ago in the United States. It was too big to fail, and it broke the system of law and order that was supposed to protect the country.

The chief conspirators were Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman as two Washington Post reporters who blew the Watergate conspiracy.

FILMS

The Watergate scandal has been made into films many times. It's a classic. The two reporters, Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein, played a key role in exposing the story. The film is a must-see for anyone interested in journalism and democracy.

The film is directed by Alan Pakula, who directed The Parallax View, and the story is told through the eyes of the two reporters. It's a gripping tale of how three people took on a massive conspiracy.

THE SOZHENITSYN SHOW HITS THE ROAD

The film also explores the role of the Soviet Union in the Watergate affair. It's a complex story that unfolds over the course of the film. The audience is left to wonder if the truth will ever be known.

Prison

The film concludes with a look at the aftermath of the Watergate scandal. It's a somber reminder of the price of power and the importance of democracy.

PREVIEW

Every night this week, the Post has a special preview of the film The Post. It's a must-see for anyone interested in the Watergate scandal and its lasting impact on American politics.

THE SOLZHENITSYN SHOW

The film is a must-see for anyone interested in the Watergate scandal and its lasting impact on American politics. It's a complex story that unfolds over the course of the film. The audience is left to wonder if the truth will ever be known.

TAKE IT AS RED

The film concludes with a look at the aftermath of the Watergate scandal. It's a somber reminder of the price of power and the importance of democracy.
The new life...with asbestos

FOR THE LAST two years, we've fought on the battlefront of asbestos in Livingston New Town. It's been the new life for families coming out of the houses in Glasgow and groups living in Livingston New Town. We've been fighting for a public inquiry on 12 May about the asbestos scandal, which was exposed with the help of Edinburgh concrete, cement works, and national asbestos. Workers in both companies are now fighting to make sure the workers in Green's and the people of Livingston New Town are not at risk. More and more people are coming out to support our fight.

Hodler, the totalitarian's friend, said that on 10 April he offered his proposals.

On pay restraint: "If the Chamberlain can cut the tax on her pay then, why not the industrial?"

On the price code: "There have been mistakes in the pricing of the goods, and we feel that the profits are rising too fast."

"There is no war, there is only a difference in the tax on our goods."

"We are not really concerned with the profits of the company."

"In terms of the ordinary workingman's wage, the prices are rising faster than the wages."

On the strike: "We are not going to strike until we get a fair wage."

On the future: "We will continue to fight for fair wages and conditions, and we will not accept any threats from the Chamberlain."

Our struggle continues... and we will not be silenced!

The Nazional Party: A new political party is being formed in Livingston New Town. It's a new life for families coming out of the houses in Glasgow and groups living in Livingston New Town. We've been fighting for a public inquiry on 12 May about the asbestos scandal, which was exposed with the help of Edinburgh concrete, cement works, and national asbestos. Workers in both companies are now fighting to make sure the workers in Green's and the people of Livingston New Town are not at risk. More and more people are coming out to support our fight.

Hodler, the totalitarian's friend, said that on 10 April he offered his proposals.

On pay restraint: "If the Chamberlain can cut the tax on her pay then, why not the industrial?"

On the price code: "There have been mistakes in the pricing of the goods, and we feel that the profits are rising too fast."

"There is no war, there is only a difference in the tax on our goods."

"We are not really concerned with the profits of the company."

"In terms of the ordinary workingman's wage, the prices are rising faster than the wages."

On the strike: "We are not going to strike until we get a fair wage."

On the future: "We will continue to fight for fair wages and conditions, and we will not accept any threats from the Chamberlain."

Our struggle continues... and we will not be silenced!

WHO KILLED THEM? A letter from Long Kesh.

LATE ON 13 March, three British soldiers, members of the Royal Kent Regiment, were blown up on a lonely road in South Armagh. Within hours of their deaths, the local unit of the IRA had admitted responsibility. Taken in the context of the last ten years of war, what happened was not unusual. Unfortunately, it is only one more operation pointing at one of the IRA's main aims that has been carried out in its territory.

The political leader of the IRA, who is still not blind, says the letter that he has sent to the editor of the Sunday Times must be read as a letter.

"The war is going on, and the IRA is continuing its struggle. We will not stop until our aims are achieved."

In the meantime, the war continues... and we will not be silenced!

The Nazional Party: A new political party is being formed in Livingston New Town. It's a new life for families coming out of the houses in Glasgow and groups living in Livingston New Town. We've been fighting for a public inquiry on 12 May about the asbestos scandal, which was exposed with the help of Edinburgh concrete, cement works, and national asbestos. Workers in both companies are now fighting to make sure the workers in Green's and the people of Livingston New Town are not at risk. More and more people are coming out to support our fight.

Hodler, the totalitarian's friend, said that on 10 April he offered his proposals.

On pay restraint: "If the Chamberlain can cut the tax on her pay then, why not the industrial?"

On the price code: "There have been mistakes in the pricing of the goods, and we feel that the profits are rising too fast."

"There is no war, there is only a difference in the tax on our goods."

"We are not really concerned with the profits of the company."

"In terms of the ordinary workingman's wage, the prices are rising faster than the wages."

On the strike: "We are not going to strike until we get a fair wage."

On the future: "We will continue to fight for fair wages and conditions, and we will not accept any threats from the Chamberlain."

Our struggle continues... and we will not be silenced!

The Nazional Party: A new political party is being formed in Livingston New Town. It's a new life for families coming out of the houses in Glasgow and groups living in Livingston New Town. We've been fighting for a public inquiry on 12 May about the asbestos scandal, which was exposed with the help of Edinburgh concrete, cement works, and national asbestos. Workers in both companies are now fighting to make sure the workers in Green's and the people of Livingston New Town are not at risk. More and more people are coming out to support our fight.

Hodler, the totalitarian's friend, said that on 10 April he offered his proposals.

On pay restraint: "If the Chamberlain can cut the tax on her pay then, why not the industrial?"

On the price code: "There have been mistakes in the pricing of the goods, and we feel that the profits are rising too fast."

"There is no war, there is only a difference in the tax on our goods."

"We are not really concerned with the profits of the company."

"In terms of the ordinary workingman's wage, the prices are rising faster than the wages."

On the strike: "We are not going to strike until we get a fair wage."

On the future: "We will continue to fight for fair wages and conditions, and we will not accept any threats from the Chamberlain."

Our struggle continues... and we will not be silenced!

The Nazional Party: A new political party is being formed in Livingston New Town. It's a new life for families coming out of the houses in Glasgow and groups living in Livingston New Town. We've been fighting for a public inquiry on 12 May about the asbestos scandal, which was exposed with the help of Edinburgh concrete, cement works, and national asbestos. Workers in both companies are now fighting to make sure the workers in Green's and the people of Livingston New Town are not at risk. More and more people are coming out to support our fight.

Hodler, the totalitarian's friend, said that on 10 April he offered his proposals.

On pay restraint: "If the Chamberlain can cut the tax on her pay then, why not the industrial?"

On the price code: "There have been mistakes in the pricing of the goods, and we feel that the profits are rising too fast."

"There is no war, there is only a difference in the tax on our goods."

"We are not really concerned with the profits of the company."

"In terms of the ordinary workingman's wage, the prices are rising faster than the wages."

On the strike: "We are not going to strike until we get a fair wage."

On the future: "We will continue to fight for fair wages and conditions, and we will not accept any threats from the Chamberlain."

Our struggle continues... and we will not be silenced!
Wage rises don't cause inflation? SHHHH... says TASS

AT last month's Assembly on Unemployment, Ken Gill, general secretary of the white-collar section of the Engineers Union (AEW, TASS), drew a round of applause when he said 'We must resist the temptation to blame workers' wage rises for inflation.'

This is one of the issues on which the unions are most united, at least. But TASS's view is controversial, as the report on the Conference on the Control of Shop Stewards' Activity, printed in last week's conference section of TASS, shows. The report starts by saying that the conference was 'a bad joke' and that the union's position on the issue was 'not accepted.'

The conference was called by TASS to discuss the issue of shop stewards' activity, which has been a major source of dispute between the unions and the employers. The conference was dominated by a debate on the role of shop stewards in the workplace, with many members arguing that they should be given more powers and responsibilities.

The union's position is that shop stewards should be given more powers and responsibilities, but that this should be done in a way that does not undermine the union's role. The conference was also marked by a number of decisions that were not accepted by some members, such as the decision to allow shop stewards to take on certain managerial roles.

So why is APEX losing members?

DELEGATES to the office workers' union (APEX) conference in London last week might have taken some of the following figures from its annual report. APEX has lost over 10,000 members in the last year, with most of the losses coming from the engineering and construction industries.

The union has been trying to reverse this trend by launching a campaign to win back some of the lost members, but so far this has not been successful. APEX has also been involved in a number of disputes with employers, which has led to a decline in membership.

THE SHOP MANAGER

DEAR Union Rep,

Well, I'm writing to you from the conference, which ended last week. It was a great event for all those involved, and I'm sure everyone agrees that it was a great success.

I'm writing to you to ask for your help with something that's been bothering me. I've been thinking about the role of the union rep in the workplace, and I think it's important that we make sure that we're doing everything we can to support our members.

I've heard that some of our members are not happy with the way that the union rep is handling certain issues. I'm not sure what's going on, but I think it's important that we make sure that we're doing everything we can to support our members.

Can you help me with this? I think it's important that we make sure that we're doing everything we can to support our members.

Yours sincerely,

MARTIN LARKHAM
LEYLAND TURNS THE SCREW

BRITISH LEYLAND is really trying to put the ‘frighteners’ on its workers.

Managing director Derek Whittaker has warned 114,000 workers that unless the disruption of production stops, there will be ‘massive job losses’.

The threat follows the suspension of strikes at Leyland plants over the past few months, mostly caused by work stoppages, when the NUM has vary by up to 90% of its membership. The market for the rest of disputes is that there are 38 separate organizing units in Leyland’s 34 plants.

"No one is going to say that they are not in a difficult position," Mr Whittaker said. "But the question is, how do you stop the production?"

The situation is serious enough that a report by the unions, which has been referred to the government, has been submitted to the government.

"We have been in a difficult position," Mr Whittaker said. "But the question is, how do you stop the production?"

It is possible that the government will have to take action, he added, if the situation does not improve.

AEU leaders ‘motley crew’ - convener

JACK SHELDON is convener of the left-wing bloc at Leyland Tractors and Transmissions in Birmingham. He explained his policy to the delegates at the company's recent meeting.

"We are not going to let Leyland turn the screw on our workers. We are going to fight back against the threat of job losses," he said.

a For the past few weeks, the NUM has been organizing a series of pickets and meetings to prevent the company from implementing its plans.

Reading: 200 members of the Transport Workers' Union, including many West Indian and Asian workers, walked out on strike at Leyland. The union has called a meeting to discuss the company's plans.

"We are not going to let Leyland turn the screw on our workers," Mr Sheldon said. "We are going to fight back against the threat of job losses."

He added that the union had been organizing a series of pickets and meetings to prevent the company from implementing its plans.

CRANE DRIVERS CALL FOR TOTAL BLANKING

EAST LONDON Fifty crane drivers and drivers of other vehicles in Wood Street, Clerkenwell, have been on strike for four weeks over the non-payment of them in the company's pay rates for eight days when they were put on strike on the same day because it was a strike day. Whores have always been paid in this situation before.

The area manager of Richards and Walther, of which AECO is a subsidiary, has threatened to impose a work stoppage if the company does not agree to the union's demands.

But the company has refused to agree, and the dispute remains unresolved.

Donations and messages of support to Cliff Norris, 57 Carrow Road, London E11.

Kerr: Sit-in threatened

MERSEYIDE Transport Union members at John Kerr Transport, Kirkby, are on strike over the cutting of their work rates, which include British Cranes and Hayes.

"We are not going to let down our workers," Mr Kerr said. "We are going to stand up for our rights."

He added that the company had refused to agree to the union's demands, and the dispute remains unresolved.

School cleaners fight wage cut

SCOTLAND: School cleaners at 90 schools in the Bonnybridge and Armadale areas have been on strike for five days over the introduction of new work rates. The new rates would cut their wages by 20% per week. The cleaners have been on strike for five days, but they are likely to continue the protest as long as they feel it is necessary.

"We are not going to let down our workers," Mr Kerr said. "We are going to stand up for our rights."

He added that the company had refused to agree to the union's demands, and the dispute remains unresolved.

School cleaners fight wage cut

SCOTLAND: School cleaners at 90 schools in the Bonnybridge and Armadale areas have been on strike for five days over the introduction of new work rates. The new rates would cut their wages by 20% per week. The cleaners have been on strike for five days, but they are likely to continue the protest as long as they feel it is necessary.

"We are not going to let down our workers," Mr Kerr said. "We are going to stand up for our rights."

He added that the company had refused to agree to the union's demands, and the dispute remains unresolved.

School cleaners fight wage cut

SCOTLAND: School cleaners at 90 schools in the Bonnybridge and Armadale areas have been on strike for five days over the introduction of new work rates. The new rates would cut their wages by 20% per week. The cleaners have been on strike for five days, but they are likely to continue the protest as long as they feel it is necessary.
600 STRIKE OVER POLICE BUG IN HOSPITAL BAKERY

We're bugged!

EAST LANCASHIRE: Workers at Brockhill Hospital, near Blackburn, discovered a bugging device in the hospital bakery. 600 walked out in protest.

Some 500 workers at a hospital bakery walked out in protest at a police bug found in the factory. The bug was discovered by a worker in the kitchen, who said: "I was just cleaning the oven when I saw something moving. I followed it and found a little black box in the corner."

The bug was removed and the workers went on strike, demanding the closure of the bakery. The hospital management said they would investigate but the workers continued their strike, demanding the closure of the bakery.

Ciba-Geigy: 600 out over £60 fine

The major chemical company, Ciba-Geigy, announced today that it would not increase the pay of its workers by more than £60 a month. The company's management said that they had no alternative but to make this decision due to the current economic situation.

The workers had been demanding a pay increase of £100 a month, but the company refused to consider this. The workers decided to go on strike in protest, and the company announced its decision to refuse to increase pay.

GREENS AND SANDS: "We're bugged!

We're bugged!

The workers at the Vibram plant in the Vibram area walked out on strike, demanding the closure of the factory due to the bug found in the kitchen.

The bug was discovered by a worker in the kitchen, who said: "I was just cleaning the oven when I saw something moving. I followed it and found a little black box in the corner."

The bug was removed and the workers went on strike, demanding the closure of the factory. The factory management said they would investigate but the workers continued their strike, demanding the closure of the factory.

The workers had been working at the factory for many years, and they decided to go on strike in protest. The factory management said they would investigate but the workers continued their strike, demanding the closure of the factory.

GREENINGS 'attrition'

WARRINGTON: The strike against the victimisation of arthur Chemie is continuing, as it is now in its second week. After the two meetings, management have not yet made any move to resolve the issue. The strike committee is still meeting every night to discuss the situation.

The workers are demanding that Arthur Chemie be reinstated to his job, as he was unfairly dismissed.

FITTENBY: The strike is continuing and workers are still demanding the reinstatement of Arthur Chemie. The management have not yet made any move to resolve the issue.

The workers are demanding that Arthur Chemie be reinstated to his job, as he was unfairly dismissed.

Rose Tyres

MERCYSEIDE: Management at Rose Tyres have been offered a pay increase of £60 a month. The workers have decided to accept this offer and will continue to work.

The workers had been demanding a pay increase of £100 a month, but the company refused to consider this. The workers decided to accept the offer and continue to work.

FOOD FACTORY HALTED

WORKSHOP: 423 members of the Transport Workers Union walked out on strike at the Bovril factory in the Bovril area. The workers are demanding a pay increase of £60 a month.

On Monday last week the workers went on strike, and workers off the line are in their first step in their attempt to get the issues resolved.

They are also seeking early retirement and payment of their pension fund.

At one strike a day began. It ended last Friday with a decision to walk out and not until the six out past 9pm on their shift.

The workers are demanding a pay increase of £60 a month, and they are also seeking early retirement and payment of their pension fund.

CHIAS REIGN OF TERROR

SCOTLAND: A reign of terror is what management are trying to bring in at Ciba-Geigy's plant in Paisley. Dismissed, they said, are 60 General and Municipal Workers Union members who are striking against management decisions.

The plan would give the workers power to buy their own products, and it is being strongly resisted by management.

The workers have been working at the factory for many years, and they decided to go on strike in protest. The management have not yet made any move to resolve the issue.

Picket line—members—up are—re. The strike is solid and good.

MPP Messages of support to: Benno Hart, 5 Beresford Drive, Linslade, Glasgow.

Socialist Worker

Please send me more information about Socialist Worker and the International Socialists.

Name

Address

Trade Union

Send to: National Secretary, International Socialists, 8 Cotmans Gardens, London, E2.

01-603 8654.

Support!
SCANDAL OF BID TO OUST LABOUR MILITANT

TORTURE GETS THE ROYAL SEAL OF APPROVAL

"I was arrested on 6 August 1970 after the arrest of my husband. I was tortured together with him... despite the fact that I was four months pregnant. We were tortured together with electric shocks. Since they couldn't inflict many tortures on me, they used electric shocks and the pictures, put them on my body, and would apply them to my husband... while he was in front of me."

Maria do Socorro Viegas, in testimony to a Rome tribunal on torture in Brazil, 1974.

PRESIDENT Ernesto Geisel of Brazil and Mrs Geisel being welcomed on Tuesday at London's Victoria Station by an admirer. 'There's a awful lot of coffins in Brazil,' joked her Majesty, before hailing the brute off to Buckingham Palace for three days winning and dining with British businessmen.

Geisel wants more money to subsidise his terrorist regime. He'll get it from British businessmen. Torture, cheap labour, and a ban on all trade unions means more profits. That's why he's here. That's why British firms operate in Brazil. That's why Geisel gets a welcome from the Queen - and the Prime Minister. Callaghan, Junta's Man, the friend of the Chilean dictators.

Firms that profit from torture - p9

PICTURES FROM

SLAUGHTERHOUSE STABBING

A butcher in Brazil is at work. Not for the day. But for a lifetime of pain. For every cut, every strike, every blow, every stab, every tear, every scream.

For information and facts to campaign against Healey's package Socialist Worker is offering 10 issues for £1, first-class post.

NAME

ADDRESS

When completed post to Socialist Worker, Subscriptions, Circulation Department, 8 Cottons Gardens, London, E2 8DN

Subscribe!

FIRM TO SUE SIT-IN STRIKERS FOR £1000

TWO Engineering Union members are being sued by management after occupying their firm's offices.

The two were offered a company response at Felixstowe, West London, but refused to join the union or to resign to stop the dispute. After an unjustified strike they occupied the office for a few hours.

Management used haphazard builders to break in and throw them out.

Now the management has launched a private court action against them demanding £1000 for the loss of trade, and the company claims to have suffered as a result of the occupation.

The two are being charged with damaging company's property. The trade union is demanding the same amount.

The management are planning to sue the strikers for damages, even after the occupation stopped.

As part of the campaign to stop this prosecution, stop all company equipment should be blocked. So should their stores, offices, and financial interests. The campaign is supported by many local unions.

The company has been breaking many agreements with the union. The two strikers want to abide by their agreement to return to work.

Messages of support to: Margaret Toyn, 11 Willow Avenue, Lisburn, Scotland.