Our Second Conference

A Milestone in the Progress of the American Opposition

The delegation from all over the country who came together at the second National Convention of the Communist League of America will not only find a purpose for the work they have done, but will also be privileged to witness the fruits of their labors. The Convention has been characterized by the highest degree of unity and comradeship, and the program adopted has been a clear expression of the views of the American workers.

The Convention began with a discussion of the situation and the program of the Communist League of America. It was agreed that the League should continue its efforts to build a mass movement of the working class, and to educate the masses to understand the class struggle.

The Convention also adopted a resolution expressing its support for the struggle of the workers in France and Spain, and for the struggle of the workers in the United States.

The Convention concluded with a discussion of the program of the League for the next year. It was agreed that the League should continue its efforts to build a mass movement of the working class, and to educate the masses to understand the class struggle.

The Convention adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

Steel Wages Slashed Throughhold Land

At a very short notice, the New York City labor union of the I.L.O. has decided to cut steel wages by 25%. This is in addition to the cuts in wages that have been announced by the same union in earlier weeks. The union has decided to cut the wages of all steel workers in New York City by 25%.

Refused Admission

On September 15, I visited an exhibition of Communist League of America literature at the New York Public Library. I was turned away from the exhibition because I refused to sign a card.

R.S. Prepare Wage Cut

Our national convention, the first of its kind in the United States, was held in New York City on September 15th. The convention was attended by delegates from all over the country, and was called to order by a special convention of the Communist League of America.

The convention began with a discussion of the situation and the program of the Communist League of America. It was agreed that the League should continue its efforts to build a mass movement of the working class, and to educate the masses to understand the class struggle.

The convention also adopted a resolution expressing its support for the struggle of the workers in France and Spain, and for the struggle of the workers in the United States.

The convention concluded with a discussion of the program of the League for the next year. It was agreed that the League should continue its efforts to build a mass movement of the working class, and to educate the masses to understand the class struggle.

The convention adjourned at 10:00 p.m.
IN SPAIN

Progress of the Left Opposition

The Spanish Communist Opposition is being steadily strengthened. The Communist party of Spain has declared, under the pressure of the Stalinists, that it is impossible to stop the development of the struggle against Stalinism. The party has declared that the struggle against Stalinism is a question of life and death for the Spanish revolution, and that the struggle against Stalinism must be continued until victory is achieved.

In Germany and the Approaching Winter

In Germany, the situation is becoming increasingly serious. The workers are becoming more and more conscious of the need for a new government. The workers are demanding a government that will work for the benefit of the workers, and not for the benefit of the owners. The workers are demanding a government that will work for the benefit of the working class, and not for the benefit of the capitalist class.

In Spain, the situation is also becoming more serious. The workers are becoming more and more conscious of the need for a new government. The workers are demanding a government that will work for the benefit of the workers, and not for the benefit of the owners. The workers are demanding a government that will work for the benefit of the working class, and not for the benefit of the capitalist class.

THE FLOATING BARON

Almost every other day brings a new development in the life of the floating baron. The baron has been living in luxury, but now he is forced to live in poverty. The baron has been living in comfort, but now he is faced with the necessity of living in squalor. The baron has been living in privilege, but now he is faced with the necessity of living in privation.

In Greece

The Opposition and the Party

From August 13, the full Ten Tovolens in the Greek Opposition group, the Kariotis group, the Meriti group, and the Tsochos group have declared their opposition to the recognition of the Communist party of Greece. The Tsochos group has declared that the recognition of the Communist party of Greece is not justifiable and that it is not in the interests of the working class.

The Floating Baron

Almost every other day brings a new development in the life of the floating baron. The baron has been living in luxury, but now he is forced to live in poverty. The baron has been living in comfort, but now he is faced with the necessity of living in squalor. The baron has been living in privilege, but now he is faced with the necessity of living in privation.

In Greece

The Opposition and the Party

From August 13, the full Ten Tovolens in the Greek Opposition group, the Kariotis group, the Meriti group, and the Tsochos group have declared their opposition to the recognition of the Communist party of Greece. The Tsochos group has declared that the recognition of the Communist party of Greece is not justifiable and that it is not in the interests of the working class.

The Floating Baron

Almost every other day brings a new development in the life of the floating baron. The baron has been living in luxury, but now he is forced to live in poverty. The baron has been living in comfort, but now he is faced with the necessity of living in squalor. The baron has been living in privilege, but now he is faced with the necessity of living in privation.

In Greece

The Opposition and the Party

From August 13, the full Ten Tovolens in the Greek Opposition group, the Kariotis group, the Meriti group, and the Tsochos group have declared their opposition to the recognition of the Communist party of Greece. The Tsochos group has declared that the recognition of the Communist party of Greece is not justifiable and that it is not in the interests of the working class.
Labor's Perspective in the Struggle for a Respite

With ever sharper terms and jerkier American labor, the struggle of the workers is facing an upsurge. It is coming to the fore at a time when the workers have had to face the most oppressive of the bosses' class, the workers' bosses. The workers' bosses have been using their power to the fullest extent to try to maintain their power. The workers are carrying on a struggle to win back the power that they have lost, and they are carrying on a struggle to win back the power that they have lost.

The American labor movement is facing a battle of the bosses, and the bosses are facing a battle of the workers. The bosses have been trying to maintain their power, and the workers have been trying to win back their power. The bosses have been using all of their power, and the workers have been using all of their power. The workers are carrying on a struggle to win back their power, and the bosses are carrying on a struggle to maintain their power.

The American labor movement is facing a battle of the bosses, and the bosses are facing a battle of the workers. The bosses have been trying to maintain their power, and the workers have been trying to win back their power. The bosses have been using all of their power, and the workers have been using all of their power. The workers are carrying on a struggle to win back their power, and the bosses are carrying on a struggle to maintain their power.

The American labor movement is facing a battle of the bosses, and the bosses are facing a battle of the workers. The bosses have been trying to maintain their power, and the workers have been trying to win back their power. The bosses have been using all of their power, and the workers have been using all of their power. The workers are carrying on a struggle to win back their power, and the bosses are carrying on a struggle to maintain their power.
PAGE 4

The Militant

Against Nationalism

(Lessons of the Red Reference)

PAGE 5

The Militant

War Clouds in Manchuria

(Continued from Page 1)

The trend in the militarist clique of the Japanese is clearly to develop the armed conflict in Manchuria to the level of open war against China. The Japanese, while seeking to up-step the rate of war preparations, are also seeking a pretext to escalate the conflict into open war. (Continued from last issue)

The attack on Manchuria by Japan is a major development in the international situation. It marks the beginning of a new phase in the international revolutionary war. The Japanese attack on Manchuria is a further manifestation of the imperialism's drive for more markets, raw materials, and sources of labor.

The attack on Manchuria is a serious threat to the Chinese people. The Chinese people must not be content with the declarations of the Chinese government. They must mobilize the people to defend the national independence and the territorial integrity of China.

---

PAGE 6

The Militant

Lessons of the Red Reference

PAGE 7

The Militant

Lessons of the Red Reference

PAGE 8

The Militant

Against Nationalism

War Clouds in Manchuria

(Continued from Page 1)

The attack on Manchuria by Japan is a major development in the international situation. It marks the beginning of a new phase in the international revolutionary war. The Japanese attack on Manchuria is a further manifestation of the imperialism's drive for more markets, raw materials, and sources of labor.

The attack on Manchuria is a serious threat to the Chinese people. The Chinese people must not be content with the declarations of the Chinese government. They must mobilize the people to defend the national independence and the territorial integrity of China.

---

PAGE 9

The Militant

Against Nationalism

War Clouds in Manchuria

(Continued from Page 1)

The attack on Manchuria by Japan is a major development in the international situation. It marks the beginning of a new phase in the international revolutionary war. The Japanese attack on Manchuria is a further manifestation of the imperialism's drive for more markets, raw materials, and sources of labor.

The attack on Manchuria is a serious threat to the Chinese people. The Chinese people must not be content with the declarations of the Chinese government. They must mobilize the people to defend the national independence and the territorial integrity of China.

---

PAGE 10

The Militant

Against Nationalism

Lessons of the Red Reference

PAGE 11

The Militant

Against Nationalism

Lessons of the Red Reference

PAGE 12

The Militant

Against Nationalism

Lessons of the Red Reference