A Union Delegate on the Mooney Meets

In Sec. Two C.P. Amter

Proscribes Opposition at Forum

The Party has for some time been reorganising to take up the files of the C.P. We have been forced, in the face of official denunciation, to make the best possible use of the files that have been preserved, as well as of the files that still exist. We have been forced, in the face of official denunciation, to reorganise the C.P. and to prepare ourselves for the time when the struggle will be over. Work in I.L.D

OCTOBER 10, 1931.

We have received official information from our comrades in London and Paris that the I.L.D. (International Labor Defense) has been formed. The I.L.D. is an organisation of workers for the purpose of defending the rights of workers. The I.L.D. is an organisation of workers for the purpose of defending the rights of workers. The Party Discusses the Negro Problem

NEW YORK. In the Communist League (Opportunist League) meeting with Party members on Sunday, October 10, 1931, a discussion was held on the Negro question. The Negro question was discussed at length, and the need for an active policy on the part of the Party was emphasised.

BOSTON LECTURE: A lecture on "The Role of the Communist in America" was given by a member of the Communist Party of America. The lecture dealt with the role of the Communist in America, and the need for a strong and active Party organization.

Livinov in Turkey

A Moscow correspondent of the Komsomolskaya Pravda, writing under the by-lined name of "A. K.," has given an account of the recent Soviet conquest of the Turkish Republic. The text of the article is as follows:

The New Party Turn

The Manance of Fascism Increases

The dynamic and gigantic movement of national liberation is unfolding before our very eyes. The wave of nationalism, growing ever stronger, is sweeping across the globe. The people all over the world are rising up against the domination of imperialism and colonialism. The imperialists, however, are not ready to give up their power so easily. They are using various means, including force and propaganda, to try to hold on to their privileges and interests. But the people are not fools. They see through the imperialists' schemes and are determined to fight for their independence and freedom.

The Social-Democratic Opposition and the New Party

Such a party is needed in this period. The new party should be a genuine, independent, and revolutionary party. It should stand for the interests of the working class and the poor. It should be a party of the masses, a party of the people. It should be a party of the future, a party of progress.

The Prejudices of the Old Party

The old party is filled with prejudices. It is a party of the past, a party of the old. It is a party of reaction, a party of stagnation. It is a party of the rich, a party of the exploiters.

The New Party

The new party is a party of the future. It is a party of the people. It is a party of progress. It is a party of liberation. It is a party of the masses. It is a party of the working class. It is a party of the poor.

The New Party's Program

The new party's program is clear and simple. It is a program of social justice, a program of economic freedom, a program of political democracy. It is a program of peace, a program of international cooperation, a program of world harmony.

The New Party's Goals

The new party's goals are realistic and achievable. They are goals of a new world, a world of peace, a world of freedom, a world of democracy.

The New Party's Organization

The new party's organization is strong and effective. It is a network of local branches, a network of committees, a network of activists.

The New Party's Leadership

The new party's leadership is strong and dynamic. It is a leadership that is capable of guiding the party to victory, a leadership that is capable of leading the people to freedom.

Conclusion

The new party is the answer to the needs of the times. It is the party of the future. It is the party of the people. It is the party of the masses. It is the party of the working class. It is the party of the poor.

In Great Britain

Developments in England and Ireland

The General Election will be a crucial test of the new party's strength. It will be a test of the new party's ability to mobilize the masses, to organize the people, to fight for their rights. If the new party wins, it will be a great victory for the new party. If the old party wins, it will be a great victory for the old party.

The New Party's Strategy

The new party's strategy is clear and simple. It is a strategy of unity, a strategy of mass mobilization, a strategy of popular struggle.

The New Party's Tactics

The new party's tactics are effective and practical. They are tactics that are designed to win, tactics that are designed to fight for the people's rights.

The New Party's Goals

The new party's goals are clear and simple. They are goals of a new world, a world of peace, a world of freedom, a world of democracy.

The New Party's Leadership

The new party's leadership is strong and dynamic. It is a leadership that is capable of guiding the party to victory, a leadership that is capable of leading the people to freedom.

Conclusion

The new party is the answer to the needs of the times. It is the party of the future. It is the party of the people. It is the party of the masses. It is the party of the working class. It is the party of the poor.

FORCIBILITY AND ACTION

The leading members of the Chicago Tramwaymen's Union, who have been expelled from the Communist party, are reported to have organized a new union to be called the Communist Labor Union. They were expelled because they refused to recognize the Communist party as the only organization for the purpose of union activity and because they refused to accept its principles or the orthodox, that is, the official, line on any issue. The new union is expected to be an active one and to take an active part in the struggle for the conquest of the city.

The expulsion of these members has been a blow to the Communist party, but it is not likely that it will have any serious effect on the party's work. The party has a large number of members and a strong organization, and it is not likely that the expulsion of a few will affect its strength.

Activities in the Rank of the Opposers

We have received a report from the ranks of the Opposers that they are continuing their struggle against the Communist party. They have been making a number of attempts to gain the support of the workers, but so far they have not been successful. The workers are not interested in their propaganda and are not likely to be convinced by it. The Opposers are a small group and do not have much influence.

The Militant

Published monthly by the Communist party, it is a good source of information about the activities of the party. It is well written and informative and is a valuable addition to any collection of political literature. It is available at the price of 50 cents per copy.

Manchurian Events and the Communist Party

The Chinese Communist party, after a long period of activity, is now beginning to show signs of life. The party has been active in the Manchurian provinces and has gained a substantial number of members.

Greek Left Opposition in Appeal to British Sailors

We have received a report from the Greek Left Opposition that they are preparing an appeal to British sailors. They are making a determined effort to gain the support of the sailors, and it is likely that they will succeed. The sailors are sympathetic to the cause of the revolution and are likely to be interested in the appeal.
