KRUEGER, INSULL, CAPONE -ALL SELF-MADE MAN

Thomas Bata literally started on a shoestring. Like a good many of the big men of business he got his real start during the war. He got government contracts. Perhaps he did not put good leather in the shoes he made for the Austro-Hungarian soldiers who tramped to death for a cause that meant nothing but a continuation of slavery for them if their armies were victorious. Not so with the ruling classes. The Batas and Insulis and Kruegers make money on wars even if the countries to which they owe nominal allegiance ose. The workers always lose except when they fight for themselves. Soviet Russia pointed the way.

BATA BELIEVED IN FORD METHODS

Bata was an admirer of the efficiency methods practised by our own Henry ialism and an agent in the struggle against the Soviet Union and the revolutionary Chinese masses.

"The establishment of a dictatorial power in the hands of Chancellor von Papen", says a Berlin dispatch of the New York Evening Post, "has increased etc. It announces the death penalty for the tendency of the social democratic and the Communist workers to draw together in a united proletarian front".

This tendency will yet increase manifold. The workers of Germany realize that they are facing a life and death struggle with their mortal enemy. They recognize distinctly in the setting up of the Prussian dictatorship-the hand of Fascism. Their will to fight is not impaired. The showing they have made in the recent clashes with the Hitlerite bands prove that they are far 'rom giving up the struggle.

Yet, while the natural class bonds constantly tend to draw the workers, social democrats and Communists closer and closer, the proletarian camp still remains divided on the eve of battle.

The Daily Worker of Thursday July tells us that the "workers have been establishing the Red United Front . . . over the heads of the social democratic leaders". There can be nothing more dangerous than this deceptive and illusory piece of information. There can be nothing more criminal than the mainthoroughly false and splitting tactic of the "Red United Front" which poses the question of establishing united front action on the basis of an ultimatum handed to the workers to accept in advance the leaderunions. Police Bomb Workers

But the committee never came out. After waiting, listening and speaking for three hours, a committee of 50 women and 100 ex-service men volunteered to enter the City Hall to learn what was detaining the original committee of 12. The police immediately tossed a tear-gas bomb at the crowd, and someone in the crowd caught it and tossed it back in the midst of the police. The detectives and cops scampered back into the building, emerging a minute later with two machine-guns, tear-gas guns and several dozen tear-gas bombs. A couple of police began shooting point blank at the mass of people. Four workers falling down, one of them a Negro, who is seriously wounded and expected to die.

The unemployed, in defense of their lives, fought back heroically. With only bricks picked up from the street and some soda bottles and apples and oranges necessarily expropriated from a fruit dealer in their midst, the workers withstood the police tear gas and bullet fire for fully a quarter of an hour before the streets were cleared and capitalist "law and order" established.

In the event the Communist party does not immediately act against the police repressions, the St. Louis branch of the Communist League of America (Opposiion), despite its numerical smallness, will institute the elementary united front campaign for the workers' right to free speech and public assemblage, against the police terrorism, and for immediate unemployment relief.

ST. LOUIS.—

To protest against last Monday's police massacre, the "united front" of the Unemployed Council, the International poses. There were more cheers, but Labor Defense and the Communist party, issued circulars calling upon the workers to attend a public protest demonstration at Aloe Plaza, 18th and Market Streets on Wednesday at 5:30 P. M. But the protest demonstration failed to materialize. In compliance with the bluecoats' orders of "no congregating", the party members kept walking and walking and waiting and waiting. For a miracle, I suppose. The several hundreds workers who had come to join in the protest against the police terrorism waited an hour and some two hours trying to figure out why the party members were waiting, and then left, some in disgust, while party members continued looking at the sky, and tieing and re-tieing their shoelaces. I went up to one of the typical Stalinists (Schwartz) and offered (in line with our letter offering our support) to help start the meeting but was met with the parrot retort of "counter-revolutionists-we wouldn't do anything with you.'

Who is a Militant Builder? A Militant builder is a comrade or sympathizer who is seriously interested in building the circulation of the Militant because he realizes that our point of view, the ideas for which we are fighting, our fight must be carried to an ever widening circle of Communist and Left wing workers and to the working class generally. A Militant builder understands that to build the circulation of the Militant a because they have a change of heart, but rejects our proposal." The rank and group of people is necessary—a group of people who conceive it to be one of their main tasks to see workers, talk of workers, to get subs. JUST ARRIVED FROM ENGLAND!

We are in receipt of 30 copies of Whither England by comrade Trotsky. To our readers and comrades this book needs no introduction. It is a brilliant Marxian analysis of the class forces at work in old England. The predictions it makes have been confirmed by time and are being confirmed by the onward sweep of the class war.

The book is paper bound and runs to 180 pages. It sells for 75 cents. Orders which they are received.

WHAT NEXT?

On July 31 the elections to the Reichstag will take place in the midst of 1, we will issue comrade Trotsky's latest work dealing with the present situation in Germany. To workers already infected with Stalinism this book will be a sort of ideological antidote. To workers immune from the ideological degeneration of Stalinism this book will be a sort of immunization. That is our job—to combat and destroy the poison of Stalinism. This book by komrade Trotsky is a potent weapon in our hands-provided we apply it. If every comrade were to sell three copies a good part of our task would be accomplished.

Publications in Foreign Languages

A number of the works which we advertise in England are also obtainable from us in Jewish, Russian, Italian and Spanish. Comrades who read English with difficulty or feel more at home in their native languages should apply to us for information about these publications. We may not be able to fill every order but we will try.

BOUND VOLUMES OF TROTSKY'S PAMPHLETS

Do you want a copy of these bound volumes?. There are still a few left. Do you know a worker who wants to make a serious study of the principle questions in dispute between Stalinism and the International Left? Do you know a worker unclear on the basic question of Socialism in One Country? Do you know a worker who believes in the idiotic theory of social-Fascism? Do you know a worker who thinks we are counter-revolutionists?

If you know such a worker persuade him to buy a bound volume of these pamphlets by comrade Trotsky and study these questions for himself. Explain to him that while he can buy them singly, if he does this he will be unable to get three of the pamphlets which are out of print and unobtainable except in these bound volumes. These pamphlets are the all-important and basic document. The Draft Program of the Comintern: The Turn in the C. I. and the Situation in Germany; and World Unemployment and the Five Year Plan.

For lack of information, we cannot devote ourselves sufficiently to the role played by the official Communist party in the latest events. We shall return to that subject on another occasion. From the information we can get through the bourgeois and the local Communist press, it appears that the party did not attempt a repetition of its putschist tactics, pursued at the time of the revolt of the navy. Behind the scenes of the Stalinist apparatus a deep-going process is at work undermining the "monolithism" of the leading group which is narrowing down ever more threatening to the personality of Stalin. The official party press naturally maintains a censor-bound silence on what is going on in actuality. The present letter will give our readers an insight into some of the significant events taking recalled at present by many, but, of course, only among themselves, within a narrow circle. At this moment, in the summer of 1932, it is no less exigent to give oneself a lucid accounting of the actual situation than in the beginning of 1921. But here blocking the road at every step the party regime looms in the way. . .

The situation in foodstuffs is grave to extremes. Not only in Crimea or Georgia but in the Urals, Ukraine and Siberia. The deterioration in the functioning of the transport system has not been restored by Andreyev. Miracles were expected from this precocious burwhat direction to take. I speak in the put in place of the old Stalinist Rukhimovich, but the miracles did not materialize. The root of the matter is in the reform came unexpectedly. Its consequences may be very great. Wherever there is a scarcity of the most essential objects for ently about the markets because up to personal subsistence there you inexitably ing, speculation, etc. Such is the atmosphere that surrounds the cooperatives and the government trade units.

At the Congress of the Trade Unions, Molotov alone improvised on the theme that the successes of the five year plan found their expression "in the considerable betterment of the well-being of the working classes and of the laboring vilage." Molotov, in general, is reckoned as the leader of the Left flank of the Stalinist bureaucracy. It is rumored that he personally is against all retreats and modifications in the questions of collectivization and industrialization. But Rudzutak spoke at that same Congress in an altogether different tone, "Why are we so badly off in matters relating to supplying the workers? First of all because we allotted too little attention to this sphere of activity. We were absorbed in gigantic enterprises." In his old letter about the five year plan, C. G. Rakovsky long since sounded the alarm, warning that the industrialization could break off and endanger the entire regime, if the leaders would henceforth "pay little attention" to the problems of provisioning the workers. But Rakovsky is even now in Barnaul. While Rudzutak in Moscow is forced to admit. "The great mass of consumers, the great mass of workers, and collective farms operatives. who are served by poor cooperatives, poor trade institutions are becoming imbued with nasty feelings." There is. of course, no exaggeration whatever in Rudzudak's words. This spring in Moscow factories-even in Moscow where he position is privileged—there took place mass demonstrations of dissatisfaction. And the reasons? Increased prices, scarcity of goods, increased dues and taxes, and particularly the deficiency in victuals. It became necessary to mobilize some 3,000 agitators to get to work on the workers. Of course all these "misunderstandings" have thus far borne a family character. In so far as one may judge, the hourgeoisie and its agents, the Mensheviks did not succeed in getting their hands warm from this; but the symptomatic significance of these manifestations of dissatisfaction is very great. This is apparent if only from the fact that blocks of stone such as Rudzutak have become articulate.

It is necessary for the leadership of the Communist party to take a bold step in order not to crash into an abyss. It must tell the working class in all frank- United Front, demand that the Communness that its policies of the recent past -with its theory of "social Fascism" and its tactic of the "Red United Front" -have been false. The party must prove to the workers that it is earnest and sincere that it is capable of correcting its mistake, that it is their only genuine party. That requires an appeal to the followers of the social democrats and the reformist trade unions to put their leaders to the test, by demanding of them that they join in a united front of all the proletarian organization in the fight against Fascism.

The Class Line-Up-International

The imperialist powers are standing on the side, nodding with approval at the preparations for the Fascist seizure of power in Germany. France, so loud in its official and unofficial protests to mere parades of German Nationalities in the past, is keeping strangely silent to day, when Nationalist reaction spreads out in full force. Why? Because the French imperialists, like all the other's, realize what their class stakes are in the impending civil strfe. Hitler and his herald, Von Papen, know very well that in the struggle against their own working class, they will receive the full support of French imperialism. They know that in return for this support, they will have to act with their French supporters against the class brothers of the German working class in Soviet Russia. The struggle of the classes in Germany involves the struggle of the class on an international scale. The seizure of power throughout the land. But it is by the Fascists in Germany will give vague, embryonic and undirected. It is the signal for a general mobilization among the world powers against the how to turn or against which enemy U. S. Problems of the Unemployed York Central lowered its operating ratio to 74.5, the lowest for any month since 1929, and also increased its net with a smaller gross. Altogether some 20 railroads were able to report higher incomes. Mr. W. W. Colpitts, of Coverdale & Colpitts, railroad enginers, has estimated that if railway carloadings return to but halfway between their present level and the 1929 figures, the net operating income for the roads in the United States as a whole would be greater than in 1929."

Here we have a practical illustration of what the restoration of profits means. It represents an enormous increase in the intensity of exploitation; more profits realized with less men employed. The violent depression of the wage level is already well konwn, and known by actual experience to all employed workers. But by these very facts, the problems of the crisis, the problems of unemployment becomes even more distinctly problems of the working class as a whole, not at all confined to the unemployed alone. And the conclusion which we must of necesity draw therefrom will be that an unemployed movement confined to the unemployed alone is doomed to impotence and extinction. The unity of action of the employed with the unemployed must be assured.

The possibilities for this are available particularly in the stage we are now entering. Its permanent army of unemployed, its increase in intensity of exploitation and its depression of the wage level also bring the immediate and most pressing needs of the working class as a whole down to a more general, a more common level for all sections concerned. This will serve to harmonize its demands.

It is from such considerations as these that the party leadership must draw its conclusions. Its great opportunities it has so far recklessly frittered away, bureaucratically stifled all criticism and driven away again from the party ranks the many workers who came sincerely to Communism but could not agree with such methods. The party is now faced with a serious contest for influence with social reformism within the unemployment movement. The direction this movement will take, toward revolutionary national program. Morgan is with them. But one particular feature of disadvantential political level is so far only a objectives or merely toward reformism is still to be decided. If the party is to offset all this. democratic anti-Fascist groupings. Task of the Party

The Communist party will gain the leadership of the anti-Fascist masses not because it says so in the resolutions of the Central Committee, but when and to the degree in which it is capable of really placing itself at the head of the masses which are entering into struggle and of guiding them toward the overthrow of Fascism and capitalism. To the degree in which it is capable of proving that the struggle for democracy cannot be conceived as separate and opposed to the struggle for socialism, that is to say, the struggle for the proletarian power, for the creation of a new state, a workers' state. The necessity for the Communist Party of Italy of re-examining its policy gress of the Italian Communist Party was described by the leadership as the last before we reach the threshold of the of this congress is evident enough. It is the membership and with the direct participation of our opposition. The urgency of this congress is felt by every comrade who follows the Italian and the international situation. The convocation of a congress of our party is also Congress of the Communist International, the necessity of which can well be realized, if one takes into account all the events that have unfolded during the four years that separate us from the unfortunate Sixth Congress.

Our demand must become the demand of all the comrades who are conscientious
