STEEL TRUCE IN DEADLOCK AT CAPITOL

By DAN EASTMAN

WASHINGTON—A three-day "steel truce" has ended at the Capitol. After the Capitol's security forces had been struck by the steel workers' strike, the Capitol has announced that it will not open until such time as the strike is settled.

The strike began two days ago when the workers refused to return to their jobs. The workers have been picketing in front of the Capitol for the past two days, demanding that the Capitol reopen.

The strike was called by the Workers Party of the U.S. in response to the Capitol's decision to suspend operations.

The Workers Party called for a general strike to force the Capitol to reopen.

The Workers Party has been pressing for a new strike to end the capitalist system and create a socialist society.

Wild Cat Strike Looms at Mine

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—When the miners of the 24th Street Colliery at South Chicago, a branch of the United Mineworkers of America, met here this week for their weekly meeting, they learned that John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers were sending a strike team to the South Chicago plant. The reason: a labor dispute.

Two days later, the company announced it would do the job.

The company's decision to replace the workers was met with a strike, and the miners said they would fight the company in court.

Miriam..."I don't want to work for less money. I want to work for more money. I want to work for a better life for my family. I want to work for the future of our country. I want to work for a better world. And I want to work for a union that will make all of these dreams a reality."

"We're not just fighting for ourselves. We're fighting for everyone. We're fighting for solidarity and unity. And we're fighting for justice and equality."

"So let's stand together and fight for what we believe in. Let's stand together and fight for a better tomorrow. Let's stand together and fight for a brighter future."

"Thank you."

Votes are Counted for National Committee

The victory for the Workers Party in this election is an important step forward. It shows that our message of solidarity and unity is resonating with people across the country. It shows that our fight for justice and equality is gaining strength. And it shows that our vision for a better tomorrow is gaining momentum.

Thank you all for your support and your dedication. We will continue to fight, to struggle, and to resist. We will continue to stand together and fight for what we believe in. And we will continue to build a brighter future for all people. Thank you."
